A very lovely summer wedding took place Sunday, Aug. 3, at 6 p. m. at the First Presbyterian Church when Carla Lee Taylor, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David L. Taylor of Roseburg, became the bride of Orville D. Mollett, Roseburg. The Rev. John Adams performed the impressive double ring ceremony.

Large white satin bows centered by lily-of-the-valley marked the aisle pews. White and yellow gladioli formed the floor basket and altar bouquets, flanked by candelabra holding tall white cathedral candles. Candles and greenery decorated the stained glass windows. Lighting the candles were Miss Linda Strickling and Tom Watts.

Mrs. Hower Grow, organist, played softly as the guests assembled and accompanied Richard Hanks who sang "Because" and "The Wedding Prayer." Mrs. Grow played Elgar's "Salute D'Armour" and Wagner's "Processional" as the bridal party advanced to the altar. After the ceremony, she played Mendelssohn's "Wedding Recessional." The bride was escorted to the altar by her father. She was radiantly beautiful in a gown of white nylon tulle and lace over taffeta made in princess style with a full skirt and short train. The fitted bodice was embroidered with seed pearls and iridescent sequins. She wore a rock crystal necklace, a gift of the bridegroom, and carried a large white orchid and her mother's white Bible tied with white satin ribbon bows and streamers. Her fingertip veil of illusion was held in place by a bandeau of seed pearls.

Mrs. Jack Wright was matron of honor and Miss Rosalie Houston of Creswell and Mrs. Tom Taylor of Eugene, the bride's sister-in-law, were bridesmaids. They wore identical gowns of brocade yellow taffeta fashioned with full skirts and princess bodices to match the bride's gown. Their headresses were of nylon flowers and not dyed to match the gowns. They carried sprays of gladioli in yellow and white.

The wedding reception was given by the bride's parents at their home. Tables were set up on the patio. The patio and house were decorated with bouquets of white and yellow gladioli and dahlias. Mrs. S. A. Warg arranged the flowers.

The bride's table was covered by a beautiful hand-embroidered cloth and was centered by the tiered wedding cake topped by wedding hells and decorated with roses and swans in white and palest yellow. The cake was flanked by crystal candelabra holding tall white tapers and Cecil Brunner roses.

Mrs. Ira Poole, aunt of the bride, served the wedding cake. Friends presiding at the coffee urn and punch bowl were Mrs. Floyd Warner, Mrs. Clair K. Allen, Mrs. Homer Strickling and Mrs. Louis Wright. Mrs. William A. Hall and twin daughters, Jeanette and Janice, assisted in catering.

For traveling, the bride chose a grey silk suit with pink veiling hat and white accessories. Her corsage was a white orchid. Following a honeymoon to points of interest in the state of Washington, Mr. and Mrs. Mollett will be at home to their friends at 1545 Harvard Ave.

The bride attended Roseburg schools and the Museum Art School in Portland. She has a BA degree in painting and drawing from the University of Oregon. She is well-known in this area as a very talented young artist and is also known for a very fine soprano voice, having sung for many occasions. She has received considerable voice training in Eugene and Portland.

The bridegroom, formerly of Tacoma, Wash., attended University of Washington and received a BS degree in forestry. He is employed by the Bureau of Land Management of Douglas County.

Coming from out of town for the wedding were the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hamlin, Canyonville; her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Poole, Tillamook; her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Wes Bailor, Medford; the bridegroom's sisters and families, Mr. and Mrs. George Geshe and daughters, Cheryl and Sharon, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sigafos and family, all of Tacoma; Mr. and Mrs. Ben Wheeler, Myrtle Creek; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Taylor and daughters, Teresa Ann and Andrea Lee, Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Houston; Lillian Houston, Creswell; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ollivant, Brockway; and Mrs. Charles Hary and children, Gregory, Beth and Robin, Auburn, Ind.

TO BE BRIDE—Mr. and Mrs. Paul Huff of Michigan City, Ind., announce the engagement of their daughter, Charlotte, to Darrell Maddox of Roseburg, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Maddox of Long Beach, Calif. Miss Huff has been employed as chief occupational therapist at the Long Beach County General Hospital. Her fiancé is on the news staff of The News-Review. The wedding will take place at the Faith Lutheran Church Sept. 6. (Nola Brooks Studio).

TO MARRY—Mrs. Leonard Cooper of Lookingglass announces the engagement of her daughter, Lora Belle, to J. R. Mote, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. Mote of Roseburg. Miss Cooper was graduated from Douglas High School this spring. The bridegroom-elect is employed at City Drive In Market. A September wedding is planned. (Wilson Studio)

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED—Mr. and Mrs. Roy D. Johnson, 2131 "A" Avenue, National City, Calif., formerly of Star Route, Oakland, Ore., announce the engagement of their daughter, Carol Ann Johnson, to Edward F. York, SQ/3 US Navy of Rock Springs, Wyo. Carol attended grade and high school in Oakland and was graduated in 1958 from Sweetwater Union High School in National City, Calif.

BETROTHAL TOLD—Mr. and Mrs. Dale White of Rupert, Idaho, formerly of this city, announce the engagement of their daughter, Susan, to Pfc. Byron Vosika, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Vosika of Roseburg. The bride-elect attended Roseburg Senior High School for three years and will be a senior at Minadoka High School in Rupert this year. The bridegroom-elect is now with the U. S. Army at Fort Lewis, Wash. No date has been set for the wedding.

MR. AND MRS. RICHARD P. VOTH, above, were married Aug. 1 in Dallas, Ore. by the Rev. James Carr. The bride, Patricia Ann Davis, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Harris of Glendale. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Voth of Dallas. (Picture by Palmer's Photo Shop, Dallas).

