Lions Gain At Browns Expense; Rams Crush NY Giants, 35-19

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Coach George Wilson told his Detroit Lions it was time to wipe out a couple of nasty rumors. His National Football League championship responded by knocking over the Cleveland Browns 17-7 in a pre-season exhibition game at Detroit Friday night.

The victory helped the Lions forget last week's 35-19 drubbing at the hands of the College All-Stars. It also kept intact the team's record of never having lost to the Browns on home grounds.

On the West Coast, the Los Angeles Rams, capitalizing on Billy Wade's passing and a tough defense, defeated the New York Giants, 38-10, in a pre-season set to at Los Angeles' Memorial Coliseum.

Wilson, starting his second season as head coach of Detroit, said he didn't make a speech to his players before the game. "I merely told them everybody has been saying we look lousy in camp, and we looked lousy against the college boys," he said. "It was time they proved a little something to themselves and to everybody else."

If there was one thing the victory proved, it was that quarterback Bobby Layne is ready for his 11th season of professional football.

Layne, whose career was jeopardized by a broken ankle suffered last December against the same Browns, directed the Detroit team to its only long scoring march. It covered 80 yards in 11 plays and the former Texas star passed for more than half the yardage.

The Rams, in posting their second straight exhibition victory, had to come from behind.

Ben Agajanian's 28-yard field goal put the Giants out in front in the opening quarter.

But Wade shot the Los Angeles team out in front to stay with two touchdown passes in the second quarter. He hit Jon Arnett on the goal line with a 35-yard strike and then fired a 39-yard touchdown pass to Del Shofner.

The Phoenix Giants maintained their two game lead in the Pacific Coast League pennant chase Friday night, whipping Salt Lake City's Bees 4-3 while the second place San Diego Padres were taking Vancouver by the same score in 11 innings.

In other league action, the Seattle Rainiers won their eighth straight game with a 6-2, 11-inning decision over Sacramento and the Portland Beavers defeated Spokane's Indians 10-1.

The Giants got their first run on Bobby Prescott's solo homer in the second inning, gave three to the Bees in the fifth and then won it with three runs of their own in the seventh, including a walk, Billy Shipley's double, Bees by Joe Wilson's double, the Bees to four hits. Burnside gave up three of them. He fanned 10 and walked two.

Ridick Wins

Steve Ridick, the third of three San Diego hurlers, picked up the victory over the faltering Mounties as the Padres tagged Vancouver pitching for 11 hits. One of the nine Vancouver hits was Jimmy Dyck's solo homer in the seventh, which the Mounties scored two runs and picked up a 3-0 lead.

The Padres got their first three runs in the bottom of the seventh on two singles, Larry Raines double and a walk. The winning run was scored by Dave Pope, who singled, moved up on a sacrifice and rounded home on Rudy Regalado's single.

The Indians sent five pitchers to the mound in an all-out, but unsuccessful, effort to quiet Portland's bats as the Beavers slugged out 16 hits, including Bob Dillert's solo homer in the fourth, when the Bevos got three runs.

The winners spurlined for seven runs in the eighth inning to insure the victory for Vic Lombardi, who spaced out eight hits while fanning seven and walking none. Bob Milliken, the Spokane starter, was the loser.

City Drive In, Vets Employes In Twilight Wins

The City Drive In softball team and the Vets Employes team ended the regular season play Thursday night at Veterans Field, with both clubs scoring runs to tie for the league title.

City Drive In dropped U.S. Plywood 6-3 and the Vets team blasted First Christian Church nine 10-0.

In the City-U.S. fray, City grabbed a 2-0 lead in the bottom of the first while the Plywood nine came back with a single run in the fourth. City matched this single tally in its half of the frame and lead 3-1 going into the fifth and final inning.

U.S. Plywood tied the tilt with two markers in the top of the fifth on two hits, an error and a hit batsman. City won the important tilt by plating three runs in the bottom of the fifth on three hits.

In the Vet's-First Christian tilt, the Vet's took a 1-0 lead in the first frame. The score remained at this point until the fifth when the Vet's batted around and scored six runs on four hits, two errors and two walks.

Three additional tallies were scored in the sixth to complete the scoring. First Christian hit Vet pitching for six hits, but were unable to dent the plate.

Big 4 Setup Seen Result Of Confab

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Representatives of four former members of the Pacific Coast Conference met here Saturday and a new football alignment is expected to be announced shortly.

Most observers expect the schools — California, Washington, Southern California and UCLA — to form a loosely knit Pacific Conference. The new set-up would not operate until the official death of the PCC next June.

Stanford's future with the new organization is not expected to be known for some time. President J. Wallace Sterling recently said Stanford should wait for the problems of the PCC dissolution to be settled and "then consult our own interests."

Canadian Triumphs In Trapshoot Event

VANDALIA, Ohio (AP) — A Canadian held the Grand American Handicap trapshoot title today, but a heart-broken 16-year-old kid from Illinois is getting a lot of cheers too.

The new champion is 66-year-old Emerson Clark, a foundry superintendent from Preston, Ont., first to carry the coveted crown across the Canadian border.

