

ART POLLARD racing point champ

Hardtop Racing Slated Tonight

Racing fans will find another Pacific Racing Assn. card at the Roseburg Speedway tonight, the second home date of the season. Again, this weekend, hardtops are expected from Coos Bay, Eugene, Medford and Roseburg, all vying for points and top finishes. Drivers will compete in another full program, including Class A and B main events; an A and B trophy dash and four heat races. In the opener last weekend, fans saw one car catch fire in the Class B main. Coos Bay driver, Ansel Dewey was leading the race, when forced out on the 21 lap. Two Roseburg drivers drove to wins in the main events last Friday night. Art Pollard, the defending point champ, won out in the main event for Class A cars. In the other main go, Ford Plant topped the top spot. The time trials for the races will begin at 7 p.m., with the first race set for 8 p.m.

Chiefs, Yakima In Hot Battle For 2nd Place

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS With only three days remaining on the schedule, Lewiston's high-flying Bronces have the Northwest Baseball League's "first-half" championship safely tucked away, and it will be a down-to-the-wire battle between Yakima and Wenatchee for the runnerup spot.

Both teams won again Friday night to remain tied, 7 1/2 games back of the Bronces. The season is split after Monday's games and weekend contests will decide the issue. In Friday night's games, Yakima took the measure of Salem, 5-1, and Wenatchee shut out Eugene, 3-0.

Lewiston, meanwhile, kept right on winning, dropping Tri-City 12-1. Wenatchee's Claude Osteen and Eugene's Bill Ellis hooked up in a pitching duel in the clash at Eugene.

Both gave up only five hits, but three Wenatchee safeties were in tandem and Yakima an error and an error — spelled the difference.

Osten also helped his own cause with a ninth inning double that chased in Jake Azcue with the final Wenatchee tally.

In Salem, Yakima scored twice in the first inning and rolled on to an easy victory. Salem touched Yakima hurler Ted Kambour for nine safe blows but couldn't bunt them until the sixth when Jack Dunne singled, moved to third on safeties by Cal Bauer and Herb Anderson and tallied on an infield out.

Lewiston's Pip Kipper was in control all the way as he pitched the Bronces to their win over Tri-City. He allowed but five hits, walked three and struck out eight for his 10th win.

Mackay, Top U.S. Hope, Wins Over Australian

WIMBLEDON, England (AP)—Barry Mackay of Dayton, Ohio, major American hope for the men's title, won a long-drawn, loosely played third round match from Bob Mark of Australia Saturday and gained the fourth round. The match was started Friday but halted because of heavy rains. Budge Patty of Los Angeles and Paris, and Gardner Mulloy of Coral Gables, Fla., joined Mackay in the fourth round. The three made up the U.S. male contingent left in this rain-plagued tourney. Patty downed bearded Torben Ulrich of Denmark, 4-6, 7-5, 6-1, 6-2, while Mulloy skidded to a 3-6, 6-4, 6-4, 6-2 triumph over Mike Green of Miami, Fla. The grass was so wet that Mulloy played a part of his match in his bare feet.

Kono, Doule Enter Inland Empire Tennis Tourney

SPOKANE (AP)—Art Kono of Seattle and Harry Doule of Portland, two of the Northwest's top young players, Friday entered the annual Inland Empire tennis tournament. The tournament starts here Tuesday with Bill Rose of Portland, the defending singles champion, back to defend his title. He won it last year in a match with Doyle Perkins of Seattle who is also entered again.

Pierce Loses No-Hit Bid In 9th; Bums Beat Braves

Pinch Hitter Fitz Gerald Spoils Perfect Game Job

Table with 2 columns: Team, W L Pct. GB. Includes New York, Kansas City, Detroit, Boston, Chicago, Cleveland, Baltimore, Washington.

Table with 2 columns: Team, W L Pct. GB. Includes Milwaukee, St. Louis, San Francisco, Cincinnati, Chicago, Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, Los Angeles.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS On June 15, 1950, Billy Johnson of the New York Yankees hit a fifth-inning single. On April 16, 1953, Bobby Young of the St. Louis Browns doubled with two out in the seventh. Last night, Ed Fitz Gerald of the Washington Senators lined a pinch double with two out in the ninth. Three isolated hits stretched over eight years — yet each was all that stood between southpaw Billy Pierce and a no-hitter. And Fitz Gerald's was the toughest crusher yet, puncturing a perfect pitching performance by the Chicago White Sox veteran after 8 2/3 innings.