The Salt Creek Baptist Church at Dallas was the scene of a charming wedding Friday, Aug. 1, when Patricia Ann Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil R. Harris of Glendale, became the bride of Richard P. Voth, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Voth of Dallas. The Rev. James Carr, pastor of the church, officiated at the 8 p. m. double ring candlelight ceremony in the presence of 150 relatives and friends.

Large baskets of pink and white gladioli decorated the altar. Mrs. C. R. Harris, the bride's mother, sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly." Organist was Frances Shmittke, Dallas.

Candles were lighted preceding the wedding by Mel Harris, brother of the bride, and by Paul Voth, brother of the bridegroom.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a wedding gown of white net over satin. Her fingertip veil was held by a scalloped crown of seed pearls and she carried an orchid in a cluster of stephanotis and rosebuds.

Peggy Carr and Lyle Beerman, both of Salem, were bridesmaids. They wore bouffant pink crystal-let dresses and white lace hats. They carried pale pink gladioli.

Ronald Voth, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Mr. Thorsen was usher.

The bride's mother wore a pink ensemble and the bridegroom's mother was gowned in blue. Both mothers had orchid corsages.

A reception in the church parlors was given by the bride's parents following the wedding. The newlyweds then left for a honeymoon on the coast, the bride wearing a black suit with pink collar, a feathered hat and the orchid corsage from her bridal bouquet. Mr. and Mrs. Voth are now at home at 30 SW 14th St., Salem.

The bride attended Glendale school and the Salem Bible Academy where for the past six years the bridegroom was also a student. Mr. Voth expects to report for duty soon with the U. S. Marine Corps.

The Friday morning coffee will take place at the home of Mrs. Bruce Briggs on the South Umpqua River north of Myrtle Creek with Mrs. O. R. Fritz and Mrs. Hall Seely co-chairmen assisted by Mrs. Al Bishop, Mrs. Henry Bailey, Mrs. Burr Durliner, Mrs. Richard Hollenbeck, Mrs. Richard Horn, Mrs. J. B. Kilkenny, Miss Anna Link, Mrs. B. E. Morrissey, Mrs. B. Sanders, Mrs. Howard Thomas, Mrs. John H. Young and Mrs. Robert L. Easter.

The closing affair will be the card party at the Elks Terrace Ballroom with Mrs. Ray Carrio and Miss Helen Casey as co-chairmen.

This evening affair will open with a dessert-supper. Special entertainment is being planned, followed by the card play. Prizes will be awarded. Assisting the chairmen with the party will be Mrs. Paul K. Ryan, Mrs. Jack Isaacson, Mrs. E. L. Tauscher, Miss Betty Tauscher, Mrs. R. B. Bier, Mrs. Perry Thiele, Mrs. Charles Clapperton, Mrs. John Bogner, Mrs. E. R. Buckingham, Mrs. W. H. Carter, Mrs. Roy Crain, Mrs. Vincent Derig, Mrs. Robert Dudley, Mrs. Charles Dwyer, Mrs. E. R. A PRETTY WEDDING of Aug. 2 at 8 p. m. at the Nazarene Church in Roseburg took place when Vivian McConnell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Calvin McConnell of Sutherlin, became the bride of Ronald Gene Oberg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh R. Oberg of Roseburg. The Rev. Robert Hempel performed the impressive double ring ceremony in the presence of 125 guests. The

The Roseburg Nazarene Church was the scene Saturday, Aug. 2, of the 8 p. m. double ring service uniting in marriage Miss Vivian McConnell of Roseburg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Calvin McConnell of Sutherlin, and Ronald Gene Oberg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Oberg of this city. The Rev. Robert Hempel performed the nuptial service before 125 friends and relatives of the couple.

Floor baskets of pink gladioli and candelabra holding white candles formed the altar decorations. The pews were ornamented with green and white ribbons. Lighting the candles before the ceremony were Patricia Jean and Rosemary McConnell, sisters of the bride. They wore pale pink dresses and white daisy wristlets. Miss Fay Reeder sang "I Love You Truly" and Nancy Lou McConnell, sister of the bride, sang "The Wedding Prayer." They were accompanied by Mrs. John Fanchin who also played the traditional wedding music.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She looked lovely in a ballerina-length full-skirted dress, styled with a front and side skirt of scalloped lace, with tiered tulle ruffles in the back. The fitted lace bodice had a scalloped neckline and three-quarter length sleeves. Her elbow-length veil was secured by a crown of sequins and pearls. Her wedding bouquet was of white gardenias and pink Elf roses.

The bridegroom's brother, Richard Oberg of Enumclaw, Wash., performed the duties of best man. Vernon D. Morris was usher.

Following the ceremony, a reception was given at the Roseburg Women's Club by the bride's parents. The bride's table was covered with a pink lace cloth and was centered with the wedding cake which was trimmed in green and white and was topped with white bells. Serving the cake was Miss Donna Lovett. Punch was served by Mrs. Darrell Hunt, sister of the bride. Miss Zoe Peery presented the guest book.

Coming from out of town to attend the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hayes, Seattle, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Terry Wood, Eugene; and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Oberg, Enumclaw, Wash.

The young people honeymooned in Seattle and are now at home to their friends at 447 SE Chadwick, Apt. C. For traveling, the bride wore a pink linen two-piece dress with pleated skirt and fitted top. The bride was graduated from Roseburg High School and is employed as assistant bookkeeper at Trowbridge Electric. The bridegroom was graduated from Oakridge High School. He is an assistant manager at the J. J. Newberry Store here.
