

THE RECEIVING LINE at the Roseburg Woman's Club guest-day tea held at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Micelli Tuesday afternoon is pictured above. Left to right, Mrs. Albert McBee, president; Mrs. Earl

Bleile, first vice president; Mrs. N. Charles Wallin, second vice president, and hostess, Mrs. Albert Micelli. (Picture by Harlan B. Carter).

ROSEBURG JUNIOR WOMEN'S CLUB members assisting at the charming guest-day tea of the Roseburg Woman's Club Tuesday afternoon at the Micelli home on Melrose road are pictured above. Left to right: Mrs. Norman

Bleakman, president; Mrs. Rollin Page, Mrs. George Stroop, Mrs. Harold Zurcher and Mrs. John Shirley. (Picture by Harlan B. Carter).

ENJOYING THE CHARMING guest-day tea of the Roseburg Woman's Club at the Albert Micelli home in the above picture are, seated: Mrs. H. E. Mowry, Mrs. E. L.

Knapp, Mrs. Huron Clough and Mrs. Harlan B. Carter. Standing are Mrs. A. H. Joeger, Mrs. Frank Ashley and the hostess, Mrs. Micelli. (Picture by Harlan B. Carter).

A charming event of the week took place at the beautiful home and garden of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Micelli on Melrose Road Tuesday afternoon, when members of the Roseburg Woman's Club entertained at the annual guest-day tea. Guests were invited to call between 1:30 and 4 p.m. The spacious gardens surrounding the beautiful home were greatly enjoyed as well as the many attractive arrangements of garden furniture. Both the dining room and the tea table in the garden were decorated with gorgeous arrangements of pale pink and deep lavender dahlias.

Mrs. N. Charles Wallin was chairman of the delightful affair. Mrs. Kenneth Ford and Mrs. Dale Williamson acted as membership captains. Mrs. H. B. Carter, Mrs. Otto Gossnell, Mrs. Al May and Mrs. A. G. McLean had charge of the guest book. Mrs. L. E. Nielsen and Mrs. O. J. Feldkamp arranged the beautiful decorations.

Mrs. Norman Bleakman headed the Junior Woman's Club members, which had charge of the punch. Pouring from 1:30 to 2 p.m. were Mrs. Frank Ashley and Mrs. Frederick J. Porter; from 2 to 2:30 were Mrs. Edwin G. Young and Mrs. J. M. Boyles; from 2:30 to 3 were Mrs. Kenneth Bushey and Mrs. Clyde W. Carstens; and from 3 to 3:30 were Mrs. R. L. Whipple and Mrs. Frank Ashley.

New officers of the club, Mrs.

Albert McBee, president, and Mrs. Earl Bleile, Mrs. N. Charles Wallin, second vice president, Mrs. Norman Bleakman, Mrs. Rollin Page, Mrs. George Stroop, Mrs. Harold Zurcher and Mrs. John Shirley. (Picture by Harlan B. Carter).

Tea committee hostesses besides Mrs. Wallin were Mrs. Albert Morene, Mrs. Dale Zeller, Mrs. Charles Stark, Mrs. Ernest Buell, Mrs. O. J. Feldkamp, Mrs. Kenneth Ford, Mrs. Dale Williamson, Mrs. T. L. Goodwin, Mrs. Forrest Holmes, Mrs. Ralph League, Mrs. O. D. Gossnell, Mrs. Al May, Mrs. L. E. Nielsen and Mrs. A. W. Rugg.

Enjoying the guest-day affair were Mrs. Albert McBee, Mrs. Elanor B. Rider of Los Angeles, Mrs. Dale Williamson, Mrs. Kenneth W. Ford, Mrs. Otto D. Gos-

NEW OFFICERS of St. George's Episcopal Guild are pictured above. Left to right: Mrs. George French, vice president; Mrs. Harry Jacoby, president; Mrs. L. W. Riley, treasurer; Mrs. Paul Barcus, secretary, and Mrs. Hazel

Black, corresponding secretary. The first fall luncheon meeting of the Guild was held Wednesday at the Parish Hall. (Picture by Chris of Photo Lab).

Mrs. Johnny Garrett and Mrs. J. M. Bevans will be the 1958 chairman of the Episcopal Guild bazaar of St. George's Episcopal Church, according to an announcement by the new Guild president, Mrs. Harry Jacoby.

Members were reminded that the United Thank offering will be taken at the next meeting. Those desiring blue boxes are asked to call the chairman, Mrs. Elton Jackson.

A rummage sale will be held Sept. 19-20 at the parish hall and donations will be picked up by calling the Small Stenographic Service at OR 2-3444.

Plans were made for a concert to be presented in October by Dorothy French, Mrs. John Pierce, Mrs. Curtis Beecher and Mrs. Arthur Clarke are in charge of the affair.

Members of the guild will sponsor a birthday party Monday at the VA Hospital.

Mrs. Alfred S. Tyson gave delightful excerpts of the Bishop Bayne Letters of the Olympic Diocese.

Members having books for the bazaar are requested to contact Mrs. John H. Robinson.

Delight Kim Marries Henry Choi In Sutherlin

A beautiful home wedding was solemnized at 8 p.m. recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Yo Han Kim in Sutherlin, when their youngest daughter, Delight, became the bride of Henry Choi of Wahiawa, Hawaii.

