White gladioli and white asters were used to decorate the altar of the First Presbyterian Church Thursday, Aug. 21, when Miss Elizabeth (Peggy) Williams of Spokane, Wash., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emery Williams of Roseburg, became the bride of Frank Tremel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lehn of Camas, Wash. One hundred fifty relatives and friends were present for the 7 p.m. ceremony performed by the Rev. John E. Adams, soloist, sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied by Mrs. Homer Grow at the organ. Emery Williams gave his daughter in marriage. She looked lovely in a white silk brocade sheath dress with overskirt. She wore a shoulder-length veil and carried a bouquet of red roses. She was attended by her sisters, Patricia and Gladys Williams, who wore blue silk brocade sheath dresses and carried white carnation bouquets. Robert Simonsen acted as best man and ushers were Woodrow J. Wilson and Delton Walker.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Williams wore a blue silk print frock with matching hat and white gloves. Mrs. Lehn wore a powder blue hat to match her lace dress, and white gloves. The bride's parents and ladies of the church gave a reception for the young couple following the ceremony. Those who assisted with the decorations, flowers and reception were Mrs. Duke Saittem, Mrs. Jack Chapman, Mrs. Richard Hoskins, Mrs. Glen Anderson, Mrs. John Howe, Mrs. Robert Blackwell,

Mrs. George Farrell and Mrs. Lloyd Meyers. The bride's aunt, Mrs. Vivian Heater, cut the cake, assisted by Mrs. John Ascott. Mrs. Woodrow Wilson and Mrs. John Adams served punch. Mrs. Delton Walker had charge of the guest book and Mrs. Weston Hurd and Miss Shirley Ann Hall received the gifts. The newlyweds left immediately for Spokane where the bride is employed as a teacher in the Spokane city school system. The bride attended Roseburg High School and the bridegroom attended Santa Ana High School in California. Both attended Whitworth College in Spokane. The bridegroom will continue there as a student. Here from out of town to attend the wedding were the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lehn, Camas, Wash.; the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Wiloughby, Rogue River, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Myers, Vancouver, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Vern E. Williams and daughter, Jean, Eugene; and Mr. and Mrs. Lee A. Williams, Sutherlin.

TO BE BRIDE—Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Alberti announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Lee, to Bill Wayne Starnes, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Starnes. Mary Lee attended Oregon State College and is now employed by Ken Bailey's Insurance. Bill is employed at the Douglas County Shop. The wedding will take place Oct. 18 at Castle Rock, Wash., Methodist Church at 8 p.m. (Picture by Wilson Studio).

THE SEVENTH-day Adventist Church at Lake Tahoe, Calif., was the setting Sunday evening, July 6, for the lovely but simple candlelight wedding of Lois Ann Olson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Olson, 1332 NW Harlan St., Roseburg, and Byron DuWayne Stevenson, son of Mrs. Aldena Packwood and the late Robert Stevenson of Nevada City, Calif. Elder Carrol Phillips from the Seventh-day Adventist Conference office in Reno officiated. The couple cuts the traditional first piece of wedding cake at the reception in the picture above.

ELKTON LAD CELEBRATES EIGHTH BIRTHDAY—Eric Albrow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Albrow of Elkton, celebrated his eighth birthday Monday at a family picnic on Lukesinger Creek. Mrs. Harold Albrow, Mrs. Norman Weatherly and Mrs. Winnie Thompson of Wilbur were guests.

ONE OF THE LOVELIEST WEDDINGS of the summer season took place at the First Methodist Church Friday, Aug. 1, at 8 p.m. when Darlene Jane Telford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Telford, became the bride of Clive Kent Purvine, son of Mr. and Mrs. Winston D. Purvine of Klamath Falls. The Rev. James Jenkins performed the impressive double ring ceremony in the presence of 150 guests. (Picture by Wilson Studio).

About 125 guests were present including the bride's parents and the bridegroom's mother. The church was tastefully decorated with candles and large bouquets of white gladioli. Each pew was set off by a small white wedding bell tied with white ribbon. Mrs. Don Hull, wife of the local pastor, provided the traditional wedding music before the ceremony and accompanied Connie Sherman as she sang "God Gave Me You" and Ronnie Patterson who sang "The Lord's Prayer." Miss Sherman and Mr. Patterson were schoolmates of the bride.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in her hair-length gown of white French nylon lace fashioned with long sleeves, scalloped neckline and a large lace bow at the back. Her crown of seed pearls topped her elbow-length veil. She carried a bouquet of white carnations centered by a white orchid which became her going-away corsage.

The bride's sister, Donna Olson, Roseburg, served as maid of honor. Her semi-formal length dress was of blue net over taffeta. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations. Bridesmaids were Danelle Nevis of El Tahoe and Sharon Martin of Burbank, Calif. Miss Nevis' dress was of pink chiffon, her bouquet of pink carnations. Miss Martin's dress of yellow net was matched by her bouquet of yellow carnations. Miss Martin was the bride's roommate at boarding school.

