COMMUNITY CHRISTMAS means the working together of all local organizations and service clubs under one general committee to arrange for Christmas baskets to be given to needy families of the Roseburg community. The approximate area includes Winchester to Winston-Dillard and Melrose to Glide. Names will be submitted to the committee, who will present them to a screening committee so that no families will be duplicated and yet every needy family will have a happy Christmas. To raise funds for the program a Country Store will be maintained Nov. 13-14-15, at the community building at the fairgrounds. An auction will also be held at the Country Store. The community is invited to attend and assist this project. All types of donations for the auction will be appreciated by the committee.

THE GENERAL COMMITTEE is pictured at the top left and includes George Brown, treasurer; A. B. Johnson, co-chairman; Mrs. Albert McBee, chairman, and C. E. Manning, entertainment. At top right shown with one of the food baskets are Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hoover, basket committee chairmen.
