

DIDN'T EVEN DUCK—Heavy rain which fell during practice for the PGA Championship at Havertown, Pa., were good for the Llanerch Country Club's pet ducks, but rough on competitors. Jim McDonald, under the umbrella, and Joe Diego were among the many who braved the elements.

ON TARGET—Contestants in the Midwest Archery Championship in St. Louis made a pretty picture. Among them were Mrs. Ann Clark, left, defending and former national champion, and Mrs. Senda Roff.

Portland Manager Up, Wearing Brace

PORTLAND (AP) — Rotund Tommy Heath, the Portland baseball manager who was injured in a fall two weeks ago, is up and around again—with a brace supporting his back.

Doctors said Heath would have to wear the brace at least two months while the fractured vertebrae heal properly. Released from the hospital Sunday, Heath may go home to Sacramento to rest.

The trip depends on results of further medical checks later this week.

Heath, general and field manager of the Portland Beavers, was injured in a fall down a flight of stairs at a motel cabin at Cannon Beach, Ore. Unfamiliar with the cabin, he opened the wrong door in the dark.

CHAMP — Lightweight champion Joe Brown smiles in his dressing room after winning a unanimous decision over Kenny Lane in their 15-round title bout in Houston, Texas.
