Church Activities

Lutherans Hold Aid Conference

St. Paul's Lutheran Ladies Aid held their regular business meeting last Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Joseph Noyer on Maple Street.

The Community Club awards project to begin at the first of the year was reported on by Mrs. Lewis Wilson, group chairman for the contest. Also heard was an invitation to the Emerald Zone rally to be held in Sutherlin Oct. 6, at St. John's Lutheran Church.

It was reported that members are now canning for Portland Concordia College, and jars for this purpose are available at St. Paul's parish house.

The Rev. W. A. Sylwester gave a talk on "How to Use Your Bible." On display were copies of the Greek and Hebrew Bibles and Bible study helps, supplied by the Roseburg Book Store.

Refreshments were served to 21 members and two guests, Mrs. Anna Floew and Miss Jan Morton, by the hostesses, Mrs. Joseph Noyer and Mrs. Lewis Wilson.

Members were invited to prepare questions for use in a panel discussion at a future meeting, and Mrs. Donald Stapleton, program chairman, presented a narrative entitled, "Following a Mite Box."

FIRST JET AIRLINER

SEATTLE (AP) — Boeing Airplane Co. will deliver its first 707 jet airliner to Pan American World Airways Friday, four months ahead of schedule.

Local Youths Speakers At First Christian Church

Miss Connie Bridgess, Barney Wimer and Ed Waggoner, who formerly attended the Northwest Christian College in Eugene, spoke at the First Christian Church at the Sunday evening service.

They presented the sermon for the evening, each one developing a portion of the message.

Meetings Slated By Green Church

A series of four evening meetings, with services especially planned for the young people, will be sponsored by the Green Community Church. They are scheduled for Aug. 13 - 17, at 7:30 p.m., except on Thursday, when they will start at 7 p.m.

Speakers for the occasion will be Ron Comfort and Mary Fray, and Fred Skeels will lead the singing. All three men are students at Bob Jones University in North Carolina. There will be instrumental music and vocal numbers as well as chorus and hymn singing.

Thursday evening, Dr. A. P. Gleason, director of college development at Azusa College, will be present to speak and show the film "Crossroads of Decision." Ron Busey, accordianist, will provide music.

Several other churches in the Roseburg area are co-operating in these services, and all young people, including interested adults, are invited to attend.
