

Leaflets Dope Bruins To Clip OSC; Prothro Voices Fears

Pacific Coast Conference Football
By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Word has come out of the sky at Corvallis that Oregon State is going to get whipped by UCLA in their football game Saturday.

The prophecy fluttered to earth in leaflet form from an airplane that flew over the Oregon State campus Tuesday. Since UCLA is more than 1,000 miles away, the propaganda war hardly seemed the work of Bruins supporters. Oregon State students speculated it was much more likely the doing of their arch rivals from the University of Oregon.

OSC coach Tommy Prothro didn't drop any leaflets but he gave the Bruins almost the same billing. He told a booster group UCLA probably is "the best football team on the coast in the last three or four years."

Ducks Have Worries

At Eugene, meanwhile, Oregon had a few worries of its own. Its opponent Saturday will be Oklahoma, rated No. 1 in the nation in this week's Associated Press poll. The Webfoots fortunately have all their players in top shape. They ran through a 10-minute scrimmage Tuesday. Later the ends and backs concentrated on pass defense.

At Pullman, Washington State coach Jim Sutherland said he'll have some new faces in the lineup when the Cougars play California Saturday. He didn't say what the changes will be, but he had senior Dave Wilson working at quarterback in place of the famed Bobby Newman in a three-hour drill. Other new men in the first-team lineup were halfback Keith Lincoln and fullback Chuck Morrell.

California, troubled by injuries since the start of the practice season, reported two more casualties. First-string right guard Charles Johnson and second-team left tackle Doug Furuta were benched because of knee strains.

At Seattle, Washington team doctors said halfback Carver Gayton and fullback Sam Hurworth should be able to play Saturday when the Huskies meet Ohio State at Columbus. Gayton has a leg infection and Hurworth a sprained ankle.

Stanford, beaten 40-6 by Washington State, goes Saturday against Northwestern, a team that beat the Cougars. This indicates the Indians have some work to do, and they did 90 minutes of it Tuesday in a tough scrimmage.

Senior quarterback Bob Nicolet worked out with the Indians for the first time in a week. But he is not expected to be sufficiently recovered from his injuries to play at Evanston Saturday.

The Southern California Trojans learned that two of their reserve linemen will be unable to play Friday night when USC meets North Carolina at the Coliseum. Ron Mix, No. 2 right tackle, is still recovering from pneumonia. And Dick Bronson, No. 3 man at the same position, is out with injuries. Guard Walt Gurasich has moved over to help first-string right tackle Monte Clark.

UCLA drilled two hours against Oregon State offensive and defensive setups, but did no heavy work.

Portland Gets 3 Players From KC

KANSAS CITY (AP) — The Kansas City Athletics announced Tuesday the sale of the contracts of two pitchers and an outfielder to the Portland club of the Pacific Coast League.

The pitchers are Wally Burnette and Carl Dwyer. The outfielder is Dave Melton.

Under a new working agreement with Portland the A's bought the contract of shortstop Alex George. He had been on the Buffalo roster and his contract went to Portland when the Athletics switched their agreement from Buffalo to the coast team.

Top Norway Ski Jumper Enrolls At Wash. School

WENATCHEE (AP) — Norway's top ski jumper, Torbjorn Yggseth, has enrolled at Wenatchee Valley College to pursue a course in aeronautical engineering.

The 24-year-old Yggseth hopes to eventually complete his studies at the University of Washington.

Ranked No. 1 in his country last season, Yggseth performed for Norway in the World Championships in Finland and also placed among the best in the world during other European meets.

As well as competing with Bob Johnson's Wenatchee Valley College squad, Yggseth plans to represent Leavenworth Winter Sports Club in big jumping tournaments around the country. He will also compete in a special open event during the national championships which will be held at Leavenworth, Feb. 22, 1959.

Yggseth, an experienced jet flyer, was only recently separated from Norway's air force. He took his early flying training in Canada during 1953 and 1954.

A native of Asker, Yggseth is regarded in Norway jumping circles as superior to Odd Westgaard and Arnfinn Karstad, the Norwegian pair who placed 1-2 in the 1958 Leavenworth meet.

Spahn Says He Didn't Call Stengel 'Clown'

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Southpaw Warren Spahn, starting Milwaukee pitcher in today's opening game of the World Series, insists he never used the term "a clown" to describe Casey Stengel, manager of the New York Yankees.

Spahn, in an interview Monday, said Stengel once observed that he never would be a good pitcher, Stengel managed Spahn when they were with the Boston Braves in 1942.

Asked to describe Casey as manager with the Braves 16 years ago, Spahn was quoted as saying: "He was nothing but a clown."

Disturbed by the published quotation Tuesday, Warren said, "I was misunderstood. That I actually said was that Casey, in those days, was always clowning around."

He located Stengel and apologized personally. Stengel readily accepted the apology and told Spahn he regarded him as one of the finest gentlemen in baseball as well as one of the finest pitchers.