The bride's mother wore a pink lace dress with pink and white accessories, while the bridegroom's mother wore a dress of navy blue, also enhanced by pink and white accessories. Each wore a white gardenia corsage. Terry Nevis, El Tahoe, carried the minister's Bible on a pillow of white satin. Elaine Neudeck, also from El Tahoe, dressed in blue, carried a white basket from which she scattered pink rose petals along the pathway of the bride. Candelabras were LaVerna Olson, sister of the bride, wearing pink, and Condon Davidson.

Harl J. Stevenson, brother of the bridegroom, acted as best man. His cousin, Robert Burt, and Don Sauer were the ushers. A reception for the young couple was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Nevis, El Tahoe, where the bride has made her home for the past four years. A beautiful large wedding cake decorated with white icing and pink roses was served to the guests.

Special guests were the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Olson and her sisters, Donna and LaVerna, Roseburg; another sister, Mrs. Eleanor Lawson, Butte Falls; the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Aldena Packwood; his brother, Harley Stevenson, Nevada City, Calif.; Fred Elbin, the bride's eighth grade teacher, and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Rockoff, special friends of the bride.

For her going-away ensemble the bride wore a light blue and gray suit with pink accessories. Her corsage was the orchid from her bridal bouquet. After a short wedding trip the young people are making their home at Weimar, Calif. Lois, a former student of Roseburg Junior Academy, was graduated from Lodi Academy in California in May. The bridegroom, a graduate of Monterey Bay Academy, has attended Sierra College one year, majoring in business administration.

Candelabra holding tall white candles and baskets of white and pink gladioli formed the altar decorations, while the aisle pews were marked with white ribbons.

Mrs. Myrtle Burr, organist, played softly as the guests assembled and accompanied Harold Mobley, who sang, "O Promise Me" and "The Lord's Prayer," as the bride and bridegroom knelt at the altar. Mrs. Burr played the Recital Chorus from Lohengrin for the bridal party to advance to the altar and at the close of the ceremony played Mendelssohn's Wedding Reformation.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was beautiful in a ballerina wedding gown of satin with an overdress of lace fashioned with a scalloped square neckline and a butterfly bow at the back waistline and long sleeves coming to a point over the wrists. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a tiara of orange blossoms. She wore white satin shoes and carried a bouquet of white gladioli and red roses atop a white Bible.

Mrs. George Winterfeld was matron of honor and wore a pastel blue taffeta gown fashioned with a full skirt. She carried dark pink gladioli arranged in a cascade bouquet. Bridesmaids were Miss Carolyn Crimmins and Miss Mary Ann Spancace, who wore gowns designed to match the matron of honor's. They carried cascade bouquets of light pink gladioli. All wore matching headbands and gloves.

Miss Laurie Niebaum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Niebaum, was flower girl. She carried a white basket of rose petals and wore a pink nylon dress and white hat, gloves and shoes. Marvin Husen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kleth Husen, was ringbearer. Claude Kelley of Sacramento, Calif., was best man and Earl Telford, brother of the bride, and Lillian Purvine of Klamath Falls, brother of the bridegroom, were ushers.

A wedding reception followed in the church social hall. The bride's table, covered by a beautiful lace cloth, was centered with the pink and white frosted cake topped by pink wedding bells and decorated with roses and swans, flanked by crystal candelabra holding tall white tapers. Miss Merritt Burt, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. George Nichols, aunt of the bride, served the wedding cake. Mrs. Willys Insley, sister of the bride, served the punch and Mrs. Russell Steinhauer poured the coffee. Mrs. Ted Insley had charge of the guest book. Miss Marla Burt, cousin of the bride, passed the rice bags. Miss Georgia Friend served the bridegroom's cake to the many guests.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Telford chose a turquoise blue sheath dress with white hat and accessories. Her corsage was of baby white gladioli. The bridegroom's mother chose a pink lace sheath dress with matching hat of feathers. Her corsage was of baby white gladioli.

For traveling the bride chose a sheath dress of beige with matching shoes and handbag and white hat and gloves. Mr. and Mrs. Purvine will be at home to their friends at 3021 Vee Street, Apt. 7, Sacramento.

The bride was graduated from Roseburg High School in 1956 and attended Northwest Air College in Spokane, Wash. She was employed in Klamath Falls before her marriage.

The bridegroom was graduated from Klamath Union High School in 1953 and attended Oregon State College for one year before entering the army. He received his discharge and entered Oregon Technical Institute and was graduated June 7 this year, receiving an associate in applied science degree in structural design. He is now employed as engineering technician by Arojet General in Sacramento.

Out of town guests coming for the wedding were Helga and Monica Muller of Chicago, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. George Wilcox, Oakland; Mrs. Russell Steinhauer, Myrtle Creek; Mr. and Mrs. John Howard, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Julius Purvine, Corvallis; John Hobson, Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Dave Purvine, Albany; and Mr. and Mrs. Jesse A. Crabtree, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Smith and Bill; Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Pedersen and Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Grewell, all of Klamath Falls.
