High Fence Built To Insure Crop
 PORTLAND (AP)—Lloyd Yeoman is going to harvest his own peaches or bust a picket in the 20-foot fence he built to insure his crop.
 Neighborhood children and others walking by the 40-year-old tree, conveniently near the sidewalk, have snatched peaches from his tree the past two years.
 Yeoman said he tried to stop the theft of his peaches last year by sleeping on his front porch. He gained nothing but trouble.
 This year he hammered together a high board fence from 20-foot-lengths of old lumber and erected it around his tree.
 The fence will stay up until the crop is ripe. He told neighbors he would take it down after picking his peaches, which are not yet ripe.
 If this remedy works, Yeoman said he plans to build a portable plywood fence to put up and remove each season.

Pacifist Struck By Truck While Picketing Site
 CHEYENNE, Wyo. (AP) — A young Chicago self-styled pacifist failed Tuesday in an effort to halt construction of a missile launching site, and was hospitalized when he was struck by a truck during the attempt.
 Attendants at Laramie County Memorial Hospital said the condition of Kenneth Calkins, 23, was good. Calkins' wife, Eleanor, 22, said a physician told her her husband suffered a crushed pelvis.
 Involved in the efforts to halt construction of the launching site were Mr. Theodore Olson, 26, of Fall-sington, Pa., and Arthur Springer, 23, of Brooklyn, N. Y.
 Springer and Olson are charged with trespassing and were jailed Tuesday.
 The driver of the 12-ton truck which struck Calkins was not identified. Sheriff N. E. Tuck said he understood the driver did not see Calkins.
 The missile site is located 20 miles northwest of here. Mr. and Mrs. Calkins entered the site Monday with announced plans to impede construction and circulate leaflets among the workers.
 Air Police escorted the couple off the base and Calkins and his wife began a sitdown strike outside the gate. They were joined by Olson and Springer.

Goldfine's Company Files Its Report Just 17 Days Late
 WASHINGTON (AP) — Bernard Goldfine's East Boston Co. has filed—17 days late—its annual report with the Securities and Exchange Commission.
 A SEC spokesman indicated Tuesday the agency would not seek to impose punishment even though East Boston, a holding firm, is under a court order to get its reports in on time.
 The court order was handed down in 1955 after East Boston failed to file financial statements with SEC from 1948 to 1954.
 Goldfine, Boston millionaire and gift-giving friend of presidential assistant Sherman Adams, has said he was unable to file this year's report by the July 29 deadline because records of the company were in the hands of a House subcommittee which investigated some of his activities.
 Subcommittee Chairman Owen Harris (D-Ark) contended otherwise. He said the group had only duplicate copies of papers relating to East Boston.
 A subcommittee spokesman said Tuesday, however, that some of the papers were originals. He said they were returned to Goldfine July 20. They weren't returned earlier, he said, because Goldfine hadn't asked for them.

Foreign Policy Critic Winner Of Nomination
 CHEYENNE, Wyo. (AP) — Dr. Gale McGee, 43, a critic of the administration's foreign policy, Tuesday won the Democratic nomination for U. S. Senate from Wyoming.
 He will oppose Sen. Frank A. Barrett, 65, in the November election. Barrett was unopposed for the Republican nomination for a second term.
 McGee, a University of Wyoming history professor, rolled up 19,335 votes to 13,313 for Hepburn T. Armstrong, 37-year-old uranium executive, on the basis of returns of 590 of 589 precincts.
 Armstrong had urged mammoth housing projects for the aged and attraction of industry to Wyoming.
 Republican Gov. Milward L. Simpson easily won renomination for a second term. Returns from 532 precincts gave Simpson 19,477 votes and Stanley Edwards of Laramie 5,801.
 J. J. Hickey, 46-year-old Cheyenne attorney, was nominated for governor without opposition in the Democratic primary. Hickey is a former U.S. attorney.
 McGee had the support of most Wyoming Democratic party leaders in his primary campaign and received financial contributions from Eleanor Roosevelt. McGee spent a year in Washington as a legislative assistant for Sen. Joseph C. O'Mahoney (D-Wyo).

