Roseburg Bread

Show Draws 200

By HAZEL S. MARSH

Approximately 200 women attended the Nancy Haven Holiday Bread Show held recently in the Assembly Hall of the Douglas County Farm Bureau Co-op Exchange on Spruce St., Roseburg. Arranging the affair were: Mrs. D. N. Busenbark, Mrs. C. G. Gubraith, Mrs. A. J. Townsend, Mrs. Henry Scott and Mrs. Arthur Marsh. Mrs. Scott arranged the floral decorations.

Assisting the demonstrator and about the rooms were: Mrs. Robert Findlay, Mrs. Carl Toles, Mrs. Cora Colison and Mrs. Delbert Ollivant.

Mrs. Ruby Garrett is one of seven Nancy Haven economists. Her territory covers Oregon, Washington and Idaho. In addition to preparing the dough for the European breads, Mrs. Garrett demonstrated the mixing, kneading and shaping of the rolls which were baked in view of the assembly.

A display of foreign breads included: Swedish tea rings, German Christmas stollen, Danish pastry, German marmalade cake, Bohemian fruit nut bread and an American sugarplum tree. They were baked previously and steps in their preparation were demonstrated during the afternoon program.

Mrs. Garrett was sponsored by the Northwest Cooperative Women's Council and the program by the Western Sugar Beet Producers.
