

Life Magazine's Fashion Roundup To Spot Roseburg

A pair of Life magazine staff members stopped in Roseburg Thursday on an assignment which will spotlight Roseburg and other western cities in a fashion roundup next fall.

LIFE MAGAZINE staff members are shown being greeted Thursday morning at Roseburg Airport. Mrs. Robert G. (Jeanne) Davis, who modeled the Life fashions Thursday afternoon, is on the left. Next in order are Mrs. Jane LeBeau and Mrs. Mabel Lewis, both of whom aided in arrangements for Life's Roseburg assignment. Sally Kirkland, Life fashion editor, is next to Mrs. Lewis. A West Coast Airlines employee stands at the bottom of the ramp ready to aid Life photographer Howell Conant, in doorway, with his baggage. Roseburg dignitaries on hand to greet the magazine people included Mayor Arlo Jacklin and Chamber of Commerce Manager Harold Reaume.

Death Summons Mrs. I. N. Gray

Mrs. I. N. (Dove) Gray, 59, of Canyonville, died this morning in a Canyonville hospital.

Mrs. Gray was born Feb. 20, 1899, at Lemons, Mo. She was married to I. N. Gray Oct. 3, 1914, at Wheatland, Wyo. They lived in California prior to moving to Canyonville in 1943.

In addition to her husband, she is survived by one son, Ralph of Compton, Calif., and four sisters, Mrs. Alan Boatwick of Braudun, Mont., Mrs. Mary Scott of Rochester, Wash., Mrs. Alice Menney of Powell, Wyo., and Mrs. E. N. Romig of Wheatland, Wyo.

Funeral services will be at 2 p. m. Monday in the Canyonville Methodist Church with Elder Neal Losey of the Canyonville Seventh-day Adventist Church officiating. Interment will be in the Canyonville Masonic Cemetery. Gans Mortuary of Myrtle Creek has charge of arrangements.

Roseburg Funeral Rite Set For California Man

Clarence G. Marshall, 65, died at Crescent City, Calif., Wednesday afternoon after a short illness. He was an employee of the Brookings Plywood Corp. and had made his home in Crescent City since 1951.

Surviving are his wife, Dorothy, of Crescent City; a son, Clifford of Tillier; nine grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

Graveside services will be at Roseburg Memorial Gardens Monday at 1:30 p. m. with the Rev. John Adams of the First Presbyterian Church of Roseburg officiating.

OSC Scientists Study Flock Of Midget Chicks

CORVALLIS (AP) — Oregon State College poultry scientists are studying a flock of midget chickens that lay normal sized eggs on less feed.

Paul E. Berringer, poultry geneticist here, has a flock of six true dwarf laying hens—about half regular size—that have matched the bigger chickens in the OSC flock egg for egg during the past year.

Researchers are planning to start a study to see if the little birds can maintain their production rate on a lifetime scale. They say smaller hens may have an important place in the poultry industry with the trend away from dual-purpose chickens producing both meat and eggs.

Garbage Disposal Terms Reached At Oakland

The Oakland City Council Thursday night agreed to permit E. R. Funderburk to enlarge his garbage disposal operation with the city to receive 2 per cent of the gross receipts on hauls outside the city.

The approval was granted at a postponed meeting with the new mayor, Paul Schulze, presiding. All councilmen were present. Edith Dunn, News-Review correspondent, reported.

Funderburk, who has garbage disposal franchises for Oakland and Sutherlin, outlined his plan for enlarging his service to the surrounding area. He offered the city 2 per cent of the gross on garbage hauled from outside the city for the first year. Later, he said, if the venture proves successful, a higher rate will be paid.

Funderburk now pays 7 per cent on gross receipts for garbage hauled from Oakland. The dump ground is owned by the city.

Passed was a nuisance ordinance covering such things as fire hazards, unsanitary conditions and abandoned cars.

L. F. Stearns, street superintendent, was granted a six months' leave of absence and John Edwards was appointed to fill the post.

Sutherlin C.C. Elects Officers

Sandy McBride was elected president of the Sutherlin Chamber of Commerce at the group's regular monthly meeting this week, reported Correspondent Sue Siskstrom.

Other new officers are Bob Williams, vice president; Harold Austin, secretary; and O. L. Torry, treasurer. Named to the board of directors were Frank McCord, Art Bennett, Dr. Warren A. Kadas, Frank Topping and George Trumbo. McCord will serve three years, Bennett and Kadas two years and Topping and Trumbo one year.

