

TWO YOUNG ARTISTS appearing at the State Fair Saturday on the half-hour musical program under the direction of Stanley Butler of Willamette University, co-ordinator for the fair musical programs, were Barbara Gadow, above left, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Gadow, and piano student of Miss Gladys H. Strong, and at right, Peggy Ostrander, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ostrander, and piano student of Mrs. Jack Suksdorf, Aubrey Evans of Medford, vocal student of Mrs. Effie Kurtz, was the third guest artist from Southern Oregon on the program. Barbara played Dono in C Major by Beethoven and Prelude from the suite from Holberg's Time. Peggy played Minuet in D Minor by Bach, Wanderlust by Schubert and LePolichinelle by Villa-Lobos. Accompanying the two young artists to Salem were Miss Strong, Mrs. Suksdorf, Mrs. Charles Ostrander and daughters, Sharon and Penny, and Kenneth Quine. Barbara and Penny were chosen as a result of Syllabus examinations taken this spring. There were 71 young artists in Oregon taking part on the music programs at the fair and representing 17 communities. The programs took place in the Fine Arts Gallery at the fair. A VERY CHARMING VISITOR from England, Mrs. Frank Webster, above, is in Roseburg visiting her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Murdock Jr., and with her nephew, Chief of Police Vernon Murdock Jr., and his family. This is her first visit with her sister in 38 years. Mrs. Webster, who has been a widow for 23 years, was left with two daughters and three sons to rear. The oldest was 14 and the youngest 7. She owned a ladies tea shop and cafe at Warwickshire for 10 years and then owned a well-known country inn at Hampshire for 10 years. Because of ill health, she has been out of business for the last three years. She has a daughter living in Northern England and one in Southern England. Her son, John, is in London; Joe is in Toronto, Canada, and Richard is in Singapore. Mrs. Webster first came to Canada to visit her son, Joe, and his family, and then came to Roseburg. She is unusually kind in her remarks regarding liking this part of the country so much and stated that Oregon is much like England and if it were not for having her family in that country, she would be most content to reside here permanently. Mrs. Webster expects to spend several weeks visiting here. (Picture by Chris of Photo Lab).

ARRIVING HERE from Fort Polk, La., to visit, are Mr. and Mrs. William Hercher and son, Michael Kevin, who was born June 1. Mr. Hercher has just received his discharge from the army, after two years of service. Mrs. Hercher is the former Joyce Knudson and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Knudson of this city. Mr. Hercher is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Hercher of Roseburg. (Picture by Chris of Photo Lab).

OMSI Benefit Coffees To Be Held In Oregon

State wide interest in the Oregon Museum of Science and Industry will be heightened on Sept. 17, when hostesses all over Oregon will invite friends and neighbors to OMSI benefit "coffees." This is the second such event, with similar benefits last year raising $5000 for the new Museum.

Proclaimed as "OMSI Day" by Gov. Robert D. Holmes, the Sept. 17 observances are intended to increase knowledge of the Museum, one of three such institutions in the country, and also to aid in retiring the $150,000 building debt. Located on four scenic acres of park land overlooking the new Portland Zoo, just off Canyon Road, the Museum is a dynamic science center, with the theme, "Science is Fun." It is an educational, non-profit organization, built entirely by contributions.
