

AAWU Rules Set; Roster Stays At 4

SEATTLE (AP)—The door to the Big Four's little new athletic home in the West is unlatched, but so far nobody has knocked.

George Briggs, athletic director at the University of Washington, outlined the rules of the "Athletic Assn. of Western Universities" at a Monday news conference.

One provision, he pointed out, says "new members may be admitted to the association by unanimous vote of the members."

These are UCLA, California, Washington and Southern California. There have been no other applications as yet. The quartet agreed to "schedule each other annually on a home-and-home basis in football, basketball, and to the extent feasible in other sports."

There is nothing in the articles of confederation to prevent any Big Four member from scheduling any non-member school.

While the association has eliminated money from the aid-to-athletes picture—as far as the athletes themselves are concerned—there is not a large difference between the new rule and the old Pacific Coast Conference play-for-pay regulation.

The athlete in the Big Four may work 250 hours a school year for his room and board. The maximum work limit was approximately the same in the PCC, the athlete receiving $2 per hour which was to pay his room and board. In both cases the school had permission to underwrite the boy's tuition and compulsory fees.

The articles say an athlete must give "evidence of need," but do not provide a dictionary explanation of the word.

There is no police system provided under the articles. Briggs said adherence to the rules would be left to the integrity of the individual schools. Any differences of opinion are to be worked out between the two (or more) schools involved.

Although the Big Four does not begin operation until 1959, such a difference cropped up this week. UCLA accused California Monday of illegal recruiting. The two schools are discussing the matter.

On eligibility, the association insists only that an athlete earn the basic number of degree credits each term required of all students. Transfer students from other four-year colleges will lose one year of eligibility, as they do in the still-existent but not-long-for-this-world PCC.

Any matters not covered by the agreement are to be handled un-

Qualifying Tests Start For Big Holiday Race

DARLINGTON, S. C. (AP)—A score of drivers will gun speedily stock cars around the mile and three-eighths oval at Darlington Raceway today in the start of qualifying tests for Monday's Southern 500.

At stake in the opening day qualifying trials are the first five starting spots in the big Labor Day race.

der rules of the National Collegiate Athletic Assn., Briggs said.

The Rose Bowl football game is not mentioned as such in the articles. One provision, however, says any member who participates in a post-season game must give up the net profits equally with the other three. The Rose Bowl team from the west will come from the PCC this season and a formula is being worked out by PCC schools to select the 1960 team.

Beyond that game, nobody knows.

Portlander Lands Walker Cup Berth

MEMPHIS (AP)—Bruce Cudd, former Walker Cup player from Portland, Ore., gained a berth in the national amateur golf tournament Tuesday.

He tied with Curtis Person of Memphis at 148 in qualifying play, and got the berth even though Person defeated him in a playoff. After winning, Person decided his business commitments would keep him from going to the tournament, so bowed out in favor of Cudd.

Cudd, who reached the semi-finals of the national amateur in 1953, is in the Navy at Clarksburg, Tenn.

Turley Loses Stride In Pre-Game Warmup

NEW YORK (AP)—An added pre-game warm up almost cost Bob Turley his 19th victory Tuesday night.

The New York Yankee ace finally put it away with a 6-2 decision over Kansas City. He took his regular warm up in the Yankee bullpen, because of a local boys group game played before the Yankee-A's game.

Then he worked for five minutes on the regular warm-up slab next to home plate. That also is raised and he found his stride hitting the ground "before I expected it and I jarred my back."

Yost Leads Qualifiers In NW For National Am

PORTLAND (AP)—Dick Yost, former Walker Cupper who twice has gone to the quarter-finals of the national amateur golf tournament, again leads the sectional qualifiers for that tournament.

He shot a 73-67-140, four under par at the Columbia-Edgewater Country Club, Tuesday as eight players qualified.

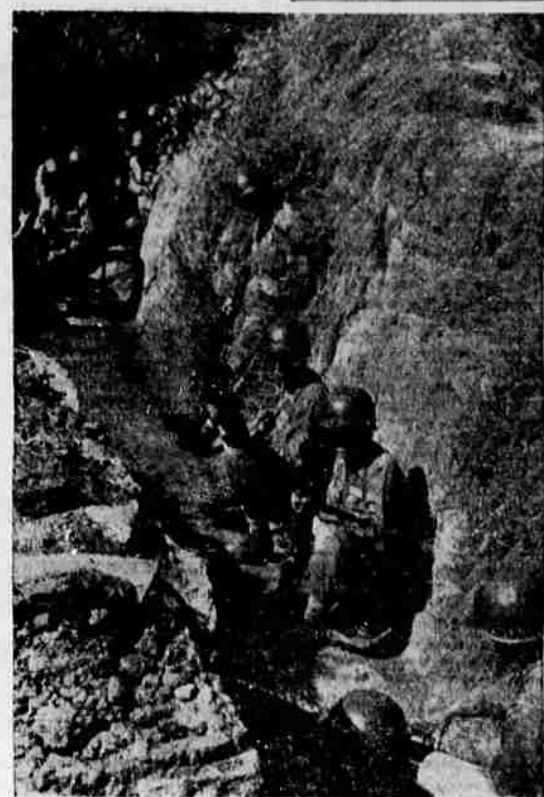

Five players were tied at 145, including Biff Lovett, Oregon Junior champion from Portland who recently finished third in the Jaycee International Junior tournament.

YOUNGSTER HITS MIDDLEBORO, Mass. (AP)—Here is a slugging feat Ted Williams or Mickey Mantle would be proud of.

Ed Black, 12-year-old shortstop for the Veterans of Foreign Wars team in the local Little League, drove in 14 runs Thursday night with four home runs and a single.

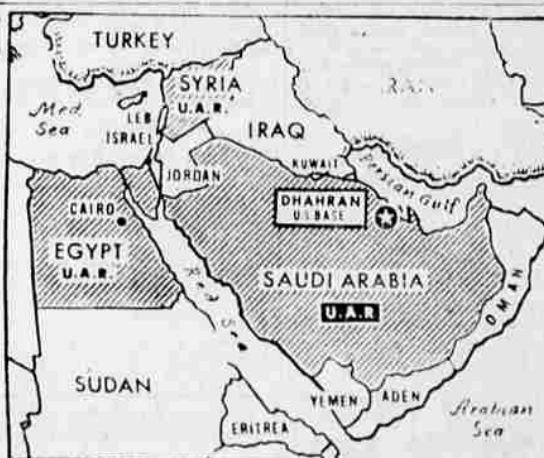

CHILD BRIDE—Twelve-year-old Mrs. Edna Clary Stidham is shown at the home of her grandmother after her mother and bridegroom were arrested in San Antonio, Tex., on charges of contributing to the delinquency of a minor. Her mother, Mrs. Merriam Clary, 33, approved Edna's marriage to ex-convict Mackley Stidham, 25.
