

ROSEBURG REPRESENTED — Keith V. Kennedy, one of several delegates from Roseburg, meets with former classmates of the Winchester Bible School of Gilead and a new member of the graduating class. The meeting took place among 170,000 delegates from 120 countries at the international assembly of Jehovah's witnesses in New York, July 27 to Aug. 3 when the new class was graduated. Left to right: Mr. and Mrs. Keith V. Kennedy, missionaries from Korea; Leonard Healy, graduating student from Fiji; Geraldine S. Kennell, missionary from Uruguay; Alice Kowalenko, missionary from Brazil.

BURN VICTIM — In critical condition in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Flint, Mich., from burns over 85 per cent of his body is a man police have identified as Frank Kierdorf, 56, nephew of Herman Kierdorf, aide to Teamsters Union boss James Hoffa. Police believe he may have been a victim of torture. Kierdorf said someone apparently drove him to the hospital, then dumped him on the lawn to find his way to the entrance. Nurses said his partly burned shoes smelled of gasoline. (AP Wirephoto)

GOODNIGHT KISS — Mrs. Gladys Thompson forgot to kiss her son, Ricky, 3, goodbye as she left for her second shift job in Milwaukee. Ricky remembered this three hours later, and walked four miles to the plant where she worked to get his kiss. Mrs. Thompson says she won't forget again.

BLOCKS FREEWAY — Armed with a 30-30 rifle, Mrs. Lomie Puckett, 57, defies state highway builders (arrow) in Los Angeles, determined to hold up construction of the multi-million-dollar Golden State Freeway until the state pays what she thinks is a fair price for her two-bed room home. "They ain't a-gonna pass," Mrs. Puckett said. "I can shoot the head off a rattlesnake at 30 paces."
