 An uniquely healthy Mickey Mantle, finally busting into the American League lead, suddenly has a shot at joining Babe Ruth, Jimmy Fox and Ralph Kiner as the only sluggers ever to hit 50 or more home runs in one season twice.

"The Oklahoma strong boy needs 17 in 41 games for 50, but he's come a long way after a sour spring. He's hit 29 since June 1. He broke loose from a tie with Boston's Jackie Jensen and Washington's Roy Sievers yesterday by hitting his 33rd as the New York Yankees beat Baltimore 7-2.

Jensen and Sievers, the defending champs, remained tied at 32 when Boston's game at Washington was postponed because of rain.

Chicago Takes Second

The Chicago White Sox, 15 games behind New York, broke a second-place tie with Boston by defeating Cleveland 4-1 and Detroit outlasted Kansas City 7-6 in the other AL games.

Mantle, on a batting surge that has pushed his average to .308, had three hits. His homer, a solo shot deep into the left field stands at Yankee Stadium, gave the Yanks a 4-0 lead in the fifth. It came off lefty Ken Lehman and was his sixth off Oriole pitching. Gil McDougald also homered for the Yanks, while Bob Nieman hit his 12th for the Birds, a two-run blow that junked Tom Sturdivant's shutout bid in the seventh. Sturdivant (2-5) won his first since April 22, but needed Virgil Trucks' relief help in the eighth. Hee Brown (4-3) lost it.

Wynn Wins For Sox

Early Wynn (10-12) won his third in a row over his former Indian mates while Jim Landis drove in three runs for the White Sox. Minnie Miñoso gave the Tribe a 1-1 tie with his 17th home run in the second inning, but the Sox bagged it with a sixth-inning run on Ron Jackson's sacrifice fly for their eighth success in 10 games. Jim Grant (9-9) was the loser.

The Tigers twice came from behind against the A's and finally nailed it on Gih Harris' two-run 12th homer in the seventh off losing reliever Dick Tomaneck. Al Kaline ended an 0-for-16 slump with a double ahead of the winning blow. Tom Morgan won it in relief.

Oregonians Back Today From Europe Track Tour

PORTLAND (AP)—Three members of the American track and field team which made an impressive record in a tour of Europe will be greeted at the Portland airport Wednesday afternoon by Mayor Terry Schrum and various civic groups.

They are LL Bill Dellinger, former University of Oregon student now in the Air Force; Jim Grell, Portland, and Dave Edstrom, Sherwood, both currently students at the university.

A fourth Oregon member of the squad, Sharon Shepherd of Mapleton, is thought to be returning separately.

Eugene, Salem Win In Long Games In Northwest League

NORTHWEST LEAGUE

Team	W	L	Pct.	GB
Yakima	28	16	.636
Wenatchee	26	19	.578	2 1/2
Lewiston	24	21	.533	4 1/2
Tri-City	24	23	.511	5 1/2
Eugene	24	24	.500	6
Salem	12	35	.255	17 1/2

Tuesday's Results
 Eugene 2, Lewiston 1 (11 innings)
 Tri-City 4, Wenatchee 2
 Salem 5, Yakima 4 (11 innings)

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
 It was upset night in the Northwest League Tuesday night. The bottom three clubs upended the top three, but it took 11 innings to do it in two of the games.

Salem, deep in the cellar, won its third straight by edging front-runner Yakima, 5-4, in one of the extra inning contests. In the other 11-inning fracas, fifth place Eugene dumped Lewiston's third spot Braves, 2-1. Tri-City, resting in fourth position, downed second place Wenatchee, 4-2, in the other game.

Yakima pitcher Ted Kambour forced in Salem's winning run when he walked Tony Anthony with the bases loaded in the bottom of the 11th.

Yakima had taken a two-run lead in the second frame, but the Senators tied it in the third. The Bears went ahead again with a pair of tallies in the ninth on Herb Anderson's triple. That lead didn't last long, either. Salem came back with two runs in the bottom of the 11th.

Kambour pitched a two-run game, but he was out of luck in the eighth. He walked Anthony and then pitched to him in the ninth. Anderson's triple, which drove in the winning run, was the result.

Eugene opened the scoring with Dan Holden's solo homer in the fifth. Lewiston tied it in the eighth on Roger Herrscher's triple and John McNamara's single.

Norris' wild pitch brought in Bill Eastburn.

Pitcher Whiffs 17
 Eugene lefthander Jim Myers ran his season record to 3-2 as he scattered nine Lewiston hits, struck out 17 and walked none.

Jim Vogelgesang twirled a nifty three-hitter to lead the Tri-City Braves past the Wenatchee Chiefs. Again, it was a comeback rally which brought the Braves into the lead. Tri-City scored all its runs in the fifth inning, mainly on the strength of Bob Koski's three-run homer. Reggie Hamilton drove in the other tally with a single.

