South Umpqua Grange Chooses New Officers

By EDITH MOORE

The South Umpqua Grange has elected G. M. Krell as master for the ensuing term. Roy Matthews was chosen overseer; Mrs. Krell, lecturer; Harold Burgin, steward; Tom Epping, assistant steward; Mrs. Charles Wheeler, chaplain; Mrs. Roy Matthews, treasurer; Mrs. Burgin, secretary; Romie Hendrix, gate keeper; Mrs. Hendrix, Ceres; Mrs. Ella Roy, Pomona; Mrs. Ivan Kelly, Flora, and Mrs. Richard Williams, lady assistant steward. Richard Williams, John Larson and Mrs. Ralph Martin were named to the executive committee. Mrs. Martin is also musician for the group.

Wayne Smith and Mrs. Durnin Swingley, Jackie Prairie was elected president; Agnes Hendrix, vice president; Camille Ellefson, secretary; Carmen De Bolt, song leader, and Linda Burden, news reporter. Four boys originally signed up but dropped because they felt somewhat overwhelmed by the many girls.

This is the first year for 16 of the members, while the others are in their second year of sewing, as they had organized early in the summer and completed their first year projects prior to the County Fair.

Two baked potatoes will give you all the Vitamin C you need, says Adelia M. Bewuker, associate professor of nutrition at the University of Michigan.
