BETROTHAL ANNOUNCED — Mr. and Mrs. Frank Heathe of Spokane, Wash., announce the engagement of their daughter, Nancy, to Kenneth Sipelle, son of Mrs. Frank Webster of Roseburg. Both Nancy and Kenneth were graduated Sunday from University of Oregon. Ken also received his commission as a second lieutenant and will report at Fort Knox, Ky., for duty Oct. 2. The wedding date has been set for Sept. 5 in Spokane, Wash.

THE RAND-RADFORD WEDDING was an event of Friday, June 13, at the First Christian Church, when Mary Lou Radford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Radford, became the bride of John

Rand, only son of Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Rand, all of Roseburg. The Rev. Newell Morgan performed the impressive double ring ceremony in the presence of 125 guests. Friday the 13th was the day chosen by the couple because it was on a Friday the 13th they started going together and they also became engaged on a Friday the 13th. (Picture by Chris of Photo Lab).

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Lena Poole of Roseburg sang "O, Promise Me," her closing selection was "I Love You Truly." She was accompanied at the piano by Mrs. John Fenderson, who also played the wedding music and incidental selections.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George R. Biss of Tri-City, was attired in a gown of traditional white bridal satin with floor-length train, long sleeves and sweetheart neckline. Her fingertip veil of lace and net cascaded about her shoulders, caught in her blond hair by a tiny white floral tiara. The bridal bouquet was of red rosebuds.

Preceded by her attendants, the radiant bride entered on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. She was met at the altar by the bridegroom, attended by Joe Fowler of Myrtle Creek as his best man. The bride's attendants, wore matching gowns of pastel taffeta with full skirts, scoop necklines and wide sashes. They wore flowers in their hair and carried matching nosegays. The flower girls, carrying baskets of petals, were also gowned in taffeta dresses with puff sleeves and net overskirts.

The three-tiered wedding cake, topped by the bride and bridegroom figurine which has graced the cakes of other members of the bride's family, was served with punch and coffee at the reception. Mrs. Edgar Barnes of Fortuna, Calif., Mrs. Robert Pyle of Klamath Falls and Mrs. Pressley Pyle of Grants Pass, all aunts of the bride, presided at the refreshment table. Mrs. Emmitt Belcher of Tiller, who had been the 4-H leader of homemaking clubs in which the bride participated during her elementary school days, served the wedding cake. Mrs. Eleanor Gervais of Riddle kept the guest register and Mrs. Milton Hammersly of Tiller took care of the gift table.

The bride was graduated from Myrtle Creek High School with the class of 1958, having transferred last fall from Days Creek. Mr. Weaver served overseas with the U. S. Army and following his return to civilian life has been employed at Pacific Plywood at Dillard.

For her going-away costume, the bride wore a white suit with matching accessories. Her corsage was a tiny arrangement of roses lifted from the center of her bridal bouquet. Mrs. George Sosie of Riddle made the lovely floral arrangements.

After a wedding trip the newlyweds will return to make their home at Tri-City.

Miss Sandra Fairfield of Days Creek, attired in blue, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Jewel Warrington of Klamath Falls, cousin of the bride, wearing yellow; anchor cousin, Dorothy Morfeld of Grants Pass, in green; William Miss, cousin of the bridegroom, Myrtle Creek, in pink; and Joan Gervais of Riddle, in lavender. Flower girls were Sheila Moss in yellow, Kathy Harris in pink and Jean Gervais in blue. Ushers were the bride's three brothers, John, George and James Biss; and BRIDE-ELECT — Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Powell of Lookingglass announce the engagement of their daughter, Wanda L. Powell, to Kenneth Dale Swift, also of Lookingglass. The bride-elect was graduated in 1957 from Douglas High School and has been employed part time at the Wilson Studio. Mr. Swift was graduated in 1953 from Roseburg High School and completed his electronics course in the service and will continue that line in Seattle. No date has been set for the wedding. MR. AND MRS. ELWIN RAY JONES pose for their wedding picture following their marriage Friday, June 13, at 6 p.m. at the Sutherlin home of the bride's brother, the Rev. David Leon Arrant, who performed the single ring ceremony before family members. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel L. Arrant of Sutherlin. The bridegroom is from Central Point. He was attended by Lonnie Arrant. The bride wore a white street-length dress with flowered bodice and carried a bouquet of red and white roses. Following the ceremony, the bridegroom returned to his base at San Francisco where he is stationed with the U. S. Navy. The bride will be making her home temporarily with her parents.

White gladioli and blue-colored carnations, flanked by floor-candelabra holding tall white candles formed the altar decorations for the wedding Friday evening, June 13, of Miss Mary Lou Radford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Radford, and John Rand, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Rand, all of this city, at the First Christian Church at 7:30 p.m. with the Rev. George Knox, pastor of the Westside Christian Church, officiating at the impressive double ring ceremony. One-hundred and twenty-five guests attended the wedding and reception. White and blue satin bows marked the church pews.

Mrs. S. Clarence Trued played the traditional wedding marches and accompanied Frank Moore, who sang, "Wedding Prayer," "Walk Hand in Hand" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was beautiful in a floor-length white satin, lace and net wedding gown, fashioned with a train, an Elizabethan collar and long sleeves. Her veil of illusion fell from a halo crown and she carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations.

Miss Norma Lea was maid of honor and Miss Joyce Rand, cousin of the bridegroom; Miss Sharon Spielman and Miss Sally Radford, North Bend, cousin of the bride, were bridesmaids and wore gowns of pale blue embroidered taffeta. The maid of honor carried a nosegay of white carnations centered by a blue carnation and the bridesmaids carried nosegays of blue carnations centered by a white carnation.