The kid is Robert V. Nolan of Lewistown, Ill., who posted the only perfect score in the record-breaking field of 2,214 and didn't win a thing.

The youngster broke 100 straight from 10 yards and while being hailed as the winner of trapshoot's biggest classic, was ruled ineligible for the honor by Amateur Trapshoot Assn. officials.

The decision disclosed that young Nolan had paid a $750 entry fee which entitled him to shoot for targets only. The total entry fee for those shooting for purses and the championship is $61.

With young Nolan ousted from the top spot, Clark and Jim McCole, a 30-year-old game warden from Gering, Neb., moved into the lead with 99 in the shootoff. Clark emerged a 23-20 victor.

The 58th Grand American winds up today with the National Doubles Championship and the Vandalia Handicap. Both count in the over-all and all-around championships, based on the full week of shooting in which nearly a million and a quarter targets have been thrown.

Portland Little Loop 9 Wins Consolation Game

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. (AP) — Some consolation came to the Little League team from Portland, Ore., champions of the western division, when they defeated the Pacific champs, Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, 7-2, in a consolation game Friday.

Portland and Pearl Harbor were eliminated in first round games from a chance at the Little League baseball title. The title was retained by the defending champs from Monterey, Mexico, in Friday's finals.

Home runs by Portland's Keith Lampard and Tommy Aldrin assured Portland's victory over Pearl Harbor.

Mexican 9 Wins 2nd LL Crown

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. (AP) — Little League baseball has its Casey Stengel. His name is Cesar L. Faj, a one time batboy for the San Antonio Missions' Texas League ball club and clubhouse boy for the old St. Louis Browns.

He guided the Monterrey team to an unprecedented second Little League World Championship Friday, defeating the Kankakee (Ill.) Yankees, 10-1.

That was the 27-year-old Turner's last victory until he whipped Redl by unanimous decision in their 10-rounder at Madison Square Garden last night. But win or lose, the ever-pressing Philadelphia contender gives the fans a good show.

"We'll use both Turner and Redl soon," said Harry Markens, managing director of the International Boxing Club. "They put on a good fight."

Good Fight Staged

That it was from the opening bell, Redl, a superbly conditioned, 25-year-old from Passaic, N. J., pestered his sluggish rival through the first half of the brisk battle. Moving in and out and side to side, Redl scored with jabs and rights to the body and head.

A flash knockdown in the third round upset the German-favored Redl momentarily, but he kept buzzing around Turner until Gil's body banding finally wore him down.

The second half of the scrap, and especially the vital last two rounds, were dominated by the heavier—151½ to 147—Turner.

The three officials had Turner ahead by the following scores: Referee Teddy Martin, 63-1; Judge Harold Barnes, 73-1; Judge Mike Davidewitch, 64-1. The AP had it even in rounds, 5-5, but Turner the winner.

Protest Voiced

Redl protested he was off balance in the third and it wasn't a real knockdown but he admitted that body punches set him on the floor. He was up at two and given an eight-count.

"He was bouncing around and off balance but I clipped him with a left hook and a right to the body," said Turner. "It was something like that knockdown Roy Harris scored over Floyd Patterson."

Redl, scratched around the eyes, said Turner was too heavy and strong for him.

It was the second defeat for Redl who has been in boxing pro 28 months. He has won 20, Turner's record is 36-17-2.

HARD-WAY RUN—Cincinnati Redleg Roy McMillan, center, blasted over catcher Valmy Thomas of the San Francisco Giants to score Cincinnati's first run in the third inning of their 4-3 loss to the Giants in San Francisco Wednesday (Aug. 20). The peg from Giants' out-fielder Willie Kirkland barely missed McMillan just before he plowed over Thomas, shaking the ball loose to the right. The umpire is Stanley Landes. (AP Wirephoto)

Everything comes hard for Sad Sam Jones. Even when he wins.

Take last night. The St. Louis Cardinals gave him some infrequent hitting support and he beat the Philadelphia Phillies 9-1 with a three-hitter.

Trouble is, it might have been Sad Sam's second major league no-hitter. He gave the Phils chills

Bend 9 Loses Playoff Game

BILLINGS, Mont. (AP) — Centralia, Wash. withstood a last minute rally by Bend, Ore. to win its opening game in the American Legion Region Junior Baseball playoffs here Friday, 6-3.

The win puts Centralia into the semi-finals Saturday night against Billings, Mont.

After six innings without a run, Bend got going with a run in each of the last three. Centralia pitcher Bruce Dowling was relieved in the ninth when Bend got two men on base with only one out. Bend's Sid Bauer stole home, but Dowling's reliever struck out the next man and retired a pinchhitter on a fly ball to end the game.

Centralia picked up three runs in the first on a double by Ted Bates and Bill Lohr's sacrifice fly. They picked up another tally in the fourth and added two more in the eighth.

Bend and Fairbanks, Alaska met Saturday afternoon in a loser's match.

The Alaskans were downed 13-3 by Lewiston Friday.
