Former Roseburg Resident Patron Of Famous Museum

Of much interest in Roseburg is the recent purchase of the famed bust of Cosimo De' Medici, 1st Grand Duke of Florence by Benvenuto Cellini, one of the most widely known men in the history of the arts, made by Roscoe F. Oakes, former Roseburg resident, and great patron of the M. H. DeYoung Memorial Museum in San Francisco.

Although its history can be traced back to the 15th century when it was acquired by an Englishman in Italy, and although it has been in America for more than 30 years, its traditional attribution to Cellini had not been verified, so that its recent identification as a work by Cellini clearly described in letters and other documents of his time, is in the nature of an actual discovery.

Those who are members of Douglas County pioneer families are friends of Roscoe F. Oakes, who now makes his home in a Louis XVI penthouse on lofty Pacific Heights in San Francisco. While a resident of Roseburg, his home was located at the corner of SE Lane and SE Jackson Streets, where the First Presbyterian Church now stands. He and his late wife have done much to further art and other cultures in San Francisco and their gifts to the M. H. DeYoung Museum fill seven rooms of the museum and are enjoyed by countless thousands of visitors.

Stories regarding the latest gift of Mr. Oakes to the museum appear in recent issues of both Life and Time magazines and a story with colored pictures of his penthouse and famed orchid conservatory appears in the Nov. 9 issue of the San Francisco Examiner Pictorial Living magazine section.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. McHenry, formerly of Roseburg and now of 7155 SE 34th St., Portland, were recent visitors to the museum and the latter enjoyed calling on Mr. Oakes as he was a close friend of her late mother and aunt, Mrs. George E. Kohlhagen and Miss Frances Howell. Mr. Oakes is now 80 years of age. He left Roseburg in the late 1880's and moved to Baker, Ore. He made his fortune selling flashlight batteries. His penthouse home on Pacific Heights is noted for its magnificent garden and orchid conservatory.

While in San Francisco, Mrs. McHenry also enjoyed calling on Mrs. G. R. Child, Mrs. Esther Simmons, Minnie Sheridan and Sybil Gibson Gerlach and her sister, Mrs. Floyd Lewis, all former residents of Roseburg.

Prior to going to San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. McHenry had gone to Southern California, where the former attended a conference and then they went to Santa Barbara to visit their daughter, Florence Anne, and then to San Francisco, where Mr. McHenry attended a conference for three days.

Because of Roscoe F. Oakes and his late wife, Roseburg residents will have special pleasure and pride in visiting the M. H. DeYoung Museum and seeing the fabulous treasures given to the museum by the Oakes family.

Mrs. Lee Lacey Hostess To Club On Thursday

Mrs. Lee Lacey entertained her bridge club at her attractive home Thursday evening. The autumn motif was carried out in the decorations.

Enjoying the evening with Mrs. Lacey were Mrs. Arthur Wilson and Mrs. Bill Benson, guests, and Mrs. W. L. Tozer, Mrs. Donald Jepsen, Mrs. Knute Kershner, Mrs. William Cooke and Mrs. Harvey King.

High score for the evening's contract bridge play was won by Mrs. Tozer with Mrs. Kershner winning second high score. Following the card play, Mrs. Lacey served lovely refreshments.

XI TAU SORORITY HAS INTERESTING MEETING

Mrs. Harold Jokela entertained members and guests of Xi Tau Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, at her home Wednesday evening.

The president, Mrs. C. F. Yundt Jr., conducted the short meeting. She welcomed and introduced guests, Helen Ware and Margaret Clay, the latter a transfer from Crescent City, Calif.

The sorority's annual fashion show and card party to be held early in the spring was discussed. A definite date for the affair has not yet been set.

Mrs. Yundt fixed a lovely Christmas tree which had tiny silver bells containing secret sister names for 1959. All members drew their new names during the evening. The Christmas party will be Dec. 17 at the home of Mrs. Dan Dimick.

Alan Knudson, guest speaker for the evening, brought many unusual stones and rare gems to show. He explained why some gems are now so rare and also told how synthetic stones are made.

The next meeting will be Dec. 3 at the home of Mrs. Bert Griffin with Mrs. Dimick assisting.

Mrs. Jokela, assisted by Mrs. Yundt, served delicious refreshments to guests, Alan Knudson, Margaret Clay and Helen Ware, and to members, Mrs. Jack Wharton, Mrs. H. A. Johnson, Mrs. Joe Barnes, Mrs. Dan Dimick, Mrs. Paul Hull, Mrs. Lawrence Peterson, Mrs. Robert Kent and Mrs. Bert Griffin.

Gloria Ruth Johnson Now Mrs. Jerry Carson

At a 3 p.m. ceremony Saturday afternoon at the Canyonville Methodist Church, Gloria Ruth Johnson, daughter of Mrs. Sylvia Johnson of Eugene, was married to Jerry Carson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Carson of Canyonville. The Rev. Cyril Dorsett officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Entering on the arm of her brother-in-law, Le Roy Sondenza, who also gave her away, to piano music played by Eugene Southwell, the bride wore a white lace princess style ballroom gown with a fingertip veil falling from a bandeau and carried a pink and blue nosegay on a white Bible.

Betty Ann Ballard of Eugene, a niece of the bride, served as candlelighter. Mrs. Jack Smith, in a blue hair-length formal trimmed in pink and wearing a pink corsage, was matron of honor. David Antis served as best man. Pink and blue ribbons decorated the family pews.

Preceding the service Eleanor Irwin sang "Because of You" and during the ceremony John Hakanson sang "I Love You Truly." Both were accompanied by Mr. Southwell.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church with punch, coffee and wedding cake served from a pink and blue decorated table by Mrs. Truman Gunn and Mrs. E. J. Sauve, Coquille. The mother of the bride and the parents of the bridegroom joined the bridal couple at the receiving line. Both mothers were
