PCC Bowl Contenders Face Traditional Rivals Saturday

By JACK STEVENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

Traditional battles Saturday should decide the west's Rose Bowl representative and bring to a close the football history of the Pacific Coast Conference.

The nine-member organization dies next June 30 following tumultuous years of disagreements.

With four teams, headed by California's Bears, still in the running for the bowl bid, the finales bring even more than the usual interest.

California hosts Stanford, Washington State meets Washington at Spokane, Southern California plays UCLA at Los Angeles and Oregon engages Oregon State at Corvallis.

Bears Can Clinch Title

California, paced by split T formation quarterback Joe Kapp, can take the title with a victory over

Martin Goes To Cleveland In Player Deal

The Tigers' general manager, an active and eager dealer since he took over the front office two seasons ago, got together with master-trader Frank Lane of the Cleveland Indians Thursday and worked this swap:

Off's Chances Termed Poor

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — One-time National League slugger star Mel Ott was in critical condition today following eight-hour surgery and doctors said his chances for survival were "very poor."

Barbara Romack Turns To Professional Golf

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — Barbara Romack, Women's National Amateur golf champ in 1954, has turned pro.

Problem Solved?

Relief pitching is one of Detroit's big needs. Now McHale wants to add long ball punch and infield strength. The Detroit infield is only half-strength. National League castoff Gail Harris is at first base and Frank Bolling at second. The club has four shortstops, but none of proven major league ability.

Both Have Fallen

At one stage there was solid support for Calhoun as a top title contender. Jones no longer is ranked among the top 10 in the division but he still hopes to get another shot at Sugar Ray.
