Californians Here Visiting Relatives At Lookingglass

By HAZEL MARSH

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Southwick and daughter, Irene, of San Diego, Calif., have arrived in Lookingglass for a week's visit with the former's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Southwick.

They will also visit their daughter, Ruth, who is stationed at the Douglas Forest Protective Assn. lookout, "Old Blue," and with Southwick's brother Frank and family at Elkhead.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Buell and daughters visited over the weekend at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Buell. Leslie is principal of one of the Portland schools.

Mr. and Mrs. David Jacoby and two daughters of the San Francisco area are spending a two week's vacation visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Jacoby in Lookingglass and with Mrs. Jacoby's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Currier in Roseburg.

James Jacoby was home over the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Jacoby and family. His is stationed with the U.S. Air Force at the International Air Base in Portland.

Ned Nay returned to his work in Seattle Sunday evening after spending the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Nay, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kinzer of Winchester Bay were callers Sunday at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Charles Ramsey. They were en route to their home following a vacation trip to eastern Oregon and visiting their daughter and family at Redmond.

Cecil Bates left Monday for San Francisco to board the ship USS Walke and resume his service. He has one more month of service to complete his term with the Navy. The current week's leave of absence was spent with his wife and small son, who have been making their home with Mrs. Bates' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Powell. The young couple plan to establish their home in this area when Bates is released from service.

Robert Halvorsen and Betty Rudzik of Seattle, Wash., arrived this week to spend some time at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Rudzik in Lookingglass.

Other guests in the Rudzik home over the holiday weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Bonnie Shepherd of Winston; Rusty, Timmie and Mark Rudzik, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Rudzik of Corvallis, and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Rudzik of Corvallis.

Property Transfers

Lots seven, eight and nine in block four of Skelly's Addition, Drain, have been deeded to Albert F. and Irmgard C. Hunter by Vernon C. and Ruth Haley for approximately $2,500, according to records entered Tuesday with Charles G. Doerner, county clerk.

In another land transaction, John E. Runyan recorded the transfer of one-half of lot three in block 21, Roseburg, to Elizabeth Runyan for an undisclosed consideration.

Ernest T. and Eva L. Tucker have deeded to Everett L. and Ann E. Baker a tract in Sec. 18, Twp. 22 S., Range 9 W. for approximately $5,000, as indicated by revenue stamps attached. The land transfer was dated Nov. 5, 1950.

41st To Return Captured Japanese Battle Flags

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — "MacArthur's Butchers" are planning to return the Japanese battle flags they fought so bitterly to gain in the South Pacific jungles of World War II.

Veterans of the 41st Infantry Division, the outfit Tokyo Rose called "MacArthur's Butchers," plan to turn in their captured battle flags at a reunion July 18-20 for return to the families of Japanese soldiers from whom they were taken. Lettering on the flags will be translated to determine to whom they should be sent.

FREE PARKING TIMED

PORTLAND (AP)—Portlanders soon will be able to park free after 6 p.m. in the downtown area.

The City Council Tuesday approved a measure to make the parking deadline 6 p.m. instead of 7 p.m. or later. Only a few downtown meters are free after 6 p.m. at the present.

Picture yourself in petroleum

Can you be dressed in oil? Certainly... from head to foot you can wear products that start with petroleum — even to perfume.

Petrochemicals are being put to almost endless uses — from lipstick to nylons, from detergents to vitamins. They dress you, help with the housework, keep you warm, protect your food, contribute to your recreation.

Standard pioneered in petrochemicals. From our millions of dollars invested in research came the basic chemicals for the first household and industrial detergents and the raw material for a new, miracle wrinkle-resistant fabric, creating whole new industries. As a major producer of the world's petrochemicals, our investment is continuing to provide new and better products for the benefit of everyone.

Petrochemicals are part of your life...clothing, blankets, rugs, upholstery fabrics...shoes, hats...cleansers, polishes...cosmetics, drugs, germicides... paint, printing ink, floor coverings... plastics, adhesives, packaging and photo film... racquet strings, phonograph records, fishing lines... and many other useful products.