The home was decorated with tropical flowers flown in from Hawaii. The mantel and organ were covered with sprays of orchids and there were lovely arrangements of Anthuriums and Bird of Paradise throughout the house.

Virginia Robinson played the organ for the solos and also Lohengrin's Wedding March.

The parents of the bridegroom were seated by John Kiehm, brother of the bride, sister of the bride, the best man, Harry Choi, brother of the bridegroom. The bride entered on the arm of her father, who gave her away. Following the ceremony, Jack Veazey sang "My Wedding Prayer."

The bride was lovely in an organza gown, ballerina length, with bodice of Italian lace. Her fingertip veil was also of Italian lace. She wore mits and carried a cascade bouquet of white orchids. Her sister wore a gown of pastel turquoise crystallite and carried an identical bouquet in orchid colors.

A reception followed, at which time a beautiful two-tiered wedding cake was served with punch. The bride's going away costume was a two-piece dress in powder blue with black accessories. She wore a white orchid corsage. They took a short wedding trip up the coast and also attended the State Fair. They will spend several days with her parents before going to Los Angeles. From there, they will fly to Hawaii to make their home in Wahiawa.

Cut of town guests at the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Sun Choo Choi, parents of the bridegroom from Wahiawa; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Choi from Honolulu, brother of the bridegroom; Eudora Park, sister of Mrs. Harry Choi, from Honolulu; Amy Konya and Hilda Bloomquist of Los Angeles; Sue Findley and Don Jacobson of Loma Linda, Calif.; Faythe Peterson of Pomona, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Veazey and John Kiehm of Glendale, Calif.; and Marian Park of Portland.

FINISHES CHARM COURSE — Miss Char Lee Packer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Packer of Roseburg, has completed her course of study at the Marie Easterly Modeling and School of Charm in Portland, where she has spent the summer months. Char Lee is a senior at Roseburg High School. She plans to use the course with two groups during the school year.

Parade Of Parties To Be Held Sept. 24-25-26

Tickets are going fast for Mercy Hospital Auxiliary's annual Parade of Parties to be held Sept. 24-25-26, according to co-chairmen Miss Helen Casey and Mrs. Ray Carico. Committee chairmen and assisting hostesses are working hard to make this year's affairs as delightful and charming as those sponsored the last several years.

Five very beautiful homes have been chosen for this year's parties with the closing party to be a 7:30 p.m. dessert-supper, card party and the very much looked-forward-to annual fashion show to be presented by Mabel Lewis. Mrs. Harry LeBeau, daughter of Mrs. Lewis, will be fashion commentator of the show. Fall and winter styles will be presented by models selected for the show.

The first party will be Wednesday, Sept. 24, at a coffee at the home of Mrs. J. F. Dillard, 1193 Hawthorne Drive and that afternoon a tea will be held at the home of Mrs. Franklin Voyt, 1363 SE Overlook Ave. (Cars can park only on one side of Overlook Avenue and those attending will find it easiest to reach the Voyt home by going up SE Lane Street, turning left on to Terrace and Overlook.)

Thursday morning the coffee will be held at the home of Mrs. Charles S. Woodrich in Ridgewood and in the afternoon the tea will take place at the home of Mrs. Will H. Gerretsen, 823 SE Kane St.

Friday morning the coffee will be held at the home of Mrs. Bruce Briggs, just north of Myrtle Creek and that evening the fashion show and card party will be held at the Elks Terrace Ballroom. The public is invited to enjoy any or all of the benefit parties. Tickets may be secured from any auxiliary member or at the Chamber of Commerce office. Both men and women are invited to the card party and fashion show. Tickets for the latter party may be secured by making reservations with Mrs. Paul K. Ryan.

ATTENTION LADIES!

Build A Better Figure

Join special reducing club at Patterson's Slenderizing Studio or form your own club with your friends. Five members can make a club and you can reduce together and encourage each other. You can lose up to 3 inches off the hips in just one month, and a three months course will really change your figure. We have modern spot reducing equipment that really works for you. Open day and evening so you can arrange your time to suit your convenience. This club is just what you need to give you a new figure and better health. Call Patterson's Slenderizing Studio at OR 2-3423.

(Pd. Adv.)

GLENDAL CLUB HAS SOCIAL MEETING MONDAY

The Glendale Fast Makers Club met Monday evening, at the Masonic Temple. A social period was followed by refreshments served by Mrs. Mary LaPrath and Mrs. Nora Gaedecke.

Officers of the Eastern Star, who were holding a practice session at the hall, were invited to join the club for the refreshments.

INFORMAL BREAKFAST ENJOYED BY SORORITY

The home of Mrs. C. S. Wegher at Tri-City was the scene of a surprise "Come As You Are" breakfast held Wednesday by the Beta Sigma Phi sorority of Myrtle Creek. Mrs. J. E. Mellow and her social committee unexpectedly arrived at each sorority sister's door to deliver her "as she was" to the breakfast.

BEGINNERS SQUARE DANCE LESSONS

STARTING SEPT. 15 8 P.M.

INSTRUCTOR DUDE SIBLEY

Sponsored By

HAYLOFT SQUARE DANCE CLUB

PRESCHERN BARN

For information, please call OR 3-5635 or OR 3-5734