By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The tall-end Seattle Rainiers continued to spoil Portland's "Build Baseball Week" by spilling the Beavers the third straight time, 6-5, Wednesday night, before 6,515 Portland fans.

The Rainiers drove veteran right-hander Larry Jansen out of the box with two runs each in the second and third innings. They added single runs in the fourth and sixth off Howie Judson.

Portland cut Seattle's lead to one in the seventh with two runs on an error, a double by Bob DiPietro and a single by George Freese.

The Beavers threatened to tie it in the eighth when Nini Tornay singled and Alex Cosmidis doubled him to third. But at this point southpaw Jim Davis relieved starting pitcher Max Sarkot and stopped Portland dead the rest of the way.

Kazak Homers

Eddie Kazak got Seattle off to a lead in the second with a homer. Gordy Bloomfield doubled and Jim McManus singled for another run in the same inning.

The Rainiers' third inning runs came on a double by Vada Pinson, singles by Juan Delis and Kazak and Eddie Basinski's sacrifice fly.

Singles by McManus and Pinson, with two infield outs in between, gave Seattle another in the fourth. The Rainiers' final run came on Dick DiTusa's sixth inning homer.

Kazak's error, a passed ball, and Bob DiPietro's single produced Portland's first tally in the third.

Judson singled home Len Neal, who had doubled, for Portland's second run in the fourth. Dave Mellon's double and Neal's single gave Portland another in the sixth.

In other games, seventh-place

Cleveland Official Doubtful Of Future

CLEVELAND (AP)—"We obviously can't continue this way," said the chairman of the Cleveland Indians, William Daley.

What he meant was the home attendance, and his remark was made in connection with talk about Minneapolis getting a major league ball club — possibly Washington, possibly Cleveland.

From the "can't continue" statement he went on, "It's beginning to be evident that the Cleveland fans won't support us."

His tone represents quite a change from the sort of response that used to come from Indian management every time transfer rumors popped up.

The statement in the past was to the effect that the management has no plans or intentions of moving, followed by a mild "unless" attendance dropped too far.

This time there still are disclaimers that the club is doing any negotiating. But Daley seems to be a little less specific these days in the customary denials.
