One of the largest and loveliest of summer weddings took place Sunday, Aug. 17, at 3 p.m. at the First Presbyterian Church, when Miss Marilyn Jeanne Springer, only daughter of Mrs. Eugene A. Springer and the late Mr. Springer, became the bride of Gregory Lowell Young, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lowell H. Young of Salem. The Rev. John E. Adams performed the impressive double ring ceremony in the presence of several hundred friends and relatives.

Baskets of white gladioli and pink cacti dahlias flanked the candleabra holding tall white cathedral candles. The candles were lighted by ushers, James Hiatt of Roseburg and Joe Heidel of Carlton, Ore.

Mrs. Homer W. Grow, organist, played softly on the organ as the guests assembled. She played the traditional wedding processional and recessional and accompanied Harold Mobley, who sang, "I'll Walk Beside You" by Murray; "Yours Is My Heart Alone" by Romburg and "The Lord's Prayer" by Malotte.

Given in marriage by her uncle, Roland B. Springer, the bride was very beautiful in a floor-length gown of white silk organza fashioned with an empire bodice with deep yoke of lace trimmed with seed pearls and iridescent sequins. The very full skirt ended in a chapel train. Her veil of illusion fell from a scalloped head-dress of lace, seed pearls and sequins and she carried a bride's bouquet of pale pink rosebuds.

Miss Patricia Greer, Portland, was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Joan Phillips and Mrs. Stephen Danchock of Roseburg. They wore waltz-length gowns of pink embroidered polished cotton fashioned with empire bodices and very full skirts. They wore pink velvet and veil headbands and carried cascade bouquets of white gladioli tied with pale pink ribbon.

Carol Gardner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Gardner, was flower girl and wore a pink organza dress with matching headband. She carried a white basket filled with rose petals. Bruce Richmond, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Richmond, was ring bearer.

Jerry Young of Salem was best man to his brother and ushers were Roland C. Shanklin, who flew from Honolulu for the wedding and who is a cousin of the bride; James Hiatt, Roseburg, and Joe Heidel, Carlton, Ore.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Springer wore a soft pink lace sheath dress with matching hat and accessories. Mrs. Young, mother of the bridegroom, wore a waltz-length gown of aqua with matching hat and accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of white orchids.

A wedding reception followed in the church parlors. Baskets of white gladioli and pink dahlias were used about the rooms. A large bouquet of anthuriums and hard of paradise flowers from Hawaii formed the bouquet beside the fireplace, while the punch table was decorated with arrangements of Vanda Spider orchids, brought from Hawaii by the bride's cousin, Roland C. Shanklin.

The bride's table was decorated in pink carnation and fern and tall white candles. Serving the beautiful wedding cake were Mrs. Roland B. Springer, Mrs. George Aspelin, Mrs. Kenneth Ford and Mrs. Keith Phillips. Mrs. Leroy Hiatt presided at the coffee service and Mrs. Marguerite Phillips and Mrs. Thelma Greer served the punch.

The guest book was in charge of Mrs. Kent Phillips of Corvallis and Miss Susan Vaughn of Salem had charge of the gifts. Assisting about the room were Mrs. Richard Eastman and Miss Loretta Gall. Background music was played during the reception by Mrs. George Gmahl (the former George Shanklin), of Seattle. The rice packages were given to the guests by Bruce Springer, cousin of the bride.

For traveling the bride chose a navy blue sheath dress with white accessories. Her corsage was a large white orchid. Following a honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Young will make their home at 144 N. 16th St., Corvallis.

Out-of-town guests coming for the wedding: Mrs. and Mrs. Lowell H. Young, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Ashbury and daughter, Rachel; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Wimmer, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Limbocker and children, Suzanne, Mark and Kent; Miss Susan Vaughan, Russell Chandler and Jerry Young, all of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. George Gmahl and small daughter of Seattle; Roland G. Shanklin of Honolulu; Mr. and Mrs. Kent Phillips of Corvallis;

Mrs. Thelma Greer and daughter, Miss Patricia; Mr. and Mrs. Lowell G. Young and children, Carol, Dorothy, Margie and Johnny, all of Portland; Joe Heidel, Carlton, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. George Wood, North Bend; Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Severson, Coquille; Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Gall and daughter, Juetta, Myrtle Creek; Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Thorpe, Medford; Mr. and Mrs. George Sothman, Winston.

Both the bride and bridegroom were graduated from Roseburg High School in 1955. The bride completed her four years at Oregon State College in three years, at which time she received her degree in elementary education. She will teach fourth grade in Harding Elementary School of the Corvallis School System this coming year. The bridegroom is a junior in electrical engineering at Oregon State College and will continue his studies there this fall.

Mrs. Jack Chapman and Mrs. Clyde W. Carstens Sr. had charge of the beautiful decorations for the church, while Mrs. John Howe had charge of the floral arrangements for the reception. The flowers were arranged by Mrs. A. A. Jacoby.

BETROTHAL TOLD — Mr. and Mrs. Tom V. Wells, Port Orford, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Dianna (Torchy) Wells, to William J. Goergen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Goergen, Port Orford, former residents of Roseburg. Miss Wells is employed in the office of Port Orford Plywood. Bill, who has been majoring in business technology for the last two years at Oregon State College, is with Hudson House, Inc., wholesale groceries, Roseburg. The wedding is planned for September.

Country Club Women Meet On Thursday

Four tables of contract bridge were in play Thursday, when the Women of the Roseburg Country Club met for luncheon and bridge at the clubhouse.

High score for the bridge play was won by Mrs. I. J. Bean with Mrs. Chester Thompson, second, and Mrs. J. F. Dillard, third.

