W. H. Tylers Celebrate Wedding Anniversary

The golden wedding anniversary open house of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Tyler at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Selby Leep was a charming affair of Sunday afternoon. A white and gold cloth covered the table, which was decorated with yellow and bronze dahlias flanked by gold-colored candles. The beautiful wedding cake was decorated with yellow roses and gold leaves and topped by a gold "50."

Mrs. D. J. O'Malley and Mrs. Clifford J. White poured. Mrs. Iolo Stephens, Mrs. Frank Poole, Mrs. B. R. Hayden and Miss Elsie Hudson served the cake and the guest book was in charge of Mrs. Ruby Tucker. The many lovely gifts were in charge of Mrs. C. O. Slabaugh. Those assisting with the affair wore attractive afternoon gowns with corsages of white carnations sprayed with gold and tied with gold ribbons.

Mrs. Leep was assisted by Mrs. Leonard Tyler in receiving the 85 guests who called during the open house hours. Emily Bell Hibbison and William H. Tyler of Bridgewater, S. D., were married at Salem, S. D., Oct. 29, 1908. Mr. Tyler was employed as a barber in Bridgewater. Soon after their marriage they moved on a farm near Canistota, S. D., where they remained for nine years. From there they moved to Sioux Falls, S. D., and resided for 28 years and at which time Mr. Tyler was engaged in the barber trade with the exception of seven years when he was a guard at the state penitentiary.

Mrs. Tyler was born near Marion, S. D., and Mr. Tyler was born in Newport, S. D. They came to Roseburg in 1947, at which time Mr. Tyler retired because of ill health. Mrs. Tyler was employed at Miller's in Roseburg for nine years.

The Tylers have one son, Leonard W. Tyler, of this city, and two grandsons, Wayne and Gary, of Roseburg. The Tylers and their son and daughter-in-law and family are all members of The First Christian Church. Mr. Tyler is a Spanish American War Veteran.
