

Widow And Bloodhounds In Insurance Business

DALLAS, Ore. (AP)—Merman Wilson and his bloodhounds want the lost-and-found insurance business today.

The insurance, said Wilson, will cost only $1 a year.

Any person who subscribes, and then is lost in the woods, will be searched for by Wilson and his bloodhounds.

Wilson will start the business in earnest after he quits Nov. 1 as a Polk County sheriff's deputy.

Earlier, about half Oregon's counties had helped underwrite Wilson's dogs.

Church Activities

Canyonville Girls Attend House Party

By VIRGINIA PROCTOR

The intermediate group of the Betty Morris Girls' Auxiliary Women's Missionary Union of the First Baptist Church of Canyonville, attended the first GA house party held in Oregon recently at Camp Colton near Salem.

Under the leadership of Rebecca

Tarry, state youth director for the Southern Baptist Church, the party featured leaders of the national organization and provided a program for 125 girls who attended from Oregon and Washington. Those attending from Canyonville were Marcia Knudston, Connie McCabe and Linda Gaskill.

A formal banquet was held. Theme of the conference and addresses was "Queenly Quests."

Guests At Service

A group of Canyonville Bible Academy music students, accompanied by their teacher, Don Naas, and Mrs. Robert Shaffer, were recent guests at the morning service of the Glads Assembly of God Church.

Following the service, the group, which participated in the musical portion of the service, were dinner guests of the minister, the Rev. Dale Hoskins and family of Roseburg.

Camas Valley Church Sets Special Service

A series of special meetings has been announced by the Community Missionary Church Highway 42 and Westside Road in Camas Valley for Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

The Rev. Roy Ramsderry, the superintendent of the western division of the Missionary Church Assn., from Van Nuys, Calif., will be the featured speaker. The Rev.

Oakland Church Group Meets

By EDITH DUNN

The Women's Assn. of Oakland Community Presbyterian Church met recently for a dessert at the home of Mrs. Ward Cockeram.

The group voted to give $5 to the Presbyterian scholarship for Oregon. Election was held with all officers being re-elected. They are: Mrs. Eric Waltman, president; Mrs. Jesse Lee, first vice president; Mrs. Clarence Anderson, second vice president; Mrs. Neil Burpee, third vice president; Mrs. A. O. Bunch, secretary, and Mrs. E. M. Dunn, treasurer.

Plans were made for a bazaar and luncheon to be held Nov. 22. Circle chairmen will complete plans.

Mrs. Ruth Bunch led devotions. Mrs. Mary Lee had the mission lesson and Mrs. Louis Cherry read the Outreach story on mission schools. Mrs. Esther Pealer reported on her visit with Dr. and Mrs. Homer Noble at Port Orford.

The English Settlement Circle of Oakland Community Presbyterian Church met recently at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Pinkston for a dessert.

George Todd minister of the church, will assist.

Meetings are scheduled for Friday and Saturday at 7 p.m., and the regular 11 a.m. Sunday service. The church dedication service at 3 p.m. Nov. 2 will be in charge of the Rev. Mr. Ramsderry.

Special music has been planned for the public services.

ELDER B. M. PRESTON, head of the Sabbath School Department of the North Pacific Union Conference, was guest speaker at the morning worship service in the Seventh-day Adventist Church recently. The theme of his sermon was that of Christian service. Elder Preston, assisted by Elder Leon Cornforth, leader of the Sabbath School department of the Idaho Conference, and by Elder C. S. Joyce, auditor of the Oregon Conference, conducted a Sabbath school rally for the Roseburg and neighboring churches. The rally was characterized by a discussion on Sabbath school aims and methods. Elder Preston presented two colored films, emphasizing the thoughts presented during the day.

WANTED

"Thanks for the many fine products..."

"I must express gratitude for the many delicious products you have to offer. We find Chet's pies the most delicious we've ever eaten. I've always been considered an excellent pastry cook but now I bake no more. That wonderful Bottom Baker pie does a perfect job and Chet's pies are always brown on the bottom...hold their perfect shape...have such flaky crust and delicious filling...not a lot of 'goo'. Assure you we'll continue to enjoy all Chet's products often."
