Zonta Holds Meeting, Postpones Business

The first Zonta meeting of the season was held Wednesday at the home of Arlene Myers in Garden Valley. Few members were present, so it was decided to postpone most of the business until the next meeting which will be at the Roseburg Woman's clubhouse on Mosher St., Wednesday, Sept. 24.

The club decided to send a delegate to the regional conference in Boise, Oct. 23-25.

The program for the meeting was in the form of true and false questions about various facts of the nature of Zonta. Following there was a discussion of forthcoming programs in which the by-laws of Zonta will be taken up at each meeting and explained so that each member will have a clearer understanding of the business procedure of Zonta.

GREEN PTA TO GATHER

The first regular meeting of the Green School PTA will be held at Green School Monday at 8 p.m. Sixteen teachers will be honored. Refreshments will be served by the executive board.
