The Church of God at North Bend was the scene Saturday, June 14, of the 8 p.m. ceremony uniting in marriage Gladys McCarthy of Empire, daughter of Mrs. Hattie McCarthy, and Charles Palmer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Palmer of Coos Bay. The double ring service was performed by candlelight before a trellised archway which was decorated with greenery, calla lilies and daisies. The Rev. Noble LaVelle read the nuptial service, assisted by the Rev. Howard Baker of the First Church of God, Roseburg.

Mrs. Floyd McCoy was organist and accompanied Marilyn LaVelle who sang "On This Day of Promise," "I Love You Truly" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Leroy McCarthy, was lovely in her chapel-length gown of lace and nylon tulle, with elbow-length veil of nylon lace. She carried a cascade bouquet of Frenched carnations centered by an orchid.

Maid of honor was Connie Katzenberger; bridesmaids were Kathryn Palmer, Bonnie Wargo, JoAnn Johnston and Mary Demarest. All wore pastel blue embossed taffeta frocks. Miss Katzenberger's colonial bouquet was of white gladioli centered with roses. The bridesmaids carried colonial bouquets of white daisies. Candelights were Jeannette Palmer and Charlotte Leaton in yellow embossed taffeta dresses. Jeannette Moen and Peggy Palmer, dressed in blue nylon frocks flowered in white, were flower girls. Ring bearers were Gregg Cooper and Patty Palmer.

Melvin Palmer Jr., brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Jerry Wilbert, Ronald Klenn, Wayne Hutchins and Paul Haines.

The bride's mother was attired in a frock of starlight blue silk with beige accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a dress of mauve lace over taffeta with white accessories. Both wore corsages of white carnations and pink roses.

At the reception given in the church social room following the ceremony, Mrs. Victor Demarest, aunt of the bride, cut the tiered cake which she had baked and decorated. Karen and Kathy Demarest served punch and coffee. Leroy McCarthy registered the guests and the Misses Joanne Cote and Virginia DeMoss attended the gift table.

For her honeymoon trip to Roseburg, the bride wore a blue sheath dress. The bride will be a senior at Marshfield Senior High School next year. The bridegroom was graduated from Roseburg High School and is employed by the Coos Bay city engineers.

Coming from out of town to attend the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Orin Demarest, Kathy, Karen, Karl and Karla; Mrs. Dexter Haines, Paul and Francis; Miss Ruth Alderman, Miss Virginia DeMoss, Jerry Graham, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Willy and Mr. and Mrs. Horace Maynard, all of Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Tilton, Rosalie, Earl and Virginia; Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Palmer Jr., Peggy, Patty and Vicky; Wayne Hutchins, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Hulbert and the Rev. and Mrs. Howard Baker and Janet, Joanne and John, all of Roseburg; Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Palmer, Sheriden; Miss Bonnie Wargo, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Orlan Palmer, Lakeside; and Jerry Wilbert, Holt, Mich.