Wenatchee scored its two runs in the fourth when Hank Bivens homered with Chuck Tulner on.

Shrine All-Stars Boost Pace In Pre-Game Drills

PORTLAND (AP)—Rival coaches said they were pleased with results of Tuesday workouts as the State and Metro football all-stars stepped up the practice tempo for Saturday night's Shrine All-Star game at Multnomah Stadium.

Coach Lee Gustafson said the State scrimmage was satisfactory, and that the passing of quarterbacks Jim Smith of Grants Pass and John Wilson of Albany was impressive.

Coach Tom DeSylvia sent the Metro squad through a 30-minute scrimmage highlighted by long gainers by halfback Mick Sinnerud of Beaverton.

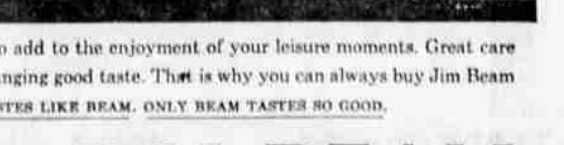

The teams hold their final scrimmage sessions Wednesday.

Champs' Margin Sliced To Five By Upstart Bucs

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
 Just when Milwaukee's world champs looked to have that National League pennant race under control, up pops Pittsburgh.

The Pirates, usually stone cold dead at this stage, ran their winning spurt to six games, took over second place and trimmed Milwaukee's lead to five games Tuesday night by beating the Braves 10-0.

Rookie right-hander George Witt blanked the champs on two hits, although it wasn't as easy as it sounds. It was his first major league shutout and gave the Bucs a sweep of the two-game series at Pittsburgh.

St. Louis skidded San Francisco to third by beating the Giants 7-3. Cincinnati belted Philadelphia 12-4 and the Chicago Cubs smacked Los Angeles 9-1.

Thomas Gets Homer
 Witt had to struggle for his sixth victory until Frank Thomas unloaded his 29th homer with a man on in the sixth off loser Bob Rush. The Bucs then put it away with eight in the eighth. Witt had little trouble with the Braves after the second inning, but the second was a pip.

Frank Torre lifted a pop fly to left that fell for a double and the Braves' first hit when Bob Skinner loret it in the lights. Then Witt, who walked four, hit Johnny Logan with a pitch, loading the bases with one out. Rush then bunted, Witt scooped up the ball and flipped to catcher Danny Kravitz for a home-to-first double play.

That's all the Braves managed against Witt, who has lost two, until Hank Aaron doubled with two out in the ninth.

The Bucs sent 12 men to bat in the big eighth. Thomas drove in his third run with a double, and Skinner tripled home two.

Jones Wins For Cards
 The Cards made it eight out of nine by overcoming a 3-2 Giants lead with a pair of unearned runs in the seventh. Sam Jones won his 10th, fanning seven but walking eight while matching loser Mike McCormick's six-hit job.

Jim Bolger hit a two-run triple and Lee Walls socked a two-run homer at the third at Los Angeles. Walls also hit a solo homer in the ninth, his 23rd of the season. Dick Drott won his fifth, giving up Gil Hodges' two-run, 16th homer in the fourth. Danny McDevitt (1-5) lost it.

The Redlegs bagged it with a six-run sixth capped by Bob Thurman's three-run double, at Philadelphia. Tom Acker gave up eight hits for his first victory. He had a three-hit shutout until the seventh, when Chico Fernandez hit a two-run double. Wally Post hit a two-run pinch homer in the fifth for the Phils, while Frank Robinson hit his 21st homer for the Reds.

The U. S. Plywood softball team remained in second place in the tight YMCA Twilight League race, with a 22-7 thumping of the First Christian Church team Tuesday night.

The Plywood nine belted 19 base hits in the five-inning tilt. U.S. Plywood jumped to a big start in the top of the first with eight runs and then scored in every frame thereafter for the win.

First Christian hit Plywood pitcher Bill Borcher for five hits, one a two-run homer in the first chapter.

College Stars Have Surplus Quarterbacks

CHICAGO (AP)—Will it be King Hill of Rice, Ray Brown of Mississippi, Tom Forrestal of Navy or Jim Ninowski of Michigan State?

That's the lineup of All-Star quarterbacks for the big game against Detroit's Lions Friday night at Soldier Field.

If the All-Stars hope to win, they'll need a sharp field general. Otto Graham, former Northwestern University star and later the quarterback who led the Cleveland Browns to numerous professional football titles, has not announced his starting lineup.

But it's a good bet that Hill will be the quarterback. If not Hill, then it's anyone's guess. Graham says he'll play a wide-open game which at best, means a lot of passing.

"You can't run through the pros," says Graham.

College Line Huge
 The All-Stars have a line that averages 234 pounds from tackle to tackle. They're well fortified with linemen and have the horses, if needed, in the backfield.

But since Graham is the coach, and he knows what it takes to beat the pros, he'll probably have his quarterbacks pitching to his halfbacks.

