93% of Oregon's heavy-duty highways are Asphalt-surfaced

Good news because: Each four-lane mile of modern heavy-duty Asphalt pavement saves you, the taxpayer, up to $74,000.

Good news because: The economy of Asphalt construction stretches your state's highway funds. Makes more money available for more and better local roads.

Good news because: Asphalt pavement is rugged, durable and safe. It can be built to take the heaviest loads in all kinds of weather.

To keep the good news coming, speak out now for Asphalt pavement for our new Interstate Highways.
