

MR. AND MRS. JOHN HAROLD ROBINSON JR. are pictured above following their marriage at Trinity Episcopal Church in Los Angeles Aug. 30. The bride, Charlene Fay Gault, of Los Angeles, is the daughter of Mrs. Roy Hannawell and the late Mr. Hannawell of Long Beach, Calif. The bridegroom is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Robinson Sr. of Roseburg. Mr. Robinson Sr. acted as best man for his son at the wedding.

A wedding of much interest to many friends in Roseburg took place Aug. 30 at Trinity Episcopal Church in Los Angeles, when Charlene Fay Gault and John Harold Robinson Jr., both of that city, were married at an impressive service performed at 4:30 p.m. by the Rev. John Sanford, rector of the church, in the presence of 30 guests. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Roy Hannawell and the late Mr. Hannawell of Long Beach, Calif. The bridegroom is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Robinson Sr. of Roseburg.

Tall baskets of white gladioli were arranged before the church altar. The altar bouquets were of white chrysanthemums. The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Richard Hannawell, of Anaheim, Calif., was charming in an afternoon gown of green chiffon styled by Don Leger and fastened with the very full skirt with waves of tulle and lace. She wore full-length tulle gloves and a full veil held in place by bands of green velvet. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and gladioli. Her only jewelry was a pearl and silver necklace, the gift of the bridegroom.

Miss Linda Hannawell of Long Beach was maid of honor for her sister and wore an afternoon gown of pink tulle over tulle and carried a cascade bouquet of American Beauty roses. John H. Robinson Sr. acted as best man for his son and Lee Allen Beaver and Charles Geoffrey Hillen, both of Los Angeles, were ushers.

THE TRADITIONAL FIRST PIECE of wedding cake was cut by the bride and bridegroom, Sally Jean Walker and John Gerald Westermann, at the reception following their marriage Aug. 23 at the home of the bride. The Rev. John E. Adams, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church performed the impressive ceremony at 2 p.m. in the presence of 18 guests. (Picture by Chris of Photo Lab.)

Miss Sally Jean Walker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Walker of this city, and John Gerald Westermann of Carlton, Ore., were married at a charming ceremony Saturday, Aug. 23, at the home of the bride's parents at 651 Balif St. The Rev. John Adams performed the 2 p.m. service before close friends and relatives of the couple.

A reception followed in Trinity Parish Hall. The bride's table, covered by a beautiful white cloth, was centered with an arrangement of pink summer blossoms. Miss Helen May Moyer and Miss Madeline Miller, both of Los Angeles, assisted in serving the cake. Presiding at the punch bowl were Mrs. Charles M. Ari of Pasadena and Miss Michael Duffy of Duane, Calif.

For traveling the bride chose a coral silk dress with black and white bag and white hat and gloves. Immediately following the reception, the couple left on a time weeks honeymoon trip to Northern California. Upon their return to Los Angeles, they will reside at 5667 W. Fifth St.

The new Mrs. Robinson was graduated from Seward High School in Long Beach and attended University of California in Los Angeles. She is employed as a personal interviewer by the Southern California Gas Co. The bridegroom was graduated from Roseburg High School, University of California in Santa Barbara, and the Institute of Political Studies of the University of Paris, France. He is employed by Shell Oil Co. in Los Angeles as assistant southwestern public relations representative.

Coming from out of town for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tucker, Medford; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Blum, Tillamook; and Miss Lucie Demare and Robert Dugan, Portland.

The newlyweds honeymooned at Diamond and Crater lakes and will be at home to friends in Portland after Sept. 15.

The bride was graduated from Medford High School and from Providence School of Nursing. The bridegroom was graduated from McMinnville High School and will be a senior student at Portland University. He has been employed by Roseburg Sand and Gravel for the summer.

Family Reunion Held At Coos Bay Sunday

A most enjoyable family reunion took place Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Galla in Coos Bay. Attending the affair were Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Stubbs and Jack and Charlene, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Thrasher and Debbie, all of Roseburg; Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Rader and Terry; Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Galla and Richard; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Galla and David, all of Sutherlin; Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Galla and Marilyn of Winnetka; Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Field and Judy; and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Galla, of Coos Bay.

Special Service Held For Victim of Tragedy

Beverly McMurry, whose marriage to Truman Gunn was scheduled for Friday evening at the Canyonville Methodist Church, was the guest of honor at a miscellaneous bridal shower given Tuesday evening at the home of Nadine Fuller, with Mrs. Larry Fuller and Mrs. Jim Cusick co-hostesses.