As its current project, the chamber announced it will undertake to clean Sutherlin area drainage ditches to aid flood control.

Harry Sprague, chairman of "Sutherlin Merchants' Boost-a-Day," reported on the progress of the program. The "boost" program is aimed at promoting retail trade in Sutherlin.

The recent membership drive was termed an "overwhelming success" by chamber officials. Current membership is reported at about 75.

Doug Sanders, Sutherlin High School junior, reported on his one-week stay at Beaver Boys' State in Corvallis. Sanders was sent by the chamber to represent Sutherlin.

PLAIN TRUTH

By Glen W. Lundy, Gospel Evangelist

"If any man speak, let him speak as the oracles of God." 1 Pet. 4:11. Compare this statement with the popular declaration of prominent religious leaders today. "Kneel down by your radio or prayer altar and accept Christ as your personal Savior and you will be saved." Many leading denominations, who a few years ago would never have asserted such a doctrine, today very glibly agree. Where, in the Oracles of God, is such an idea expressed or even inferred?

In Jn. 12:42 it is revealed that some believed on Jesus, but would not openly confess him and obey his will for fear of their position. Do you believe that these persons were pleasing to God and receiving salvation? Yet the scriptures plainly state, "they believed on Him." Again, in James 2:19, "thou believest there is one God, thou dost well; the devils also believe and tremble." Would you say the devils were pleasing to Christ? Yet it plainly declares they believed. James continues in verse 20, "Would you not know that faith (belief) without works is dead." This corresponds to Jesus' teaching in Lk. 6:46, "Why do you call Me Lord, Lord and do not the things which I say?"

No place in the New Testament is the alien sinner commanded to pray for salvation nor is he exhorted to accept Christ as his personal savior and be saved in so doing. In every case of conversion, belief is only the first step toward salvation. Those who stop at this point are in danger of losing their soul and those who teach are in danger of God's curse. Gal. 1:8. Radio or prayer altar salvation is unknown in the scriptures and not in accord with the teaching of the Gospel.

Address all questions and criticism to us and we shall be glad to consider them. Gospel meeting continues each evening at 7:30 where the Church meets in Winston.

CHURCH OF CHRIST
211 MILITARY — ROSEBURG, OREGON
WEST FIRST ST. ROBINSON & COMSTOCK SUKSDORF ST.
CANTONVILLE SUTHERLIN WINSTON

BIRTHS

Mercury Hospital
SCRAPE — To Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Scrape, 1878 SE Eddy, Roseburg, June 30, a son, Kevin Bruce; weight 6 pounds 13 ounces.

MENKE — To Mr. and Mrs. James Menke, 1151 NE Newton Creek Rd., Roseburg, June 30, a son, James Randall; weight 7 pounds 13 ounces.

MAIN — To Mr. and Mrs. Francis Main, Rt. 2 Box 1203, Roseburg, July 1, a daughter, Denise Marie; weight 7 pounds 8 ounces.

DeVASIER — To Mr. and Mrs. Harry DeVASIER, Box 405, Winston, July 1, a son, Kevin Lynn; weight 7 pounds 13 ounces.

MOORE — To Mr. and Mrs. Tobias Moore, Box 534, Yoncalla, July 1, a daughter, Lauri Jean; weight 5 pounds 12 ounces.

61 Planes Vying In Powder Puff Flying Derby

SAN DIEGO (AP) — Lady Birds in the 12th all-woman transcontinental air race hop off Saturday afternoon, overnight stops all the way from Tucson, Ariz., to Tyler, Tex.

Entrants in the Powder Puff Derby, took off here Friday morning on a 2,177-mile race to Charleston, S.C.

Race headquarters said all 61 planes, carrying 117 women, were accounted for Friday night. Flying is limited to daylight hours.

Two planes had made the longest first-day hop—to Tyler, they carried Miss Ara Shonk of Charleston Heights, S.C., and her copilot, Miss Frances Miller of Columbia, S.C., and Mrs. Margaret Ringberg and her copilot, Mrs. Lois Laymon, both of Grabbill, Ind.

Four planes stopped overnight at Abilene, Tex., six at Midland, Tex., 30 at El Paso, Tex., and 19 at Tucson, Ariz.

