all of this city, at St. Joseph's Catholic Church. Father Richard Gleason officiated at the impressive double ring ceremony at 2:30 p.m. in the presence of 125 guests. Following a honeymoon to Glacier National Park in Montana, Mr. and Mrs. Hallett are now at home to their friends at 643 NE Casper, Roseburg. (Picture by Chris of Photo Lab.)

One of the loveliest of the June weddings took place at St. Joseph's Catholic Church on the 28th, when Miss Barbara Helen Foye, only daughter of Mrs. Howard Pattison of Winchester and the late Robert W. Foye, became the bride of Gilbert Lewis Hallett, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Hallett of Roseburg. Father Richard Gleason performed the impressive double ring ceremony at 2:30 p.m. in the presence of 125 guests.

The altar gold urns held arrangements of white gladioli and fern. Two large floor baskets were arranged with white gladioli, pink larkspur and blue hydrangea and greenery, while a pink and white mixer bouquet was placed before the Blessed Virgin statue.

Mrs. Hedwig Watzig, organist, played the nuptial music and "O God Of Loveliness" by Montani and "Ave Maria" by Condon.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Lt. Frederick R. Foye of Tacoma, was beautiful in a floor-length gown of white Chantilly lace and net over white satin. The gown was fashioned with a basque bodice and a very bouffant four-tier skirt of cascading lace and the hemline tier of pleated white net over a Southern Belle foundation. The shoulder neckline was centered with a Chantilly lace rose and the sleeves were wrist-length. Her veil of illusion fell from a tiara of seed-pearls. She wore a strand of pearls, the gift of the bridegroom. For the something borrowed, she wore her mother's pearl earrings. She carried a white prayer book covered with a piece of her first communion veil topped by a large white orchid arranged with sprays of ivy and white satin ribbons.

Miss Yvonne Muller, Roseburg, was maid of honor and Mrs. Gary Crenshaw and Miss Donna Reager, Portland, and Mrs. Chris Radford, Roseburg, were bridesmaids. They wore pale green taffeta brocade gowns with full circular skirts with necklines designed to match the bride's wedding dress. Their cummerbunds were of sea green chiffon and their headpieces were of matching sea-green veiling attached to broadheadbands. They carried cascade bouquets of pale pink carnations, pink ribbons and bows and sprays of ivy. Patty Radford of Roseburg was flower girl and wore a white organdy full-skirted frock with white straw hat and white slippers. She carried a white basket filled with Brunner Stone of Roseburg was best man and Don Venz, Sutherlin and Chris Radford and Joseph Pinard, both of Roseburg, were ushers.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Pattison chose a navy orlon two-piece semi-chemise dress with white hat and white accessories. Her corsage was of pink rosebuds. Mrs. Hallett, mother of the bridegroom, chose a beige silk afternoon sheath dress with matching beige hat and beige accessories. Her corsage was a green orchid.

A reception followed at the beautiful Pattison home at Winchester. The lace-covered table was centered with a clover-leaf three-tiered pink and white wedding cake topped by a miniature bride and bridegroom. The cake was baked and decorated by Mrs. Raymond Miller. Sprays of ivy encircled the cake. The terrace and gardens were arranged with outdoor furniture for the enjoyment of the guests.

Mrs. Kenneth O'Loughlin served the wedding cake assisted by Mrs. Pat Sullivan. Miss Carol Keller, Portland, served the punch and Miss Marie Keller, Portland, poured the coffee. Mrs. Frederick Foye of Tacoma, and Miss Janet Clark had charge of the guest book and Miss Irene Mundt and Miss Suzanne Fisher had charge of the gifts.

Coming from out-of-town for the wedding were the bridegroom's uncle and aunt and cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Hallett and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hallett, of New Westminster, B. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Campbell, Aberdeen, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Wayland Herzog, Eureka, Calif.; Miss Jeanne Vik, Seattle; Miss Ardene Brodsky, Don Hatfield and Mr. and Mrs. Owen Miller, Eugene, and the bride's brother and sister-in-law, Lt. and Mrs. Frederick Foye, Tacoma.

For traveling the bride wore a white and green embroidered linen sheath dress with a white sheath linen coat and white accessories. Her corsage was a white orchid. Following a honeymoon to Glacier National Park in Montana, Mr. and Mrs. Hallett are now at home to their friends at 643 NE Casper St., in Roseburg.