Mrs. Robert Ganz, president of the Women of the Roseburg Country Club, has called an important board meeting for 11:30 a.m. Thursday, Aug. 23, to be held at the clubhouse.

GOLD STAR MOTHERS HOST RECENT LUNCHEON

The Roseburg Chapter of American Gold Star Mothers and guests enjoyed a noon luncheon at the Swedish Dining Room Tuesday.

Guests present were: Dovie Farnsworth, state president; Leona Baker, first vice president; Edna Castle, second vice president; Aris McChesney, parliamentarian; Barbara Brumbach, formerly state hospital chairman; Mrs. Antonia Hansen, Mrs. McChesney and Mr. Farnsworth.

Roseburg Chapter members present were Mrs. Merle Doering, Martha Ball, Mary LaPrath, Iva Van Nooy, Nora Gaedecke and Lucie Cloake.

Following the luncheon and social hour, a business meeting was conducted by Merle Doering, president of the local chapter.

MR. AND MRS. IVER HILDE are pictured above following their marriage at high noon in the Church of the Immaculate Conception at Sutter Creek, Calif., Aug. 2. The bride, Janice Elaine Casagrande, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alton Casagrande of Sutter Creek and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hilde of Roseburg. (Picture by Hangtown Studio, Placerville, Calif.).

Miss Janice Elaine Casagrande became the bride of Iver Raymond Hilde Saturday, Aug. 2, during a high noon nuptial mass in the Church of the Immaculate Conception at Sutter Creek, Calif.

Father Niall Harrington was the celebrant and was assisted during the double ring ceremony by Right Rev. Monsignor Michael J. Kearney of Jackson.

The altar boys were Gary Juravich, David Casagrande, a cousin of the bride, Lloyd Oneto and Joseph Vasquez. Mrs. Faustino Esola was the soloist and Mrs. John Ratto was organist.

After the marriage ceremony and before the mass, the bride placed the heart of her bouquet at the shrine of the Blessed Mother while the soloist sang "On This Day, O Beautiful Mother."

At the end of the mass a cablegram from the Vatican City was read, bestowing the personal blessing of His Holiness, Pope Pius XII, upon Mr. and Mrs. Iver Hilde on the occasion of their marriage.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of imported Italian silk fashioned with a full skirt ending in a chapel train and featuring a scoop neckline edged with embroidered padded roses, the snug fitting bodice having cap sleeves. Her shoulder-length veil fell from a narrow tucked band. She carried an arrangement of white baby roses and white bouvardia on a white prayer book which was the gift from a friend, Helen Richards, when she received her first communion as a child.

Other touches of sentiment were the traditional blue garter, long white gloves belonging to a friend recently married, a sixpence tucked in her shoe and a handkerchief trimmed with tatted made by her cousin, Mrs. Mary Meyer.

Her only attendant, Miss Nancy Derry of Atherton, Calif., and a Washington, D.C., and a college classmate, was clad in a white lace dress over blue taffeta. She wore a matching blue veil headpiece and carried a shower bouquet of white roses.

The benedict, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hilde of Roseburg, was attended by his brother, Mike, also of Roseburg. Ushers were the bride's cousin, Jack M. Casagrande and Richard Vukovich of Sutter Creek.

Mrs. Alton Casagrande, mother of the bride, was escorted to her seat of honor wearing a sheath dress of champagne Italian silk organza with matching accessories. A white rose corsage completed her costume.

For her son's wedding, Mrs. Hilde donned a navy blue sheath dress trimmed in white lace. Her accessories were navy and she wore a corsage of white roses.

Arrangements of white gladioli and white chrysanthemums decorated the altar of the church. Flanking the outside doors of the church were two tall rose trees bearing white roses which were made by the bride's mother.

Following the ceremony, the bridal party and guests gathered in the spacious gardens at the home of Mrs. B. C. Clark. A three-tiered decorated cake made by Mrs. Lawrence Oneto was placed on the bride's table which was covered with a lace tablecloth loaned to the bride for the occasion by Mrs. George H. Chisom.

Miss Mary McCrystle, life-long friend of the bride, circulated the guest book.

Refreshments were served buffet style in the shade of the beautiful arbor, guests enjoying the refreshments under the many colorful umbrellas which had been placed on the spacious lawn.

The newlyweds left for a honeymoon at Carmel and Palm Springs. For her traveling attire the bride wore a black and white suit of imported cotton with a white sailor-type hat, black accessories and a corsage of white roses.

The new Mrs. Hilde is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alton Casagrande of Sutter Creek and the maternal granddaughter of Mrs. Curtis Begovich of Plymouth. She is a graduate of the Amador County High School, attended the College of Notre Dame at Belmont and was graduated from the University of California at Berkeley. Since her graduation she has been on the staff in the business office of the college at Berkeley.

Mr. Hilde was graduated from Roseburg High School, served for three years in the U.S. Army and attended Southern Oregon College for a time. He is now employed in the laboratory of the Standard Oil Co. refinery at Richmond, Calif.

The young couple will reside in Berkeley where they will be at home to their friends at Stuart and Piedmont streets.

Before her marriage, the bride was honored at several showers, two in Berkeley by her co-workers, one in Atherton by her Notre Dame classmates and another in Sutter Creek.

MISS JANET RUMMEL, above, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Rummel, of Roseburg, is spending her leave here visiting her parents, after having completed her basic training at the WAF Lackland Air Force Base in San Antonio, Texas, and is now Airman A/3. After her visit here, she will go to Charleston, S. C., for personnel work and training. Her parents will take her to Portland next Tuesday, at which time she will board a plane for South Carolina. Jan was graduated from Roseburg Senior High in June, after which she enlisted in the WAF. (Picture by Chris of Photo Lab).