At least two flew to Abilene without stopping. One was piloted by Mrs. Faye Douthitt, El Centro, Calif., with Mrs. Betty Loomis, Eugene, Ore., as copilot. Flying alone in the other was Miss Jerr Cobb, Ponca City, Okla.

First away Friday was Mrs. Randa Sutherland, Albuquerque, N.M., one of five flying solo. She stopped at Tucson.

Mrs. Alice Roberts, Phoenix, Arizona, last year's winner, stopped at Midland.

A contestant must reach Charleston by Tuesday noon to be eligible for prizes including $2,500 to be split among the first five. The order of finish will be determined on a plane-speed handicap basis.

Flaming Objects Seen Over County

An unidentified flying object was seen over Douglas County Thursday.

Douglas County police agencies received a report of a possible plane crash in the Drain area Thursday night. Residents of the area reported to the sheriff's office about 9:20 p. m. that a flaming object had been seen west of Drain.

No air traffic was reported in the area by Roseburg Skyways, Roseburg office of West Coast Airlines Inc. and the Civil Aeronautics Administration office at Eugene.

A flying object was also reported over the Dillard area about 8 p. m. Mrs. Margaret McCord, who lives on a hill there, said the object went west and that it was high enough in the air that the sun still shone on it. When the object turned sideways it looked like a dirigible, she said.

Portland residents also saw a flying object Thursday evening. It was later identified by the Air Force as a weather balloon, but it was not determined where it was launched.

California Family Visits In Glide

By HAZEL MARSH

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Buckle and son, Eugene, of Paso Robles, Calif., visited several days this week at the home of the former's mother, Mrs. Leona Buckle in Lookingglass, Mrs. Leona is reported to be much improved in health at this time following a recent severe illness.

Portland residents also saw a flying object Thursday evening. It was later identified by the Air Force as a weather balloon, but it was not determined where it was launched.

Visitors Leave
Mr. and Mrs. Warren Page and children left recently after a week's visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Trimble. The travelers will return to their home in Habbitt, Nev., via Klamath Falls and Reno.

Mrs. Marion Plum, Riekey and Gary left Monday for their home in Toledo, Iowa, after visiting the past ten days at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Green. The Greens took their guests to Crater Lake over the weekend.

Charles and Blanche A. Kyes have decided to Harbort W. and Virginia Opal Collier lot six in block seven of the Dillard Bottom Sub-division for an undisclosed consideration. The deed was dated Aug. 30, 1957.

Another property transfer, dated May 16, 1958, concerned sale of a tract of land in Sec. 29, Twp. 25 S., Range 2 W. by Allan B. and Nina B. Taylor to Kenneth Taylor for approximately $3,000, as indicated by revenue stamps attached.

Property Transfers

Approximately $13,500 has been paid for portions of lots 13, 14 and 15 in block 55 of Kenney's Improved Plat, according to a warranty deed filed Thursday with Charles G. Doerner, county clerk.

The property was purchased by W. H. and Lucille B. Niebaum from Ray A. and Arnell Wittrock, records show.

NOTED MISSIONER DIES
NEW YORK (AP) — The Rev. Dr. Edwin Carlyle Lobenstein, 66, former general secretary of the National Christian Council of China and a Presbyterian missionary, died Friday. He served 37 years in China under the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions.

McElroy Claims U. S. Produces Too Many Missiles

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense McElroy told senators this week that this country has produced too many missiles of some kinds and "duplicated in a way that was wasteful of the taxpayers' money."

The Pentagon civilian boss offered this testimony to the Senate Armed Services Committee as he appeared to ask greater authority to reorganize and streamline the multibillion dollar defense programs.

McElroy made his second public appearance before the Senate group. Chairman Richard B. Russell (D-Ga.) denied that they had been engaged in a feud about testimony by top Pentagon military leaders.

After the secretary publicly criticized Senate testimony on the reorganization plan by Adm. Arleigh A. Burke, chief of naval operations, Russell said he announced that he would not call additional members of the Joint Chiefs of Staff until he had assurances from McElroy they could testify freely and frankly without reprisal.

After considerable negotiation, McElroy sent Russell a letter which apparently satisfied the Senate leader.

President Offers Plan To Exchange Atomic Secrets

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower submitted to Congress Thursday an agreement for an exchange of atomic weapons secrets between the United States and Britain to help meet the military challenge of Soviet communism.

The agreement was made under legislation the President signed Wednesday. The agreement must lie before Congress for 30 days before becoming effective. This gives the lawmakers an opportunity to examine it and possibly propose changes.

