Moreland Presbyterian Church in Portland was the scene of a very lovely wedding Sunday, June 15, when Carol Lee Johnson of Portland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Johnson of Roseburg, became the bride of Stuart G. Springer, Portland, son of Mrs. T. W. Hansen of Salem, and John Springer of San Diego, Calif., with the Rev. Marvin Keyser performing the ceremony at 8 p.m. in the presence of 450 guests.

White and pink gladioli in flower baskets and tall standards holding white cathedral candles decorated the altar. Mrs. Nathan Belcher, organist, played the traditional wedding marches and accompanied Mary Bell, sorority sister of the bride, who sang, "Wither Thou Goest," and Ivan Woods, who sang "The Lord's Prayer," as the bride and bridegroom knelt on a white satin pillow at the close of the ceremony. Diane Nicholson gave Elizabeth Barrett Browning's "How Should I Love Thee." Given in marriage by her father, the bride was very beautiful in a floor-length princess gown of white tulle with bodice of Alencon lace with a bustle and bow and full court train. Her veil of illusion fell from a jeweled tiara. She carried an orchid tied with a shower of white satin ribbons.

Mrs. Eugene (Shirley) Stanton of Portland, was matron of honor of the bride, and Jean Toews, Boise, Idaho; Mrs. C. C. (Cecilia) Broome, Walla Walla, Wash.; Aileen Palo, Myrtle Creek; Jane Geil, Salem, and Kathryn Johnson of the Philippines all sorority sisters of the bride, were bridesmaids, and junior bridesmaid was 8-year-old Melissa Bradford of Portland. They wore princess gowns of white nylon chiffon with cummerbunds of lace and carried nosegays of pink and white flowers tied with satin ribbons. Their headbands matched their bouquets.

Tom W. Hansen, Salem, step-father of the bridegroom, was best man and Larry Hail, Joe Medley, cousin of the bridegroom; his brother-in-law, Eugene Stanton; Garvin Lovejoy, a fraternity brother, all of Portland, and Hugh Adams of St. Helens, were ushers. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Johnson chose an aqua lace gown with matching gloves and hat and the bridegroom's mother wore a mauve pink lace and crystal garter. Both mothers wore corsages of brown cymbidium orchids.
