bridegroom; Marcia Bell, maid of honor; Bonnie Hensley, Carol Gaylord, Carol Furrer, bridesmaids; Kathy Winkel, guest book; ring bearer, Terry Harvey, and flower girl, Debbie Hensley. (Picture by Art French of Photo Lab).

The double ring ceremony was used Sunday, Aug. 31, when Miss Judith Gaye Hensley of Sutherlin and James Galasso of San Diego, Calif., repeated their wedding vows at 7 p.m. at St. George's Episcopal Church in Roseburg. Father W. L. Blaker of Roseburg and Father Bender of Sutherlin officiated at the impressive ceremony witnessed by 100 friends and relatives of the couple.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hensley of Sutherlin. The bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Galasso, reside in San Diego.

The church was decorated with baskets of white gladioli in very full fan-shaped arrangements. Smaller bouquets of white gladioli graced the altar. Russell Cooper and Gary McMullen lighted the altar candles before the ceremony.

Miss Sally Hill was organist, playing the traditional wedding marches and accompanying Ellis Vance who sang "The Lord's Prayer" during the ceremony and "Ave Maria" at the reception following.

The daily bride, escorted to the altar by her father, was beautiful in her filmy full-skirted gown fashioned with tiers of embroidered lace and pleated tulle ruffles. The back of the skirt swept into a full chapel train. The front was designed with two panels of embroidered lace accented with tiny seed pearls. The fitted bodice of Chantilly lace had a square scalloped neckline and long fitted sleeves fastened with tiny satin buttons at the wrists. A pearl circlet with pendant effect held in place her fingertip veil of illusion net. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls belonging to her mother.

The bride's bouquet was a white orchid on a white ribbon, arranged with cascades of stephanotis and seed pearls.

Miss Marcia Bell of Portland was maid of honor. She was very attractive in her dress of pale lavender. The bodice was of embroidered taffeta and was styled with cap sleeves. The three-tiered skirt of taffeta, net and nylon, featured two panels of pleated taffeta at the back. Her headpiece was a jeweled circlet and net veiling.

Her nosegay bouquet was of red roses and shattered white carnations. Carol Gaylord of Jennings Lodge, Carol Furrer of Oregon City and Bonnie Hensley were bridesmaids wearing pink frocks styled identically to the dress worn by the bride's honor attendant. Their headpieces, jeweled circlets, were also alike. Flower girl Debbie Hensley, a niece of the bride, wore lavender taffeta with velvet bows and a circlet to match those worn by the bride's other attendants. The bridesmaids carried nosegays of pink Elf roses and shattered white carnations and the flower girl had a tiny nosegay of the same flowers.

Peter Grumino of San Diego was best man. Ushers were Chuck Rash and Dick Occhitino, both of Portland; Tim Berg of Beaverton and John Vanderlinde of San Diego. Ring bearer was Jerry Harvey of Winchester.

The bride's mother wore a mauve lace sheath dress with matching feather toque. She wore beige accessories and wore a white orchid. Mrs. Galasso wore blue taffeta with white accessories and a pale lavender orchid.

Mrs. William Ulmer had charge of the reception which took place in the church parlors following the wedding. Large bouquets of pink Elf roses and maidenhair fern in white milk glass containers graced the gift table. A long low arrangement of white gladioli and white Elf roses was placed on the fireplace mantel. The bride's table was covered with white linen. The elaborate tiered white wedding cake was topped with white wedding bells, tulle and lily of the valley and was surrounded by white gladioli blossoms centered with pink Elf roses. The candleholders on either side of the cake held a sweeping arrangement of pink Elf roses centered with very large white cactya orchids and maidenhair fern.

Kathy and Karen Winkel of Coos Bay had charge of the guest book. Mrs. Dale Harvey poured coffee. Mrs. C. J. Hein cut and served the cake, assisted by the bride's aunt, Mrs. Ernest Rostel of Washington, D.C. Mrs. William Winkel served the punch and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Augustus had charge of the gift table.

Coming from a distance to attend the wedding were W. C. Yost, Seattle; Mrs. Ernest Rostel, Washington, D.C.; Mr. and Mrs. John Vanderlinde and Mrs. James Galasso and daughter, Judy, San Diego; Mr. and Mrs. John Spah and Mr. and Mrs. George Reed, Portland; and Mr. and Mrs. William Winkel, Coos Bay.

The bride was graduated from Sutherlin High School and attended University of Oregon. She has been employed as a dental assistant at a medical center in San Diego. The bridegroom was graduated from high school in San Diego and attended University of Oregon for two years during which time he was a member of ATO, athletic fraternity. He will continue with his pre-law studies at San Diego State College.

Following a honeymoon in San Francisco, the young couple will be at home at 5148 Brockbank Place, San Diego.

RECENT VISITORS in Roseburg were Mr. and Mrs. Ron Strickling and daughter, Lori Anne, pictured above, of San Francisco, who visited the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Strickling, and with his brother and sister-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Joe Strickling, and with Mrs. Strickling's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Lowery. They were accompanied to Roseburg by Mrs. Strickling's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Lowery, who also live in San Francisco and who formerly made their home here. Ron was graduated from Roseburg High School in 1950 and his wife, Dorine, in 1951. Ron later attended University of Oregon and is now with the S.F. Chronicle circulation department at Millbrae, Calif. (Picture by Homer Strickling).