In his message to Congress Eisenhower said cooperation between U.S. and British scientists and engineers — which produced the world's first atomic bomb — had "proved most fruitful" in World War II.

He continued that the countries of the Free World must again pool their resources to a much greater degree "notably in the field of military applications of atomic energy."

DID AND DIDN'T
GLENS FALLS, N. Y. (AP) — Two boys thought the way to solve their problems was to catch the six baby skunks near their home. They did. It didn't.

McElroy Claims U. S. Produces Too Many Missiles

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense McElroy told senators this week that this country has produced too many missiles of some kinds and "duplicated in a way that was wasteful of the taxpayers' money."

The Pentagon civilian boss offered this testimony to the Senate Armed Services Committee as he appeared to ask greater authority to reorganize and streamline the multibillion dollar defense programs.

McElroy made his second public appearance before the Senate group. Chairman Richard B. Russell (D-Ga.) denied that they had been engaged in a feud about testimony by top Pentagon military leaders.

After the secretary publicly criticized Senate testimony on the reorganization plan by Adm. Arleigh A. Burke, chief of naval operations, Russell said he announced that he would not call additional members of the Joint Chiefs of Staff until he had assurances from McElroy they could testify freely and frankly without reprisal.

After considerable negotiation, McElroy sent Russell a letter which apparently satisfied the Senate leader.

President Offers Plan To Exchange Atomic Secrets

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower submitted to Congress Thursday an agreement for an exchange of atomic weapons secrets between the United States and Britain to help meet the military challenge of Soviet communism.

McElroy Claims U. S. Produces Too Many Missiles

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense McElroy told senators this week that this country has produced too many missiles of some kinds and "duplicated in a way that was wasteful of the taxpayers' money."

The Pentagon civilian boss offered this testimony to the Senate Armed Services Committee as he appeared to ask greater authority to reorganize and streamline the multibillion dollar defense programs.

McElroy made his second public appearance before the Senate group. Chairman Richard B. Russell (D-Ga.) denied that they had been engaged in a feud about testimony by top Pentagon military leaders.

After the secretary publicly criticized Senate testimony on the reorganization plan by Adm. Arleigh A. Burke, chief of naval operations, Russell said he announced that he would not call additional members of the Joint Chiefs of Staff until he had assurances from McElroy they could testify freely and frankly without reprisal.

After considerable negotiation, McElroy sent Russell a letter which apparently satisfied the Senate leader.

President Offers Plan To Exchange Atomic Secrets

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower submitted to Congress Thursday an agreement for an exchange of atomic weapons secrets between the United States and Britain to help meet the military challenge of Soviet communism.

The agreement was made under legislation the President signed Wednesday. The agreement must lie before Congress for 30 days before becoming effective. This gives the lawmakers an opportunity to examine it and possibly propose changes.

In his message to Congress Eisenhower said cooperation between U.S. and British scientists and engineers — which produced the world's first atomic bomb — had "proved most fruitful" in World War II.

He continued that the countries of the Free World must again pool their resources to a much greater degree "notably in the field of military applications of atomic energy."

DID AND DIDN'T
GLENS FALLS, N. Y. (AP) — Two boys thought the way to solve their problems was to catch the six baby skunks near their home. They did. It didn't.

McElroy Claims U. S. Produces Too Many Missiles

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense McElroy told senators this week that this country has produced too many missiles of some kinds and "duplicated in a way that was wasteful of the taxpayers' money."

The Pentagon civilian boss offered this testimony to the Senate Armed Services Committee as he appeared to ask greater authority to reorganize and streamline the multibillion dollar defense programs.

McElroy made his second public appearance before the Senate group. Chairman Richard B. Russell (D-Ga.) denied that they had been engaged in a feud about testimony by top Pentagon military leaders.

After the secretary publicly criticized Senate testimony on the reorganization plan by Adm. Arleigh A. Burke, chief of naval operations, Russell said he announced that he would not call additional members of the Joint Chiefs of Staff until he had assurances from McElroy they could testify freely and frankly without reprisal.

After considerable negotiation, McElroy sent Russell a letter which apparently satisfied the Senate leader.

President Offers Plan To Exchange Atomic Secrets

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower submitted to Congress Thursday an agreement for an exchange of atomic weapons secrets between the United States and Britain to help meet the military challenge of Soviet communism.