But Billy, back on the beam after a terrible start this season, then turned his back on Fitz Gerald at second and struck out Albie Pearson, nailing a 3-0 one hit victory over the Senators for his third consecutive shutout and seventh by the White Sox in 12 games. It was Pierce's 29th shutout in a 12-year career.

Yanks Drub A's While Pierce was working on what looked like the first regular season perfect game since Charley Robertson of the White Sox did it against Detroit in 1922, the New York Yankees were drubbing second place Kansas City 10-3 and padding their American League lead to 8 1/2 games ahead. Detroit broke a third place tie with Boston by beating the Red Sox 7-4, and Cleveland gave new manager Joe Gordon a 7-4 victory over Baltimore.

In the National League, Los Angeles whipped Milwaukee 3-1, but the Braves retained a 1 1/2-game lead as Philadelphia stopped second place St. Louis 5-4 in 11 innings and Cincinnati beat third place San Francisco 6-5. The Chicago Cubs defeated Pittsburgh 5-1.

Fans Nine Pierce, 31, walked none and struck out nine as only Fitz Gerald, a right-handed batter hitting right-handed, had any hits. He doubled and scored in the third against loser Russ Kemmerer (4-6) on a single by Jim Landis, who had three of the Sox' eight hits. Sherm Lollar's single counted the other two runs in the eighth.

The only perfect game since Robertson's belongs to Yankee Don Larsen who shattered World Series precedent in the fifth game of the 1956 classic against Brooklyn. Ray Herbert, now 3-3, was the loser for the A's. Art Ditmar (2-0) won in relief.

The Red Sox' Jackie Jensen hit a two-run homer, his 20th, to regain the AL lead. Bill Fischer (3-3) was the winner for the Tigers. Don Mossi (5-6) won in relief for the Indians. Billy O'Dell was the loser for an 8-8 record.

Koufax Pays Off It looks as though this is the year the Los Angeles Dodgers pocket the payoff on that $20,000 bonus southpaw Sandy Koufax collected in 1954.

Sandy's been right handy of late, winning three and saving another in a six-day span while the last place Dodgers have won six of seven in a come-alive drive that has produced their first four-game winning streak of the season.

Brooklyn - born Koufax, 22, hit his one-season high with his sixth victory last night, a complete game job that gave him a 4-0 lifetime record against Milwaukee. He also stretched the Dodgers' winning record over the Braves to nine in a row, seven this season.

While Los Angeles moved within six games of Milwaukee, the Braves' National League lead remained at 1 1/2 games despite their third consecutive loss, their fifth in seven games.

The Chicago Cubs took fifth place cracking a tie with Pittsburgh, which has lost seven in a row.

Homers Win Solo home runs by Dick Gray and John Roseboro nailed it for the Dodgers, who had but five hits, four off starter - loser Joey Jay (1-2), another ex-bonus kid. Koufax walked two, struck out eight and gave up seven hits.

Dick Farrell (5-2) won his fourth in a row with a one-hit, shutout relief over 2 2/3 innings for the Phils.

The Giants, down 4-1, hustled back on Daryl Spencer's 10th homer and Rookie Orlando Cepeda's 16th, both two-run shots, for a 5-4 edge by the fifth, then blew it in the 8th. An error by Ed Bressoud, a walk and Johnny Temple's triple packed it away for reliever Hal Jeffcoat (4-4). Marv Grissom (4-3) lost it in relief for the Giants.

Moe Drabowsky, the Cub's bonus kid who gets married today, had a two-hit shutout until Johnny Powers' first homer in the eighth, then needed Bill Henry's relief in the ninth to gain a 6-7 record. Loser Bob Friend (9-8) has lost four straight.