It Proved More Than Just One Of Those Things
 ORANGE, N.J. (AP)—"It was just one of those things," cab driver John W. Jenkins told police.
 "Those things," police said, included a 17-day southern trip with a cab owned by someone else.
 But there were other things too. Detectives pieced them together this way:
 Jenkins, 25, was waiting for a fare at a corner when he suddenly got an urge to take off somewhere. So he did.
 With a total of $39, Jenkins headed the cab south. He picked up two young hitchhikers in Baltimore and shared the driving chores to Miami with them. Then he continued on to Key West.
 He sold his first $300 cab to a sailor at the Florida naval base for $50.
 He then hopped a bus to New Orleans, arriving there with $7.
 He was intent of having a good time, but he had only two drinks before police picked him up for questioning. He spent eight days in jail because he couldn't pay a $10 fine.
 Jenkins hitchhiked his way home after his release and arrived here Monday night. He walked into police headquarters and gave himself up.
 He was ordered held without bail on a larceny charge.

British Set Danger Zone In Pacific For Tests
 LONDON (AP) — Britain today declared a wide area of the Pacific Ocean a danger area beginning Wednesday for a series of nuclear weapons tests.
 A Foreign Office spokesman said the British government notified all foreign diplomatic missions in London.
 The spokesman said the area around Christmas Island, the headquarters of Britain's nuclear weapons testing operations, is the same as that closed to shipping in previous nuclear tests.
MIDGET WATERMELON
 CORVALLIS (AP) — After six years of trying, Oregon State College experimenters have produced a midget watermelon.
 The melons, said Dr. W. A. Frazier, are about the same size as cantaloupes, are sweet, and can be stored easily.

Centennial Food Concession Setup Starts Argument
 PORTLAND (AP) — A hassle over the food concession at the Oregon Centennial Exposition is headed for decision by the state's attorney general.
 Gene Rossman, who is both a newly appointed member of the centennial commission and secretary of the Associated Restaurants of Oregon, said here he wanted to know why restaurant men hadn't had a chance to bid on the concession at the center.
 Floyd Maxwell, exposition director, said he had advertised in the Daily Journal of Commerce, got no response from restaurateurs, and signed a contract for the snack and beverage bars with Paul Ail, who has similar concessions at baseball games and other events.
 Rossman protested and the commission voted to ask the attorney general to rule whether the contract was properly awarded.
 All also got a lease on the center—the Pacific International Livestock Exposition building—for basketball games effective from the time the arena is remodeled until the end of next March. All will provide the floor and other necessary equipment for the games. The University of Portland expects to schedule its games there.
 Anthony Brandenthaler, commission chairman, said income from exhibit areas and concessions is expected to total $3,944,031.
 This sum, said member C. Howard Lane, will be just enough to permit the exposition to squeeze by.

Troopers Watch As Nonstrikers Pass Picket Line
 CONNERSVILLE, Ind. (AP) — About 34 nonstrikers marched past a jeering picket line at a coffin ornament factory this morning. State troopers armed with clubs watched.
 Two pickets were arrested on disorderly conduct charges for refusing to move out of the workers' path. Eleven other pickets were arrested in a rock-throwing scuffle Tuesday morning.
 About 50 pickets shouted "scabs" and "don't come through the line" today at the workers going into the National Metal Products Co. main plant, involved in an eight-week strike over a union official's firing.
 Two dozen city police augmented the 120 state troopers, ordered in by Gov. Harold W. Handley Tuesday.
 Local 918 of the International Union of Electrical Workers struck the plant June 24 after the local president, William Remmiller, and Clarence Maxwell, a shop steward, were fired. J. P. Epperson, company vice president, said they were distributing union literature inside the plant on company time.
 The company normally employs about 250 men and has been on intermittent production since the strike began.