The agreement was made under legislation the President signed Wednesday. The agreement must lie before Congress for 30 days before becoming effective. This gives the lawmakers an opportunity to examine it and possibly propose changes.

In his message to Congress Eisenhower said cooperation between U.S. and British scientists and engineers — which produced the world's first atomic bomb — had "proved most fruitful" in World War II.

He continued that the countries of the Free World must again pool their resources to a much greater degree "notably in the field of military applications of atomic energy."

DID AND DIDN'T
GLENS FALLS, N. Y. (AP) — Two boys thought the way to solve their problems was to catch the six baby skunks near their home. They did. It didn't.

McElroy Claims U. S. Produces Too Many Missiles

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense McElroy told senators this week that this country has produced too many missiles of some kinds and "duplicated in a way that was wasteful of the taxpayers' money."

The Pentagon civilian boss offered this testimony to the Senate Armed Services Committee as he appeared to ask greater authority to reorganize and streamline the multibillion dollar defense programs.

McElroy made his second public appearance before the Senate group. Chairman Richard B. Russell (D-Ga.) denied that they had been engaged in a feud about testimony by top Pentagon military leaders.

After the secretary publicly criticized Senate testimony on the reorganization plan by Adm. Arleigh A. Burke, chief of naval operations, Russell said he announced that he would not call additional members of the Joint Chiefs of Staff until he had assurances from McElroy they could testify freely and frankly without reprisal.

President Offers Plan To Exchange Atomic Secrets

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower submitted to Congress Thursday an agreement for an exchange of atomic weapons secrets between the United States and Britain to help meet the military challenge of Soviet communism.

The agreement was made under legislation the President signed Wednesday. The agreement must lie before Congress for 30 days before becoming effective. This gives the lawmakers an opportunity to examine it and possibly propose changes.

In his message to Congress Eisenhower said cooperation between U.S. and British scientists and engineers — which produced the world's first atomic bomb — had "proved most fruitful" in World War II.

He continued that the countries of the Free World must again pool their resources to a much greater degree "notably in the field of military applications of atomic energy."

DID AND DIDN'T
GLENS FALLS, N. Y. (AP) — Two boys thought the way to solve their problems was to catch the six baby skunks near their home. They did. It didn't.

McElroy Claims U. S. Produces Too Many Missiles

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense McElroy told senators this week that this country has produced too many missiles of some kinds and "duplicated in a way that was wasteful of the taxpayers' money."

The Pentagon civilian boss offered this testimony to the Senate Armed Services Committee as he appeared to ask greater authority to reorganize and streamline the multibillion dollar defense programs.

McElroy made his second public appearance before the Senate group. Chairman Richard B. Russell (D-Ga.) denied that they had been engaged in a feud about testimony by top Pentagon military leaders.

After the secretary publicly criticized Senate testimony on the reorganization plan by Adm. Arleigh A. Burke, chief of naval operations, Russell said he announced that he would not call additional members of the Joint Chiefs of Staff until he had assurances from McElroy they could testify freely and frankly without reprisal.

After considerable negotiation, McElroy sent Russell a letter which apparently satisfied the Senate leader.

President Offers Plan To Exchange Atomic Secrets

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower submitted to Congress Thursday an agreement for an exchange of atomic weapons secrets between the United States and Britain to help meet the military challenge of Soviet communism.

The agreement was made under legislation the President signed Wednesday. The agreement must lie before Congress for 30 days before becoming effective. This gives the lawmakers an opportunity to examine it and possibly propose changes.

In his message to Congress Eisenhower said cooperation between U.S. and British scientists and engineers — which produced the world's first atomic bomb — had "proved most fruitful" in World War II.

He continued that the countries of the Free World must again pool their resources to a much greater degree "notably in the field of military applications of atomic energy."

DID AND DIDN'T
GLENS FALLS, N. Y. (AP) — Two boys thought the way to solve their problems was to catch the six baby skunks near their home. They did. It didn't.

McElroy Claims U. S. Produces Too Many Missiles

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense McElroy told senators this week that this country has produced too many missiles of some kinds and "duplicated in a way that was wasteful of the taxpayers' money."

The Pentagon civilian boss offered this testimony to the Senate Armed Services Committee as he appeared to ask greater authority to reorganize and streamline the multibillion dollar defense programs.

