Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Henderer and Mrs. Wade Henderer and family, all of Elkton, spent Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. G. Henderer in Corvallis where they attended the OSC-Oregon football game and family birthday dinner for Mrs. Slagle who was 10 and Di-

SADIE HAWKINS DANCE IS SUCCESSFUL AFFAIR

Sadie Hawkins was the theme of a gay costume party at the Buckaroo Barn Saturday night. The barn was decorated in appropriate "dogpatch" fashion. Old clothing was hung from the ceiling, a make-believe still with punch on tap was placed in one corner and dogpatch cartoons were drawn everywhere.

The committee in charge included Mr. and Mrs. Lew Aumack, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Cave, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Britton, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Reese, Mr. and Mrs. Doug Manning, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Downing, Mr. and Mrs. Al Hammeil, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hayden and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bates. Harry Aston did the cartoon work.

Terry Golden of New Mexico appeared to entertain and to the calling for the evening. A few games were enjoyed and Mr. Golden played the guitar and sang. Mr. Golden is a professional entertainer. This is his eighth year traveling on the road. After a short stay in Oregon, he will spend six weeks in the middle western states, then will go home for Christmas. Mr. Golden was a patrolman on the Mexican Border during the war. He also taught school, specializing in Spanish. His parents were Shakespearean actors.

Refreshments were served during the coffee break. New class members were guests and joined in the festive activity with real enthusiasm.

To complete the evening they had a grand march and a committee chose the best man, best woman and best couple in costume. Winners were Roger McKenzie, Mrs. Earl Oederkirk and Mr. and Mrs. Lew Aumack.

JOHN WILHITES GIVEN FAREWELL PARTY SUNDAY

Mr. and Mrs. John Wilhite, who recently moved from Roseburg to Eugene, were honored at a most delightful informal open house affair given in their honor Sunday afternoon by Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Steiner at the Steiner home at 1788 NW Crouch.

The Wilhites, for many years residents of this city, have been active in youth and Nazareth Church circles, and will be sorely missed by the many friends they have made during their residence here.

Among the many delicious cakes served was one made and beautifully decorated by Mrs. Paul Weaver. Mrs. Robert Hempel and Mrs. Alfred Gilley also furnished cakes for the occasion.

A beautiful farewell gift was presented to the Wilhites by friends.

THOSE GATHERING TO BID GOODBYE TO THE HONORED GUESTS WERE THE REV. AND MRS. ROBERT HEMPEL, MR. AND MRS. DON GARRETT, MR. AND MRS. BRUCE STEINER, MR. AND MRS. J. W. SUTER, MR. AND MRS. PAUL WEAVER, MR. AND MRS. RAY HEICHEL, MR. AND MRS. ALEC MEYERS, MR. AND MRS. J. M. COX, MR. AND MRS. JOHN RICHARDSON, MR. AND MRS. JAMES MORGAN, MR. AND MRS. R. W. JACOB, MR. AND MRS. WAYNE REEDER, MRS. ALFRED GILLEY, MRS. JOHN WHITE, MRS. JUNE CAMPBELL, MISS LOIS TOETER, MISS NELLIE WIKOFF, BILL WILKS, CLARK DAGE and the host and hostess.

MRS. CHITWOOD HOSTESS TO SORORITY WEDNESDAY

Mrs. Clarion Chitwood was hostess for a meeting of Xi Omicron, Beta Sigma Phi, Wednesday evening. Secret sister names were drawn for the new year. Mrs. Chitwood reported on the progress of the committee for the state convention. The program, "The Development of Music," was presented by Mrs. Neil Christian. Members took part in "round" singing and in rhythm band. A musical quiz was also enjoyed with prizes going to Mrs. Sid Domenico and Mrs. John LeDue.

Mrs. Chitwood, assisted by Mrs. James Daugherty, served refreshments to Mrs. H. C. Church, Miss Helen Casey, Mrs. Harry Hill, Miss Betty Tauscher, Miss Joan Harper, Mrs. Norman Salles, Mrs. Craig Short, Mrs. Bert Shoemaker, Mrs. Robert Kidder, Mrs. Bill Weber, Mrs. Sid Domenico, Mrs. Florence Powell, Mrs. Clarence DeCamp, Mrs. Frank Wickham, Mrs. Robert Tripplett, Mrs. Meredith Wilson, Mrs. Neil Christian, Mrs. John LeDue and Mrs. Marcus Brown.

