

Silky kidskin is cut into leather jackets that reflect fall's new silhouettes. Weekend jacket (left) has pleated back with button accent. Color is willow green. A second jacket by Leather-mode is (right) white with high waistline and portrait collar framed in ranch mink. —By GAILE DUGAS, NEA Women's Editor.

PERFECT PITCH—An experimental device that tosses hay bales from the baler to the farm wagon with big-league-pitcher accuracy is shown being demonstrated at New Holland, Pa. It removes the toil from one of hay-making's toughest jobs. The bale thrower is operated from the tractor by a throttle controlling the thrower's engine. Between the white "jaws" seen at end of baler are two high-speed belts which constitute the "pitching arm."

FRENCH ATOM SMASHER—This is a general view of the "Saturne," France's new synchro-cyclotron which has gone into operation in Saclay near Paris. A heavy protective concrete wall surrounds machine, believed largest of its type in Europe.

CALM SCENE—Laborers work in the field at the Taoyuan U. S. Air Force Base near Taipei, Formosa. Nationalist Chinese officials have emphasized that Nationalist China has no intention of reducing its garrisons on the beleaguered outpost islands of Quemoy and Matsu. President Eisenhower and U. S. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles have both suggested that the maintaining of large garrisons on the Chinese offshore islands may not be desirable.

BUCKY VIEW—Little Bucky is the name of this pet duck picked on the shoulder of 6-year-old Glen Roy Todd, Glen, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Todd of Columbia, Mo. Bucky is a feathered friend as well as a pet. Little Bucky is a sitting pretty. Glen Todd is a good boy and a good duck.

PEDAL POOPED—The crisis over Quemoy doesn't seem to worry this pedicab driver as he naps in a shady spot in Taipei, the capital of Formosa. His only immediate problem is how to curl up comfortably on the seat of his combination bicycle and rickshaw.

ALPINE MISSILES—Italian Defense Minister and Deputy Premier Antonio Segni, above, announced that his country will establish a "limited" number of U.S. intermediate range missiles based on its soil. The bases, expected to be armed with Jupiters, will probably be in the Alps and Apennines. Italy thus joins Britain as the only two members of NATO to accept nuclear-equipped missiles from America.

Beirut Tension Mounts As GIs Prepare To Leave

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP)—With tensions still mounting in Lebanon, about 1,000 U.S. soldiers marched aboard a transport ship Monday and prepared to sail for Germany.

They are the first Army men to leave Beirut by ship. The troops are expected to sail for Bremerhaven Sunday or Monday, leaving about 3,900 American servicemen behind.

The last of the U.S. Marines who arrived in July left earlier in the week. An Army spokesman said 730 Army men had been airlifted out of Lebanon to date and the airlift is continuing.

As the troops began moving out, Phalangists set up barricades in their sectors of Beirut to keep out government tanks and to enforce their general strike against Lebanon's new regime.