Cleveland Arrival Happy For Gordon

CLEVELAND (AP)—A smiling Joe Gordon, happy to be back in baseball and happy to be back in Cleveland, stepped off a plane here Friday. He was greeted by effervescent and smiling Frank Lane, who Thursday night dismissed Bobby Bragan as the Cleveland Indians' field manager in favor of the 43-year-old Gordon. Gordon told Lane he was delighted at the opportunity to take over the helm of the sixth-place Tribe. Lane was equally delighted. He said the former Indians' second baseman would be a "good stabilizer" for the club. Gordon, who had been in the insurance business in Sacramento, Calif., managed San Francisco last year. He left baseball after piloting San Francisco to a Pacific Coast League pennant. This is his first crack at managing a major league team. Before making any plans for the Indians, Gordon said he would have to meet with his coaches. Terms of his contract with the Tribe have not been discussed, Gordon said. Lane said he phoned Gordon at his Sacramento home last Wednesday. When he asked Gordon about how soon he could take over the Indians the new manager replied enthusiastically, "yesterday." Lane said he tried to talk terms with Gordon, who replied: "We'll talk about that later." Gordon said he had turned down other offers to get back into baseball in a coaching status.

Kenny Lane Says He'll Solve Brown Lefty Jinx

HOUSTON (AP)—Kenny Lane, the Muskegon challenger, believes he is the left-hander who can stop lightweight champion Joe Brown's mastery over southpaws. Lane expressed such confidence yesterday shortly after signing to meet the 32-year-old champion here July 23 in a 15-round nationally televised title fight. Brown has beaten every left-hander he has faced while compiling a record that includes 72 victories, 9 draws and 15 defeats. The New Orleans-Houston Negro will be seeking his 33rd knockout when he meets Lane in Sam Houston Coliseum. "I beat more right-handers than Brown beat southpaws," said Lane, the 25-year-old Michigan boxer who has held the No. 1 spot among lightweight challengers nearly two years. "Besides, I'm a left-hander but I think right-handed," he said.

Wet Weather Marks Play In Tourney

WIMBLEDON, England (AP)—Every cloud in the sky now frightens the promoters of the Wimbledon Tennis Championships. Never before in history, the old timers say, has so much rain fallen on tennis' little green acre. Never before have so many tennis players been so mud-spattered and water-logged. But if the elements have played their part, the organizers of the world's greatest tennis show have one thing to be thankful for. They have the most patient fans in the world.

Needs Sun But patient fans or not, this tournament has got to have some sun. Already it is raining 36 to 40 matches behind. The overnight scheduling system is being partially abandoned to allow the committee to send players to the courts on the basis of availability. In other words, if a player hangs around the clubhouse long enough they will just keep sending him back out. Only two of 46 matches were completed yesterday when it was even too wet for the duchess of Kent, a great tennis fan. Neale Fraser, a left-handed Australian, was in one of the completed ones. He defeated Antonio Maggi, Italy, 6-0, 6-4, 6-3 in a match that saw both players falling all over the court. Says Fraser: "Picking himself up once, Fraser muttered: 'What a life. A man could break a leg out there and be miserable while he was doing it.'"

The other match run off was a mixed doubles in which G. L. Ward and Miss J. M. Bundy, Britain, defeated O. H. Garride, Cuba, and Miss Mary Hellyer, Australia, 6-4, 6-3. Barry Mackay, America's big hope was one set down and 8-8 against Bob Mark, Australia, when rain halted them. The Dayton, Ohio, boy was still confident he would win the match if the weather lifted.

Atkinson Seeks 2nd State Crown WARRENTON (AP)—Bob Atkinson Jr. of Portland went after his second state crown when he met young Keith Gubrud of Eugene in the championship round of the Oregon Amateur Golf Tournament here Saturday. Atkinson advanced to the finals with a lopsided 7 and 6 triumph Friday over fellow-townsmen Don Krieger, the tourney champion in 1946 and runnerup last year. Gubrud, a 22-year-old who attends the University of Oregon, took an early lead and held it in his 3 and 2 semifinal victory over Ralph Dichter of Astoria. The men's final, like the women's, was over a 36-hole route at the Astoria Golf and Country Club. In the women's final Saturday, defending champion Grace DeMoss of Corvallis met Mrs. Maude Bost of Portland, the tourney's medalist. Miss DeMoss Friday fashioned a narrow 1-up triumph over young Elaine Porritt of Eugene, another University of Oregon student. Mrs. Bost had little trouble in gaining the title round. Friday she disposed of Molly Murphy of Portland 8 and 7.

Gale Winds Fail To Cool Play Of NW Jr. Stars YAKIMA (AP)—Strong winds that interrupted play failed to cool off the favorites as the first two rounds of the Northwest Junior Sectional Tennis championship were played Friday. Top-seeded single players, Patty Miller, Portland, and Bill Burley, Seattle, won their second round matches handsly. Both had first round byes. Miss Miller defeated Judy Gamlin, Vancouver, B.C., 6-3, 6-1. Burley downed Dan Garner, Olympia, 7-5, 6-1.

