Canyonville Youth Groups Begin Scheduling Activities

By VIRGINIA PROCTOR

Canyonville youth organizations began activities this past week with two Camp Fire girls groups scheduling regular meetings. A new Blue Bird group is being organized, Cub Scouts are planning to begin meetings in October and Boy Scouts will meet regularly at the Youth Center.

The WaSaCaTa Camp Fire girls held their first fall meeting at the home of their leader, Mrs. Walton Dixon, Thursday afternoon to organize fall activities.

The former fourth-grade Blue Birds, now graduated to Camp Fire Girls, organized their fifth-grade group Thursday at the Methodist Church under the leadership of Mrs. William Brown and Mrs. Lyle Dickinson and selected Hop Itu (The Peaceful Ones) for their name. They will meet each Thursday at the church at 3:30.

All mothers and their third or fourth-grade daughters will meet with Mrs. George Allen and Mrs. Darrell Brown Thursday in one of the fourth-grade rooms of the primary building in regard to organizing a new Blue Bird group.

Cub Scout pack leaders met Friday evening to organize the fall activities. Meetings will begin Oct. 1. Parents of young boys eligible for Cub Scouts will be notified of vacancies.

Boy Scouts, under the leadership of John Season Jr., will meet each Wednesday at the Youth Center building at 7 p.m.

Riddle PTA Declares $70 Profit At Meeting

At the recent meeting of the Riddle PTA at the school, Mrs. Larry Mimnaugh, book committee chairman, announced that approximately $70 had been added to the PTA treasury from summer sales of the late George W. Riddle's pioneer history of southern Douglas County, "Early Dawn In Oregon". The group voted to uphold the executive board's recommendation to set all money added to the treasury from book sales aside for a lasting community project.

Mrs. Preston stated that project suggestions are being accepted from other Riddle service groups and individuals.

After a short business meeting, the faculties of both Riddle schools were introduced. The next meeting is slated for Oct. 9.
