Miss Nancy Bridges of Portland was a guest Tuesday night of the Rev. and Mrs. John M. Goss. She made the trip here in company with the Rev. and Mrs. Roland Hood and Mrs. Sylvia Wilson, also of Portland, who were here on business.

Roy Smith, who underwent spinal surgery at Sacred Heart Hospital in Eugene Aug. 7, was brought back to his home in Roseburg to convalesce Monday by Leonard Delaney of this city. Mr. Smith entered the hospital Aug. 9 and a week later had the surgery. He is reported to be getting along satisfactorily.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gordon have left to spend a few days in Portland visiting friends. They also plan to make a trip to the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Griffin and daughter, Louise, have returned from a vacation trip to California. They visited in Van Nuys with Mrs. Griffin's mother, Mrs. C. A. White, and with other relatives; in Monterey Park with Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Korte, former residents of Roseburg; and in El Monte with family members. They returned to Roseburg via Crater Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Lehmann of Eureka, Calif., and their grandson, Brian Lehman, of Sacramento, Calif., left Tuesday for their homes, following a visit here with Mrs. Lehmann's brothers, Clifford and Harold McKay, and their families. Mr. and Mrs. Lehman had been on a trip to Great Falls, Mont., where they were met by their grandson, Brian Lehman, who was returning from a trip to Omaha, Neb., where he had spent his vacation visiting his parents.

Major and Mrs. Ed Luttrell and son, Eddie, of Tacoma, are in Roseburg visiting Mrs. Luttrell's mother, Mrs. Howard Fry, and other relatives and friends. Mrs. Luttrell is the former Althea LaRaut of this city.

Mrs. J. B. Bailey is back at her home in Roseburg, following three weeks in Juneau, Alaska, visiting her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bailey, and family. Ralph was transferred to Juneau from Portland by the Forest Service. Mrs. Bailey made the trip by United Airlines and North Pacific Airlines. She reports everyone seemed to be excited about statehood. A highlight of her stay in Juneau was being invited by acting Governor Wayne Hendrickson to a reception honoring outgoing Governor Mike Steppovich at the Governor's mansion. The huge arrangement of blue flowers centering the dining table was sent by the Governor of Massachusetts for the reception. Mrs. Bailey reports Alaska is even more beautiful than she had imagined and that she enjoyed the trip immensely.

Robert Savage and Edwin Myers of this city spent the last couple of days fishing at the coast.