UO Coach In Hospital For Treatment Of Back EUGENE (AP)—University of Oregon baseball coach Don Kirsch was admitted to a hospital here Friday for treatment of a back ailment. He is in the logging business here.

Winetrot To Play Springfield Sunday; Lindquist Top Hitter

The Winetrot Ford American Legion junior baseball club today, meeting the Springfield Legion team in a doubleheader at Springfield. Although currently holding down the basement spot in the district, the Winetrot team finally played the type of ball Coach Bill George and fans were expecting Wednesday night. The 5-2 win over Lockwood Motors was an example of the club's potential.

On the same day the Winetrot nine grabbed its first win in league action, the Springfield nine lost to the surprise of the loop, Lowell. This was an unexpected turn of events to everyone but George. The Winetrot mentor, whose team dropped two close contests to Lowell, believes the Lowell team is a far better team than the one which lost two to Lockwood.

The Springfield team, which is composed of players from the tough Springfield High ball club, is one of the top favorites in District One and is still in first place in the loop with a 3-1 record. Winetrot has a 2-5 season mark, and is 1-5 in league play.

Top Pitchers Ready George will go with his top pitchers in the twin-bill. This will find southpaw Steve Keele and right-hander Wes Davidson on the mound. Keele now has a 1-2 season mark and Davidson is 1-3. The Winetrot club has one hitter belting the ball over 400 and counting over 300 during the summer—and his second straight triumph over Lynn Yturri. Lovett fired a sizzling 69 Friday in winning the Oregon Jaycee Junior Tournament. He had a two-day total of 140—two strokes better than Yturri.

On the 18th, Yturri got a par 3 while Lovett canned a birdie. Despite his second-place finish, though, Yturri still qualified for the National Jaycee Tourney in Tucson Aug. 18-23. Earlier this month, Lovett won the state tourney quality for the national test. So, in addition to Lovett and Yturri, the state will be represented by Dave Munro of Beaverton and Mickey Shaw of Portland. Munro Friday shot a 74 for a two-day total of 148, while Shaw finished fourth with 76-77-153.

Phoenix Loses But Holds Top Spot; Braves Blanked

PHOENIX (AP)—The Mounties down on six hits as his San Diego teammates rattled Mel Held for nine safeties. The Padres got all of their runs in the top of the ninth. Four singles and a walk did the damage. Chuck Churn, Seattle's big right-hander wiped the Solons out on three hits in the opener of the Rainiers-Sacs bargain bill. Fireman Bill Kennedy, Seattle's ace reliever, finished up without giving up a hit. Carl Greene was even stungier with hits as he won the nightcap for Sacramento on two safeties. Hal Bevan and Eddie Basinski got the only two Seattle hits, both singles. Greene fanned five and walked five. George Perez shut the Beavers out on four hits as his Salt Lake City mates tagged three Portland pitchers for 12 hits, including Dick Barone's three-run homer in the fifth inning and Dick Stuart's solo circuit blast in the fifth. It was Stuart's 30th homer of the season.

Spokane coasted in to victory over the powerful Giants on the strength of just one hit, Bob Jenkins' grand slam homer in the third inning. Fowler was the winner, although he needed help from Bob Milliken in the seventh after giving up two singles. Hal Woodeschick stretched his record to 8-2 by setting the Mounties down on six hits as his San Diego teammates rattled Mel Held for nine safeties.

It was Stuart's 30th homer of the season.

Spokane coasted in to victory over the powerful Giants on the strength of just one hit, Bob Jenkins' grand slam homer in the third inning. Fowler was the winner, although he needed help from Bob Milliken in the seventh after giving up two singles. Hal Woodeschick stretched his record to 8-2 by setting the Mounties down on six hits as his San Diego teammates rattled Mel Held for nine safeties.

The Padres got all of their runs in the top of the ninth. Four singles and a walk did the damage. Chuck Churn, Seattle's big right-hander wiped the Solons out on three hits in the opener of the Rainiers-Sacs bargain bill. Fireman Bill Kennedy, Seattle's ace reliever, finished up without giving up a hit. Carl Greene was even stungier with hits as he won the nightcap for Sacramento on two safeties.