The bride was graduated from Roseburg High School and attended both Seattle University and University of Oregon. Mr. Hallett was graduated from Roseburg High School and attended College of Puget Sound and University of Oregon. He is employed by Industrial Electric Service Co.

VISITING AT THE W. E. WILSHIRE HOME are Mrs. Walter Halperin and her baby daughter, Debbie Ruth, pictured above, who came from New Haven, Conn., following a stopover in Santa Ana, Calif. to visit Mrs. Halperin's brother-in-law and sister, Lt. and Mrs. R. D. Carr. Mrs. Halperin, the former Willa Wilshire, and Mrs. Carr, the former Zona Wilshire, are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Wilshire. Following a few weeks here, Mrs. Halperin and Debbie will go to Pensacola, Fla., where Lt. Halperin is stationed with the helicopter division at Ellison Field. (Picture by Chris of Photo Lab.)

IN THE PRESENCE of 130 guests, Patricia Faye Graves, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Graves, became the bride of Eldon H. Naas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harley Naas, all of Myrtle Creek, at

ner, Beverly Wegner, the bride and bridegroom; Dick Naas, Dave Painter and Joe Petrovich. (Picture by Warren Studio, Myrtle Creek.)

The beautiful double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. Elbert Nash at the Tri-City Presbyterian Church.

The church was beautifully decorated with baskets of white and yellow daisies and floor candelabra. Linda and Susan Graves, sisters of the bride, wearing white dresses with yellow bows at the neck and yellow sashes, lighted the candles while appropriate wedding music was being played before the ceremony. The Rev. Walter Watson sang "The Sweetest Story Ever Told" and "The Wedding Prayer," accompanied by Mrs. William Woolsey of Riddle.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was resplendent in a floor-length gown of pure silk organza over taffeta and net. The gown made by her mother, was attractively decorated with sequin and pearl covered lace medallions at the waist and neck. She wore a chapel-length train and carried a bouquet of white daisies.

Beverly Wegner, close friend of the bride, acted as her maid of honor. She wore a pink lace sheath dress adorned with a matching scarf of chiffon that draped gracefully around the shoulders and was caught in a bow at the back. She wore a charming little hat of white net trimmed with pink flowers, made by the bride, and carried a bouquet of white and yellow daisies. Sharon Stanfield, Brenda Buckner, Drain, were bridesmaids and wore gowns fashioned like the maid of honor's only in lovely colors of yellow and white. Paula Brown, acted as flower girl and Roger Lee was the ring bearer.

Dick Naas, brother of the bridegroom, was best man and Dave Painter of Winston and Joe Petrovich of Portland acted as ushers.

A lovely reception followed the ceremony and was held in the social room of the church. The room was decorated with a huge bouquet of white gladioli on the fireplace mantel. The reception line formed in front of the fireplace with the lace-covered table opposite for gifts. Mrs. C. S. Wegner was in charge of the table arrangements. The table was beautifully decorated with pink roses and white and yellow daisies and was centered with the traditional three-tiered wedding cake. The cake was decorated with yellow flowers and white wedding bells and swans and was topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom against yellow net and white flowers and leaves. Mrs. Cecil Naas decorated the reception room. Beverly Doggett and Carol Naas served punch and Jeanne Murray poured coffee. Cake was cut and served by Linda Kinamon. Mrs. Cecil Naas and Cathy Naas attended the gift table and Janet Naas, sister of the bridegroom, attended the guest book. The mother of the bride wore a blue lace street-length dress with white accessories and a pink carnation corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a blue linen dress with pink accessories and a white carnation corsage.

After the reception the couple left for a honeymoon trip to the coast and Ocean Lake. They are now at home on Forest Road. The bride chose a medium blue summer suit with white accessories as her going-away outfit.

The bride and her family have resided in Myrtle Creek since 1954. She graduated from Myrtle Creek High School in 1957. The bridegroom was born in Myrtle Creek and was graduated in 1956. He attended one year of college at OCE at Monmouth. He is now employed by the Roseburg Lumber Co. The bride is employed at the Myrtle Creek Dairy Queen.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Greenwald, Joe Petrovich and Pat Ballard, all of Portland; Mr. and
