

Actress Never Thought That Hollywood Would Want Her

By BOB THOMAS
AP Motion Picture Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—"I never thought Hollywood would use me. There's no place out here for a fat girl. . . .
"I can't stand the sunshine in California. It's so relentless. But it's good for you, I guess. Even the old ladies out here look better than I do. . . .
"This was Maureen Stapleton talking, and she was living up to her billing as the female Marlon Brando.
She is like the early Brando—before he became husband, father and film producer. She has a similar disdain for the niceties of life ("I hate clothes"). She is unimpressed by herself, Hollywood protocol and nearly everything.
Also Brando-like: She is a great performer, universally admired by her fellow actors.
Asked Her to Play Role
Dora Schary is the man who got her to do a movie. He and director Vincent Donahue sought her to play the important role of an unhappy housewife in "Lonelyhearts" with Montgomery Clift, Robert Ryan and Myrna Loy.
