Winston-Dillard Toastmistress Club Holds Discussion

Topic mistress Daisy Fox led a discussion on current events at the recent meeting of the Winston-Dillard Toastmistress Club at the Junction City Clubrooms.

Toastmistress Margaret McCord introduced the speakers, Hays Spurgeon spoke on "The Importance of Feeling Inferior" and Zilpha McAllister, "Charm, and How it Can Work for You."

A round table discussion followed on "What Would You Do, Segregate or Integrate?"

Bunny Elbertus was moderator for the discussion. The educational feature was given by Shirley Wagner, a contest by the members on "What it Takes to be a Good President" and "What Qualities Make up a Good Speech." Ruby Peterson acted as evaluator and Edna Ebner gave the closing thought.

Green Camp Fire Girls Elect Officers

By MARY WEIKUM

The Okiwiti Camp Fire Girls of Green met recently at the home of their assistant leader, Mrs. Gloria Cox. They elected the following officers: Linda Witten, president; Diane Owens, vice president; Carolyn Lindberg, secretary; Holly Feal, treasurer; Susan Cox, reporter; Jean Clouse, song leader.

Recently the girls went on an all-day cookout at Stewart Park, when they cooked and served three complete meals out-of-doors, taking pictures of the various activities. They were accompanied by Mrs. Mary Owens and Mrs. Gloria Cox.

The Green School Mothers Club met recently at the home of Mrs. Robert Benson of Linnell Ave. After the potluck dinner, President Mrs. Lucille Coble presided at the business meeting. It was decided to offer two 4-H summer school scholarships, and also to sponsor three camp fire groups. Name tags were made which were used at the County PTA Council meeting in Roseburg Saturday. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. James Medford Nov. 4.

Mr. and Mrs. Mauritz Johnson of Seattle arrived Tuesday at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Warren Engdahl and family, where they will visit for a few days.

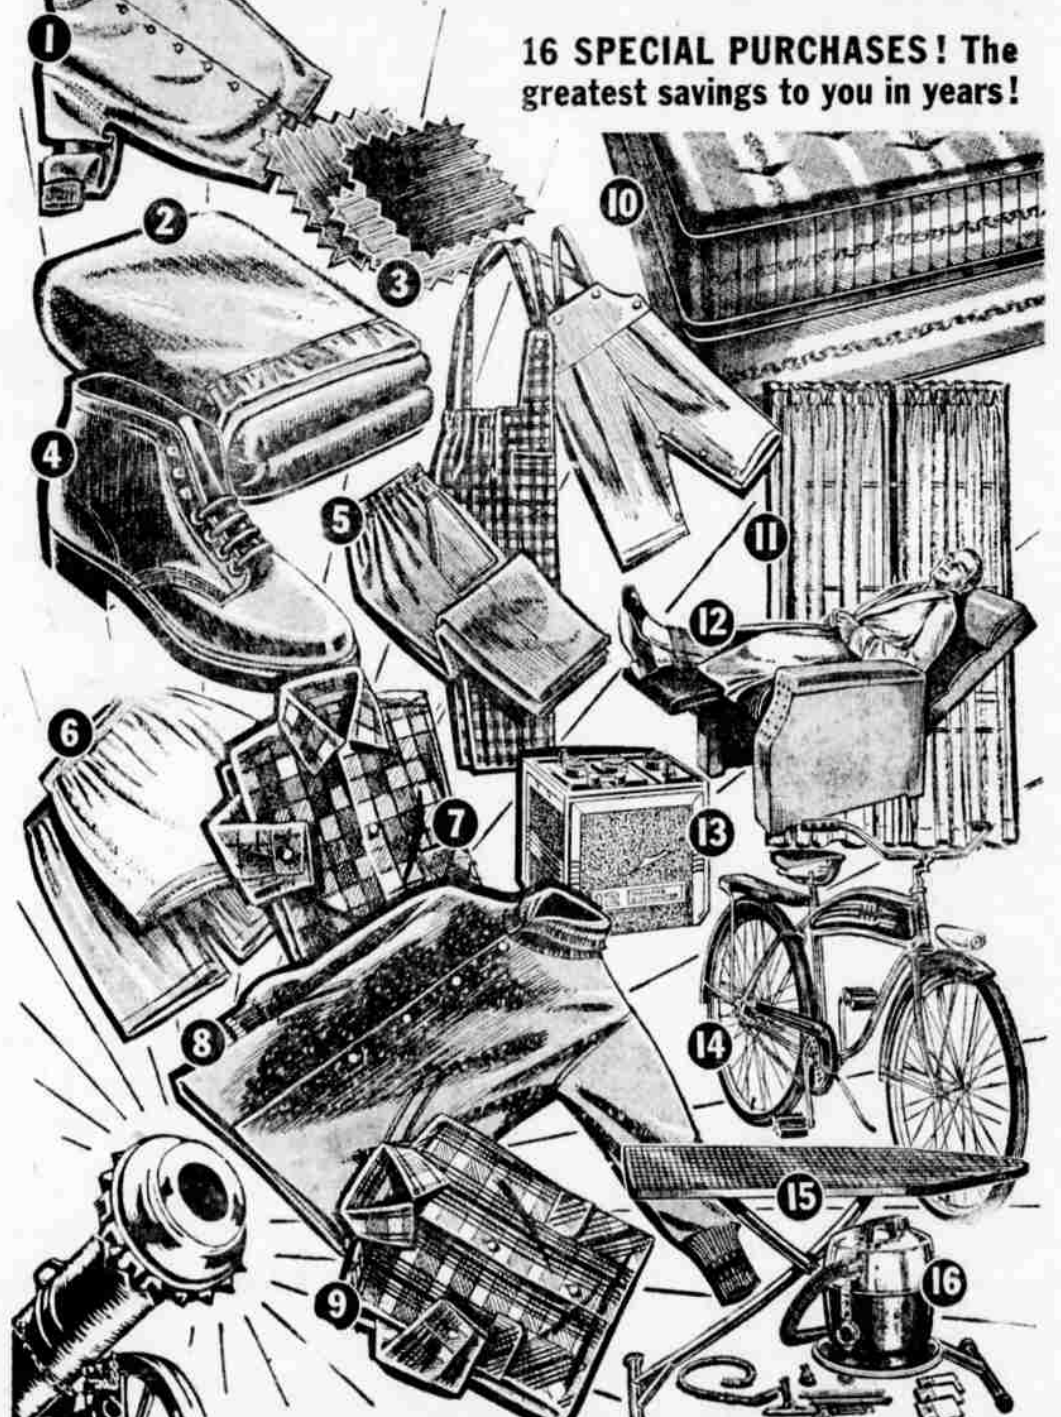

Mrs. Ray Michaels returned home from visiting with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hanson, and family of West Linn. Mrs. Hanson and the two grandchildren accompanied Mrs. Michaels to her home in Green to visit a few days, and Hanson will arrive on the weekend to be with his family on their return to West Linn.