A doll model of Miss McMurry in her bridal gown formed the centerpiece of the refreshment table. Guests included Mrs. Howard Royce, Louise Stiller, Florene Richardson, Fern Wells, Mrs. Roger Richards, Mrs. Bob Bailey, Viola Ford, Gloria Johnson, Carol Brinkworth, Mrs. Jack Smith and Mrs. Keith Johnson.

THE WEDDING OF Judy N. Brown, daughter of Mrs. Gladys Thompson of Four Mile, Ore., and James E. Witzel, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Witzel of Drain, took place Aug. 28 at 8 p.m. at the Methodist Church in Drain with the Rev. Ellery Echlin officiating. The bride and bridegroom are pictured above following the marriage ceremony. (Picture by Clark's Studio, Cottage Grove.)

The Drain Methodist Church was the scene Thursday, Aug. 28, of the double ring ceremony uniting in marriage Miss Judy N. Brown, daughter of Mrs. Gladys Thompson of Four Mile, Ore., and James E. Witzel of Drain. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Gladys Thompson of Four Mile; the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Witzel of Drain. One hundred guests were present for the 8 p.m. service read by the Rev. Ellery Echlin, pastor of the church.

Baskets of pale pink gladioli and fern and candelabra holding white candles formed an attractive background for the ceremony. Organist Bessie Jasser played the wedding music and accompanied Doris Kohn who sang "Because" and Jim Whipple who sang "The Lord's Prayer."

Everett Wait, the bride's brother-in-law, gave her in marriage. She was lovely in a gown of white tulle with lace and nylon net over net and tulle and a finger ring of silk and seed pearls. Her wedding bouquet was a white orchid.

Jeanette Thompson of Langlois was maid of honor, wearing a frock of yellow flannel nylon over tulle with tulle and tulle and wearing a corsage of pale yellow chrysanthemums. Bridesmaids Nancy Vost and Bonnie Stankovitch wore pale blue flannel nylon over tulle with braided tulle coronets and white chrysanthemum corsages. Kay Marie Wait, junior bridesmaid, wore yellow flannel nylon over tulle with matching coronet and a small wrist corsage of white chrysanthemums. Phyllis Bates and Lucretia Dodge were candlelighters. Warren Witzel acted as best man for his brother. Ushers were Jim Whipple and Jay Stone, Roseburg, nephews of the bridegroom.

At the reception following the ceremony, Mrs. June Rader, cousin of the bride, cut and served the cake. Mrs. Patsy Wait, sister of the bride, served the punch and Sophia Stone, sister of the bridegroom, poured coffee.

The couple left immediately for Little Rock AFB in Arkansas where the bridegroom is stationed with the air force. For traveling, the new Mrs. Witzel wore a white ruffled cord three-piece suit with white accessories and white orchid corsage. Mr. and Mrs. Witzel are now at home at 639 West Hill, Jacksonville, Ark.

Coming from out of town to attend the wedding were Mrs. Gladys Thompson and son, David, of Four Mile; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Scheerer, Tacoma, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Laird, Stevenson, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. James Gregerson, Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. Mel Stewart and Mrs. Earl Radway Springfield; Mr. and Mrs. Phil Varley, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Gates, Mr. and Mrs. Loran Levings, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Levings, and Mrs. Lora Levings, all of Cottage Grove; James Levings, U.S. Air Force, Spokane, Wash.; Jim Cook and Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Stone and son, Roseburg; Mr. and Mrs. Sam Witzel and son, Eugene, Calif.; and Tim Ellis, Yoncalla.

FAITH LUTHERAN CHURCH was the scene of a very beautiful wedding Saturday, Sept. 6, when Miss Charlotte Huff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Huff of Michigan City, Ind., became the bride of Darrell Maddox of Roseburg, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Maddox of Long Beach, Calif. The Rev. Lester Olson, pastor of the church, performed the impressive ceremony at 7:30 p.m. in the presence of 125 guests. (Picture by Chris of Photo Lab.)

Marriage vows were exchanged Saturday, Sept. 6, at the Faith Lutheran Church by Miss Charlotte Huff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Huff of Michigan City, Ind., and Darrell Maddox of Roseburg, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Maddox of Long Beach, Calif. The Rev. Lester Olson, pastor of the church, performed the impressive ceremony at 7:30 p.m. in the presence of 125 guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul T. Huff of Michigan City, Ind. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Maddox of Long Beach. Beautiful baskets of white gladioli and greenery provided an effective background for the impressive ceremony. Tall candelabra holding white candles provided the lighting for the nuptial service as did single tapers on the altar. The church windows were illuminated with single tapers in crystal holders.

