West Germany Shies At Khrushchev's Plan

BONN, Germany (AP) — West Germany told Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev Monday that his proposal for a European friendship treaty should be discussed at a Big Four summit meeting.

To handle the question any other way would be an unnecessary complication in East-West exchanges, said a West German note to Moscow published here today.

GOOD IDEA

Farmer Max Humphreys of Leakesville, N.C., had trouble with cannibalism among his young chickens, or pullets. He installed a cooling system in their pens. Now they don't get irritated by the heat and peck each other to death.
