Thanksgiving, a day for taking stock and counting blessings, will be celebrated throughout the land Thursday with traditional feasting, parades and quiet prayer.

At Plymouth, Mass., where it all started, descendants of the Pilgrims and others will attend services in the First Church (Unitarian). Later a pageant will portray the events linked with the founding of the colony in 1620-21.

President Eisenhower and his family and grandchildren will spend the holiday at their vacation spot in Augusta, Ga.

The Macy parade in New York, now viewed by additional millions via television, again will feature gigantic balloons bobbing down Manhattan's streets and avenues — in spite of a government ban on using helium to fill them.

Inflated With Air

The Macy people and the Good-year people, who make the balloons, put their heads together and decided to inflate the balloons with air and suspend them from huge, mobile cranes.

Pittsburgh will open a 14-month bicentennial celebration with a colorful ceremony, including a parade of 180 bagpipers, a band concert, historical speeches, and the firing of cannon. Later Pittsburghers can take in the Penn State-Pitt football game, opening event of the bicentennial sports program.

At San Diego, Calif., Dr. Frank Lowe, president of the Council of Churches, called for a large attendance at a nonsectarian Thanksgiving service in the city-owned Balboa Park, as an expression of gratitude for being able to use the park.

A controversy developed several months ago when evangelist Billy Graham used the park for a meeting of public property for religious purposes as a possible violation of the state constitution.

use of the park for Thanksgiving services if they are nonsectarian. Many cities planned interfaith services, and Protestant, Catholic and Jewish houses of worship prepared for special separate services as well.

Some churches in New York adorned altars and chancels with fruits of the harvest, and after services of praise and thanksgiving will distribute the vegetables and fruits to needy families and hospitals.

To celebrate the occasion the University of Texas will dedicate a replica of Santa Rita No. 1, the first of 4,085 oil wells on the university's lands. They have contributed many millions to the school's permanent fund. An annual event at Austin is the Texas A&M-University of Texas football game.

Detroit will be host to the only professional football game of the day, the Detroit Lions versus the Green Bay Packers. The Motor City also holds a parade that rivals the Macy spectacle.

Police Arrest 2 Shortly After Station Robbery

PORTLAND (AP)—Police arrested two bandits shortly after they held up a Portland service station Tuesday for $18. One of the two, on parole from a life sentence for armed robbery, faces almost certain return to the Oregon penitentiary for life.

"Stupid, just stupid," Jess William Neal, 33, of Clackamas told Detective Ray Duerst when asked why he did it.

Neal, paroled less than two weeks ago, and John Grogan, 21, of Portland signed statements admitting the robbery. Both were jailed in lieu of $5,000 bond after being charged with robbery.

Neal was arrested hiding under an old car with a .32 pistol in his hand, which he didn't attempt to use against arresting officers. He said the holdup was a spur of the moment idea.

Neal told officers he was working on a Clackamas County dairy farm, a job his sister obtained for him after she worked for his release.

"She'll think I'm a pretty foul character," he said.

Police said the pair held up Hans K. Zirbel, 18, at a service station at 1033 Northeast 82nd Ave., taking $18 and two flashlights. They put Zirbel in a room, but he obtained a description of their car by climbing on a wash basin and looking from a high window, then called police.

Officers Roger Tappendorf and Louis Bayer, cruising nearby, spotted the car and pulled it over. Grogan was caught attempting to jump from the car and Neal was found nearby under another car.
