W. E. Ott Golden Wedding Celebrated On Sunday

The golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Ott was observed Sunday when they invited friends to call at their home during open house from 2 to 5 p.m. The floral arrangements about the rooms of the beautiful Ott home were done by members of the Riverside Happy Hour Club, of which Mrs. Ott is a member. The club was also in charge of the serving and presented the Ott's with an arrangement of gold-colored dahlias which was the centerpiece on the lace-covered table in the dining room. A double pair of crystal candelabra holding gold lighted tapers was used on either side of the floral centerpiece. The tiered wedding cake was white, with decorations in gold and a large gold "50" standing upright on the top. Cake was served by Mrs. N. C. Wallin, Mrs. Clarence Westcott poured the coffee and the punch was served by Mrs. C. N. Downing. Mr. Ott made the mints that were served.

Receiving the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ott and their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Weber of Wyalla, Minn. Mrs. Ott was attired in a silk crepe dress in olive green. She wore an orchid. Those calling during the afternoon enjoyed the musical numbers played by Mrs. Myrtle Burr at the grand piano and Mr. Ott on the violin. The guest book, which was the same used at the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Ott 50 years ago, was presented by their granddaughter, Miss Trudi Bea Ott.

Those signing the guest book were Mr. and Mrs. Norman Humphrey and Vicki Joy and Jimmy, Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Homer Mitchell; Milton Ott, brother of Mr. Ott from Portland, who was best man at the wedding 50 years ago; Mrs. Marian Painter, Woodburn; Mrs. Robert Schaefer, Turner; Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Weber, Minn.; Mr. and Mrs. W. In November of that year they moved to Roseburg to make their home where Mr. Ott had been in business for two years previously in the confectionary store known as the "Palace of Sweets." He continued in that business for about 20 years before entering the music store business which he maintained until his retirement a few years ago. Mr. Ott is still very active in keeping his acreage and the beautiful landscaped yard of his home. He spends much time in his favorite hobby of fishing. Occasionally he makes some of the delectable candy for which he is well known. Mrs. Ott, although unable to do the gardening which she used to do so extensively, is very active about her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ott resided in Roseburg until 1934, when they built their present home which is located on Garden Valley Road along the banks of the North Umpqua at Brown's Bridge. Both Mr. and Mrs. Ott are members of the Baptist Church and the Riverside Grange. Mrs. Ott is an active member of the Riverside Happy Hour Club; a former member of the Roseburg Woman's Club, of which she was president; and the Business and Professional Woman's Club. Mr. Ott formerly belonged to the Rotary Club and Roseburg Country Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Ott are the parents of three children. They include W. E. Ott Jr., Roseburg; Mrs. Barbara Erhart, California; and Mrs. Marjorie Weber, Wyalla, Minn. They have one great-grandson, Chris Miller of Roseburg.
