Farmer's Market Considered For Canyonville Centennial

By VIRGINIA PROCTOR
The social club of Oregon chapter No. 57, O.E.S., is making plans this week to install an old-time Farmer's Market in the front yard of the old McClain house which the chapter is furnishing with antiques, all to be a part of Canyonville's centennial celebration Aug. 9 and 10.

Canyonville Bible School Schedules Program Friday

First Baptist Church of Canyonville ended its first week of daily vacation Bible school with a picnic Friday with 43 children and instructors attending. The school will conclude this week with a commencement Friday at 7:30 p.m., according to the Rev. Carl A. Walker, principal.

A total enrollment of 49 young people with a daily attendance of 42 has followed the VBS program of handwork, games and Bible study. Sandra Brown of the Oklahoma Baptist University assisted during the first week of the school. She was sponsored by the Baptist general convention of Oregon and Washington hired to tour the area in this capacity. This week Miss Leota Moss of Pasco Wash., is assisting and is filling the post of pianist held last week by Ruth Harmonson of Glendale.

Sunday, July 27, an all-church picnic at the Cedar Grove Park on North Myrtle road has been scheduled to follow the morning worship service. Late in the afternoon a hospital service will be held at the water, according to Virginia Proctor, correspondent.

Galilee, where Jesus spent his boyhood, is one of the most productive areas in Israel. It has plentiful rainfall and fertile volcanic soil.

ated under the nearly 90-year-old grape vine which shades the entire front yard of the historic old place. Home made country butter, home baked bread, cakes and other goodies, home canned goods, garden truck and plants will be featured.

Mrs. Ray Wright is chairman in charge of the market, assisted by Mrs. Guy McGee, Mrs. Ira Poole and Mrs. Leo Davidson.

Contests Planned

The Canyonville Centennial committee has scheduled the old-time fiddler's contest for Saturday afternoon and a horseshoe pitching contest for both Saturday and Sunday, Aug. 9 and 10.

To enter either these events interested persons should see general chairman, Carl Hill. The committee solicits many entries so competition will be keen.

Girls from the two older groups of Camp Fire Girls in Canyonville drove to Camp Tye Sunday to spend a week.

Roxanne Dixon, Mary Connor, Billie Herbert and Gloria Clark from the WaSakaTa group and Sue Hoverson and Andrea Gill from the eighth grade group were included.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Tawney of Los Angeles arrived Saturday to spend a few days with Mrs. Tawney's brother, Bert Arena and family, and join their son, Gary and Mrs. J. Arena who have been visiting here all week. Mrs. Tawney is the former Rose Arena.

Enrolls in School

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Buell of Portland enrolled their daughter, Rose Marie, in Canyonville Bible Academy this week. Ray Buell is one of the first CBA graduates.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Weaver and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brown and houseguests, Mrs. Naomi Nickler and Mrs. Ella Van of Atwater, Calif., spent Thursday fishing at Charleston. Mrs. Weaver was the only lucky one in the party.

Canyonville's volunteer fire department began its summer clean-up campaign by burning two city lots Thursday evening, according to H. A. Johnson, assistant chief.

During the business meeting which preceded the activity, the group voted to accept Robert Hinkle as a new member of the department replacing Lonon Winn who recently resigned.