Graham is satisfied with his team showing in drills and insists that it takes a lot of desire to beat the champions of the National Football League.

"The pros should win," says Otto, but somehow, somewhere, lurks the idea that his All-Stars might surprise the Lions in the 25th anniversary of the contest.

The game will be broadcast and televised nationally by ABC at 8:30 p.m., EST.

Bend Legion Squad Ahead In Playoff

BEND (AP)—Bend grabbed a two-run lead in the Oregon American Legion junior baseball championship series Tuesday night, defeating Salem 9-6 in the second game of the best three-of-five playoff.

Bend had won the opening game Monday night, 6-0. Another victory would give it the championship. The teams meet again Friday at Salem in what could be the title game.

Seven Salem errors aided the Bend cause Tuesday night. Jim McCarthy, Bend's starting pitcher, was the winner.

Salem: 000 101 022—6 8 7
 Bend: 400 000 50X—9 6 3

Beavers Two-Time Bees, Advance On Fourth Spot

 San Diego 3, Seattle 2

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
 While Phoenix and Vancouver, the No. 1 and 2 teams in the Pacific Coast League's daffy pennant chase, keep hustling one another's backs, San Diego keeps shuffling along in a solid third place, waiting for the big break.

Phoenix's Giants edged Vancouver 2-1 in a thrill-charged game in the Canadian city Tuesday night to push the Mounties three games off the pace.

The San Diego Padres, meanwhile, chalked up their third straight victory by turning back Seattle 3-2. The Padres remained only three and a half games out of first, well within striking distance of Phoenix should the Giants falter in the stretch run.

In other games, the Spokane Indians made it three in a row over Sacramento, 4-2, and the Portland Beavers tacked two defeats on the Salt Lake City Bees, 5-2 and 2-1.

Erv Palica, the Vancouver starter, held the Giants to seven hits in his losing performance. The Giants scored the winning run in the seventh inning and it was a hotly-contested tally.

With two men out and the count three balls and a strike on Jim Finigan, Palica was charged with a quick pitch and Finigan was awarded first base. He then scored in successive singles by Jack Dittmer and Dusty Rhodes.

The Mounties missed a golden opportunity to tie the count at 2-2 in the eighth inning. Ray Barker lined a long smash off the right-field wall with Joe Frazier on first. Frazier had plenty of time to get around but he fell flat on his face rounding third and had to hold up. He died there.

Seattle's loss to San Diego marked the 12th setback in a row for the Rainiers, who are wallowing in last place 24 games off the pace. San Diego starter Jack Spring and reliever Dick Brodowski shackled the Rainiers on six hits.

Fred Hatfield's single in the last of the ninth inning after Carroll Hardy had walked and moved up on a sacrifice chased in Hardy with San Diego's winning run.

The Indians spotted Sacramento a two-run lead before they showed some life. Two singles, a walk and a sacrifice fly produced the first Spokane run in the fifth.

Spokane got one more in the eighth to tie it up at 2-2 and tucked the game away in the victory column with two tallies in the ninth on Jim Williams' single and doubles by Maury Wills and Norm Sherry. Sacramento's two in the fourth came on Ray Webster's ninth homer of the season.

By sweeping the bargain bill from Salt Lake City, the Beavers moved to within a game of the fourth-place Bees and a chance to get into the first division.

The Beavers made the most of their 12 hits, including George Freese's solo homer in the third inning, in the opener while the Bees couldn't seem to get full mileage out of their nine safeties. Portland put the game beyond reach with two runs in the fifth, the key blow Luis Marquez's triple.

In the nightcap, veteran southpaw Vic Lombardi fanned eight and walked only one in holding the Bees to seven hits. His opponent, Don Urquhart, gave up only six hits, but three of those came in the first inning when Portland scored its two runs.

Big Ten Sits Back, Awaits Bowl Role

CHICAGO (AP)—The Big Ten apparently will play a waiting game concerning its role in the Rose Bowl after the 1960 Pasadena classic.

The 1960 contest is the last in the current contest between the Big Ten and the Pacific Coast Conference, which disbands June 30, 1959.

Big Ten Commissioner K. L. (Tug) Wilson Tuesday declined comment on what the Big Ten plans in the post-season football competition after 1960.

Lathrop L. Leishman, football chairman of the Tournament of Roses Assn., has said the Rose Bowl game will be continued after 1960.

But as far as the Big Ten is concerned, Wilson said, "It's embarrassing because we are invited guests at the Rose Bowl game and we can't go asking to be invited."

Wilson said he has not heard from Jack Lowe, Cotton Bowl president, who has said he would like a Big Ten-Southwest Conference rivalry in the Dallas post-season feature.

"I have a great deal of respect for the Southwest Conference," said Wilson, "but I think those people can understand that our present attention is occupied with the Rose Bowl situation."