Mrs. Arlo Jacklin was organist, playing the traditional wedding procession and recessional and accompanying the Rev. Mr. Olson as he sang "The Wedding Prayer." Anthony Maylock of Portland gave the bride in marriage. She was charming in a dainty gown of white Chantilly lace fashioned with a fitted bodice and ballerina-length bouffant skirt with scalloped hemline. The bodice had a semi-bateau scalloped neckline and long fitted sleeves with tiny satin-bound buttons. Her tiara of seed pearls and sequins held in place the short scalloped veil of imported silk illusion. She carried a nosegay bouquet of pink rubrum lilies.

Mary L. Richards of Long Beach was matron of honor. Her dress of shrimp pink chiffon was designed with a full skirt and fitted bodice with a satin cummerbund effect at the waist and a V neckline. She wore a pink Juliet cap and carried white flowers. Duane Shrum of Glendale acted as best man for his cousin, Bob Clark and Bob Culbertson performed the ushering duties and lighted the candles before the ceremony.

Mrs. Huff, who came from Indiana for her daughter's wedding, was attractive in a beige linen frock with pink accessories. Her corsage was of rubrum lilies. Mrs. Maddox's flowers were white to accent her dress of mauve pink tulle styled with an overlay and tulle draped of chiffon. Her accessories matched her gown.

A reception in the church parlors followed the ceremony. The lace-covered table, resplendent with silver and crystal was dominated by the beautiful three-tiered all-white wedding cake. The cake, topped with wedding bells and the traditional bride and bridegroom figurines, was flanked by crystal holders holding white tapers. Mrs. Darwin Thompson presented the guest book. Mrs. Duane Shrum served the cake; punch and coffee were poured by Mrs. Bruce Hint and Mrs. Lew Roska. The Misses Marilyn and Donna Thompson had charge of the gift table.

Coming from out of town for the wedding besides the bridegroom's parents and the mother of the bride were: Mrs. Lew Roska and Mrs. Mary Louise Richards, Long Beach, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Howser, Los Angeles; Walter Howser, Redlands, Calif.; Mrs. C. Christopher and Mr. and Mrs. Roy McGuire, The Dalles; Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Maylock and Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Otey, Portland; Evelyn W. LaFollette, Corvallis; May Jett Stearns, Bellingham, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. George Crenshaw and Kathy Drain; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hoaglin, Vancouver, Wash.; Mrs. Mans Anderson, Jamestown, Kans.; Mr. and Mrs. Mickey Youngblood, Port Townsend; and Mrs. Jack Stone, Eugene.

The young people are honeymooning in Washington State and the Olympic Peninsula and will be at home at 384 SE Ella Street after Sept. 16. For traveling, the bride chose a black and white checked suit with red accessories.

The bride attended College of Puget Sound in Tacoma, Wash. She worked at the V.A. Hospital here before leaving to take the post of occupational therapist at Long Beach General Hospital.

The bridegroom attended San Diego State College and is presently employed on the news staff of The News-Review.

FIRST FALL MEETING HELD BY SORORITY Alpha Chi Chapter, ESA, held its first fall meeting Wednesday evening at the lovely home of Mrs. Lyle Quist on Nash Street.

Mrs. Don Starnier distributed the new year books and Mrs. Floyd Walker and Mrs. Jack Fread outlined the rush and educational programs.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Quist and Mrs. Dick Gadow, to Mrs. Don Starnier, Mrs. Jack Fread, Mrs. Bill Hallcraft, Mrs. Joe Scallan, Mrs. Ronald Oiler, Mrs. Bob Murphy, Mrs. Floyd Walker, Mrs. John Jones, Mrs. Ken Harrison, Mrs. Leon Hughes and Mrs. Dick Hanlin.

The next meeting will be the Mad Hatter party Sept. 18 at the home of Mrs. Ken Harrison.

BAIRD FAMILY REUNION HELD SUNDAY AT PARK Members of the Baird family enjoyed a reunion Sunday at Umpqua Park.

Present to enjoy the day were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Baird, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Baird, Mr. and Mrs. Don Baird, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Baird, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Isom, Mr. and Mrs. Carver Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Cole, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Baird and Pauline, Mrs. Martha Thompson, Martin Hommes, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Strickling and Linda, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Baird and family, Mrs. Dorothy Gillett and daughter, Mrs. Martha Lee and Janet.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Baird and four daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Blake Baird and family, Mr. and Mrs. Don Reed and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Stearns and three daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Baird and family, Mr. and Mrs. Joe James and family, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Hebard and baby, Lester Hebard and family, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Sutton and family, and JoAnn and Johnny Carlson.

