

Bucking Horse Defies All Riding Attempts

MOLALLA (AP) — War Paint, a rough and tough bucking horse who has defied all attempts to be ridden this year, tossed George Menkenmaier, Burns, Ore., cowboy, in three seconds Sunday in a feature of the annual Molalla Buckaroo.

War Paint was chosen by rodeo circuit riders as the hardest bucking horse to stay aboard.

Leonard Block of Denair, Calif., was named the all-around champion cowboy as the Buckaroo closed a three-day stand.

Old Timers Hold Their Reunion In Cemetery

WHAT WAS ONCE GARNETTSTOWN, Ky. (AP) — "I guess it is a little unique to have a reunion in a cemetery," H.D. Higbee said. "But it's about the only time we ever get to see each other."

Higbee, a 51-year-old iron shop worker at Louisville, and about 150 other folks who once lived in the small village of Garnettstown got together Sunday at the burial grounds for their annual reunion.

The government bought their land in 1940 and made it part of the Ft. Knox military reservation. The 10-acre cemetery is the only land they retained.

Officers Elected At CE Meeting

Young people of Myrtle Creek, Winston, Sutherlin and Roseburg Westside Christian and First Christian churches attended the June evangelistic Christian Endeavor rally at Winston.

John Myers, minister of Myrtle Creek First Christian Church, was speaker of the evening. Beverly Brady, winner of the state and regional letter-to-the-editor about Christian citizenship in a nationwide citizenship contest, read her winning letter and that of the national winner. She is from Sherwood.

The following were elected as Douglas County CE officers. George Knox, associate advisor; Dwayne Howell, pastoral advisor; Bob Caudill, president; Jean Lesher, vice president; Darlene Carew, corresponding secretary; Joanne Roadman, recording secretary; Mel Saunders, treasurer.

Neva Pfaff, citizenship chairman; Neal Golgert, church activities; Sharon Bridgess, devotional chairman; Jim Keefe, educational chairman; Linda Strickling, evangelism chairman; Judy Christensen, junior endeavor; Doug Sanders, lookout; Jan Reed, missionary; Joanie Person, publicity; Sue Jones, social, and Colene Newton, stewardship.

June 18-19 was the date set for the new Douglas County CE officers' educational retreat. At that time officers will be installed.

Inheritance Tax Cuts Huge Cash In Estate

LONDON (AP) — One of Britain's wealthiest women, Miss Gladys Yule, left 3,974,634 pounds ($11,128,975) when she died last August — but the inheritance taxes took all except 741,180 pounds ($2,075,304). The daughter of Sir David Yule, who built up a multi-million dollar jute business in India, cut relatives out of her will, probated Monday. She left most of her money to friends and employees.
