

General Clark Backs Landings

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Gen. Mark Clark has endorsed here the sending of U.S. Marines to Lebanon and declared their presence "ought to be enough to prevent World War III from happening."

Clark, former commanding general of the 5th Army, told the 1958 reunion of Nisei veterans: "There was no other thing to do to stop the enemy from nibbling away at the world."

Clark, president of The Citadel, was pessimistic about the proposed summit conference.

"Millions of people hope and pray for peace," he said, "but I am not optimistic about these meetings. A new way must be devised to force the enemy to keep his end of the bargain. We must keep up our total guard... with no appeasement while negotiating with a treacherous enemy."

Praising the service of Nisei in World War II, Clark commented: "Never did a commander have more to be proud of than I in having you with me in Italy."

Approximately 1,200 of the veterans group were present at the reunion, held in Hollywood's Moulin Rouge nightclub.

Harry Holt Brings 80 Orphans To U. S. Friday

PORTLAND (AP) — Harry Holt brought 80 more Korean orphans to the United States last weekend, and said he plans to rest a little before going back for more.

The waifs, ranging in age from a few months to 12 years, are being shuttled to new homes throughout the country.

After Holt arrived, he said: "I love kids. I'll probably keep on doing this until I die."

Holt looked worn and tired, and said he will rest at his Creswell farm home three weeks before going back to Korea. He now has brought nearly 1,000 orphans to new homes in this country.

Holt said that he has had to sell much of his property to finance his program and the new orphanage he is building in Korea.

AMBASSADOR NAMED

BAGHDAD, Iraq (AP) — The first ambassador appointed by Iraq's revolutionary government was named Monday. He is Faik El Samarie, who will replace pro-monarchist Ibrahim Alkhalidai in Cairo. Samarie, head of a lawyers' syndicate, was one of the toughest opponents of the former regime. He recently visited Syria and Egypt.

BEACH-HEAD SCENE—In a carnival-like atmosphere, scores of Lebanese gather on a beach near Beirut to watch as new reinforcements land to join the first contingent of Marines to land in Lebanon.

Church And Grange Moves In Making To Seek Probe Of Public Utility Dist.

EPHRATA, Wash. (AP) — Church and Grange moves were reported in the making this week for a grand jury probe or "other legal investigation" of the troubled Grant County Public Utility District's affairs.

The Rev. Desmond O'Connell, Episcopal rector here, said Saturday he is so certain such a request will be made that he has arranged with Superior Judge B. J. McLean to hear the matter at 1:30 p.m. today.

Rev. O'Connell said ministerial groups in Ephrata and Quincy have the backing of farm bureaus on both areas.

The Adrian Grange, which helped lead the fight in the county to create the PUD, approved a resolution unanimously Friday night asking for the dismissal of PUD manager Glenn Smothers.

The Grange also called for a "legal investigation" of the PUD's business affairs. It planned to forward the resolution to all other Granges in the county, the Grange Pomona and the state auditor.

Internal dissension in the PUD blunder of the 196 million dollar Priest Rapids Dam on the Columbia — boiled over Friday when commissioners of the district fired their lawyers and tabled Smothers' offer to resign.

The vote to discharge the law firm of State Sen. Nat Washington and James Wickwire was 2-1. So was the refusal to accept Smothers' resignation.

Washington has issued a 15-page letter accusing Smothers of irregularities and violating state law in letting contracts.

The attorney also called for State Auditor Cliffe Yelle to investigate the PUD, and Yelle said Friday he will send two state examiners to Ephrata Monday to go over the PUD records.

Neuberger Would End U. S., Canada Tariffs

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Richard L. Neuberger (D-Ore) proposed Monday the abolition of tariffs between the United States and Canada for five years.

He made his proposal as part of a continental plan looking toward development of a free trade area which ultimately could be tied to economic units now developing in western Europe.

GUARD PLEADS INNOCENT

SPOKANE (AP) — A former guard at Eastern State mental hospital, Jesse Templeman, 49, pleaded innocent to a charge of assaulting two patients of the institution.

Clarence Stillat, 29, also charged with assault in the case, has not yet entered a plea.

The men are accused of assaulting the patients by choking them with a sheet.