Nurses and staff members at the Forest Glen Hospital in Canyonville joined in honoring Mrs. Lorraine Dickens of Glendale on her birthday recently, two days after her new baby daughter's arrival. Cake and ice cream were served and Mrs. Dickens was presented with a birthday congratulatory card.

GLENDALF WOMAN HONORED BY HOSPITAL STAFF Nurses and staff members at the Forest Glen Hospital in Canyonville joined in honoring Mrs. Lorraine Dickens of Glendale on her birthday recently, two days after her new baby daughter's arrival. Cake and ice cream were served and Mrs. Dickens was presented with a birthday congratulatory card.

It Pays To Patronize News-Review Advertisers Something New! "The Hat Box" at the HOUSE OF UNIFORMS Complete Selection of Fall Millinery 720 S. E. Main St. Across from Safeway Parking Lot.

NOTICE DEAR CUSTOMER: I wish to thank you for your kind consideration in making appointments scheduled for my convenience during my working hours, 9:00 to 1:00 a'clock, the past two months, due to illness. Starting next week the shop will be open as before to serve you from 9:00 to 1:00 a'clock during the week, Saturdays until noon. And thank you again. MABEL HILDE Petite Marie Beauty Salon 1000 W. Harvard Ave. Roseburg 2-0001

IN ONE OF THE loveliest weddings of the season, Miss Vera Aileen Palo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. Palo of Myrtle Creek, was united in marriage to Hugh William Hobart (Buck) Adams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Adams of Scappoose, Sept. 7 at the Tri-City Presbyterian Church with the Rev. J. Elbert Nash reading the sacred vows in the presence of 200 guests. (Picture by Warren Studio, Myrtle Creek.)

Portland were her bridesmaids. They wore gowns fashioned like the matron of honor's, and carried out the melon and white colored theme with bouquets of melon-colored chrysanthemums.

Miss Chris Kolb, niece of the bride, and Matt Kolb, nephew, of Wenatchee, were flower girl and ring bearer. Chris wore a peach-pink tufted nylon dress and carried a basket of melon-colored chrysanthemums.

Dennis Chamberlain, McMinnville, was best man. Ushers were Charles Fabscholtz, Salem; Larry Hall, Portland; Stewart Springer, Portland; and Tim Judges, Tahle-natch Lake.

Mrs. Stewart Springer of Portland sang, "I Love Thee" and "Lord's Prayer," accompanied at the organ by Frank Woolsey of Riddle.

The bride's mother wore a beige embroidered silk after-dinner dress with topaz jewelry and a band of orange-colored feathers for a headdress. She wore a corsage of melon-colored chrysanthemums. The bridegroom's mother wore a dark blue satin afternoon gown with a blue feathered headpiece and a corsage like Mrs. Kolb's.

A reception given by the bride's parents, immediately following the ceremony, was held for 200 hundred guests in the social room at the church.

Floral arrangements for the reception room and the main table were done by Mrs. Dale Sall of Myrtle Creek. The table was decorated with melon-colored chrysanthemums and green ivy. The four-tiered wedding cake was adorned with tallman roses and was set off by orange-colored begonias at the base.

Mrs. Jed Wilson, Seaside, and Mrs. Elvin Gustafson, Myrtle Creek, acted as the bride, cut and served the wedding cake. Mrs. Arthur Manners, Astoria, aunt of the bride, served punch and Mrs. Larry Hall, Portland, poured coffee.

Mrs. Henry Johansen, Medford, played the piano throughout the reception. Miss Joanne Shirriff attended the guest book while Mrs. Dennis Chamberlain and Miss Marjorie Musick attended the gift table.

The bride chose as her going away costume a royal blue chemise dress with black accessories. She wore a cymbidium orchid corsage. The couple left for Fort Benning, Ga., where they will make their home. Mr. Adams is reporting for duty as 2nd Lt. in the army. He was recently graduated from Oregon State College with a degree in business and technology. He also attended Culver Military Academy.

The bride, who lived with her family in Myrtle Creek for nine years, was graduated from Myrtle Creek High School. She is majoring in business education at Oregon State College and will continue her education by correspondence until mid-term when she will return and be graduated with her class.

The bridegroom was graduated from Myrtle Creek High School. He is majoring in business education at Oregon State College and will continue his education by correspondence until mid-term when she will return and be graduated with her class.