McElroy made his second public appearance before the Senate group. Chairman Richard B. Russell (D-Ga.) denied that they had been engaged in a feud about testimony by top Pentagon military leaders.

After the secretary publicly criticized Senate testimony on the reorganization plan by Adm. Arleigh A. Burke, chief of naval operations, Russell said he announced that he would not call additional members of the Joint Chiefs of Staff until he had assurances from McElroy they could testify freely and frankly without reprisal.

After considerable negotiation, McElroy sent Russell a letter which apparently satisfied the Senate leader.

President Offers Plan To Exchange Atomic Secrets

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower submitted to Congress Thursday an agreement for an exchange of atomic weapons secrets between the United States and Britain to help meet the military challenge of Soviet communism.

The agreement was made under legislation the President signed Wednesday. The agreement must lie before Congress for 30 days before becoming effective. This gives the lawmakers an opportunity to examine it and possibly propose changes.

In his message to Congress Eisenhower said cooperation between U.S. and British scientists and engineers — which produced the world's first atomic bomb — had "proved most fruitful" in World War II.

He continued that the countries of the Free World must again pool their resources to a much greater degree "notably in the field of military applications of atomic energy."

THE YOUNGER SET, as well as more experienced hands, got into action Friday at the Yoncalla Rodeo. Here, young Johnny Doe takes a spill in the calf riding event. Competition for the youngsters was a feature of the two-day affair. (Paul Jenkins)

CALF ROPING action at the Yoncalla Rodeo is pictured here as Stan Schricker prepares to dismount after looping his lasso over the head of a scampering dog. Schricker's time in the Friday go-around was 31 seconds. Competition at the amateur rodeo ended this afternoon. (Paul Jenkins)

Wheat Commission Head Says Foreign Markets Sought

SPOKANE (AP) — The chairman of the new Washington Wheat commission will devote the major share of its budget to expansion of foreign markets.

Verne Barbre of Ephrata said the objective will be to promote sale of flour and other wheat products as well as raw wheat.

Joseph J. Spiruta, who has spent more than two years in the Far East in promotional efforts for the Washington Wheat Growers Assn. and the Oregon Wheat League, arrived here Monday night to assume his duties as the state commission's new manager.

He said Japan, which harvests a 40 million bushel wheat crop itself each year, is the Northwest's best customer in the Far East. Japan imports 2,225,000 metric tons of wheat annually and the Pacific Northwest supplies half of it, he said. He listed India, the Philippines, Pakistan and South Korea as next in importance.

The state commission, with headquarters here, was established recently after a referendum among wheat growers. It will be financed by an assessment on commercial wheat and is designed to promote research and more markets for wheat.

Boat Owners, Canneries Agree On Albacore Price

SAN PEDRO, Calif. (AP) — Boat owners and canneries have agreed on an albacore price more than $100 higher than last year's.

Heavy competition from Japanese tuna forced the price down as low as $280 a ton last year. With Japanese imports light, the price agreed upon by the Federated Boat Owners of the Pacific Coast and two big San Pedro canneries Wednesday was $400 a ton.

Anthony Sokolich of the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service said the unpredictable albacore apparently have deserted the western Pacific and the Japanese tuna season has been almost a total failure this year.

A spokesman for the boat owners said the new price is expected to go into effect at canneries from San Diego to Seattle.

Former Garden Valley Woman Attends Reunion

By ADDIE SCHNEIDER
Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Bostwick and daughter, Margaret, of Seattle, Wash., have been renewing friendships in Garden Valley. Mrs. Bostwick, the former Ellen Fogel of Garden Valley, is here to attend the Roseburg High School 1923 class reunion. They are staying with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Fogel in Roseburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schmidt drove to the coast Tuesday going as far north as Newport. Recently Mrs. Schmidt took her grandsons, Bobbie, Roger and Ronnie Fielding through the Oregon Caves. They stayed overnight at Greyback Park.

Bob Clayspool is home from central Oregon where he has been working on road construction.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bashford and children of Portland are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Bashford and other relatives in the Roseburg area over the holidays.

Mrs. Leo Teague and children of Compton, Calif., are here visiting her parents, Rev. and Mrs. John B. Ellington of the Garden Valley Community Church.

Last Rites Set For John C. Dew

Funeral services for John Charles Dew, 66, killed Wednesday in a train-auto crash near Curtin, are scheduled for Monday at 2 p. m. at Mills Chapel, Yoncalla. Interment will be in the Drain Cemetery.