The next meeting of the group will be Dec. 3 at the home of Mrs. Bert Shoemaker.

DUV OF CIVIL WAR HAVE BREAKFAST

Anna Peterson, assisted by Alice Goff, entertained the Daughters of the Union Veterans of the Civil War, Florence Nightingale Tent at a breakfast, Thursday morning. Those enjoying breakfast and an hour of visiting were Susan Bowman, Ruth Reese, Elizabeth Gardner, Ruth Plummer, Edith Frisbie and the hostesses.

CANNED FOOD SHOWER GIVEN MONDAY AFTERNOON

Mrs. Milford entertained at her home in Tennesse Monday afternoon at a canned food shower. Delicious refreshments were served. Later Mrs. Dowdy took the canned food to Mr. and Mrs. Preston Fish who recently lost their home in Olalla by fire.

Present to enjoy the afternoon were Mrs. F. A. Wafer and Freddie of Camas Valley; Mrs. Don Lakey, Mrs. Jack McKay, Dennis and Allen; Mrs. Warren Lockwood, Carol, Diane and Michael; Mrs. Roy Cornell and Tommy; Mrs. Lawrence Adams, Mrs. Bill Centers and Cheryl; Mrs. Alfred Centers, Mrs. Mary Campbell and Dean; Mrs. Dewey Chamberlain, Mrs. A. F. Young, and Mrs. Walter Costa.

A BIRTHDAY PARTY honoring the fifth anniversary of Mike Horn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Horn, was enjoyed Saturday afternoon at the Horn home. Movies were shown and stories on records were enjoyed. Gifts were presented to the guest of honor. Back row: Jackie Dent, Debbie Horn, Patty Schultz, Vicki Dent and Lorraine Horn. Front row: Arthur Siemann, Denese Ann Horn and Mike Horn.

Also present were Mrs. Bill Schultz, Mrs. John Horn, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Horn and Mrs. Joseph Dent. The cowboy theme was cleverly carried out in the decorations for the party. Sending gifts, but unable to attend were Connie and Pamela Wildt, Mrs. Wendle Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Horn, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Brook of Springfield and Mrs. Arthur Jaeger. Mother-Daughter Banquet Takes Place At Green

Mothers and daughters of the Green Community Church were guests of honor at a Thanksgiving banquet given in the church social room Friday evening. Over 100 attended the dinner and the program which followed.

Mrs. Charles Force was banquet chairman, and worked with the following committee chairmen: Mrs. Walter Smith, food; Mrs. Casey Johnson, program; Mrs. Clyde Van Atta, advertising; Mrs. Les Forney, decorations; Al Cummings, serving and clean-up.

The white-clothed tables were attractively decorated with yellow and orange streamers and centerpieces of hollowed-out pumpkins holding chrysanthemums, surrounded by autumn leaves, fruits, and vegetables. The piano in the dining room held an interesting horn of plenty made of tinsel, filled with fruits and vegetables. The chapel piano was decorated with a charming bouquet of bonnets, gloves and silver slippers among flowers and leaves, in honor of the fashion show which was part of the program.

The men of the church did the serving and the cleaning afterward.

Mrs. Alice Pine, wife of the pastor, was mistress of ceremonies and welcomed the guests. She also introduced Mrs. Lottie Weatherford, the honored guest. Mrs. Weatherford is 82 years of age and is the mother of 13 children. She was presented with a beautiful corsage which was pinned on her by her daughter, Mrs. Noah Hatfield.

After dinner the group was entertained with an interesting program. Musical numbers were presented by Janet Weikum, who played a flute solo; Mary Lou and Susan Engdahl, who offered acrobatic numbers; and Carol Toi and Glenda Witten who played piano solos.

Mrs. Al Cummings sang a duet, as did Mrs. Frank Stringer and Mrs. Laurence Pine and Mrs. Delmar Elliott and her mother, Mrs. E. J. Vosika. Mrs. George Todd rendered a vocal solo. Musical accompaniments were played by Mrs. Cummings, Mrs. Stringer and Mrs. R. A. Stollenberg.

The style show was in the form of a play and featured the grandmother showing the old photograph album to her granddaughter.

As the pages were turned the curtains opened to show the various scenes which depicted styles and furniture arrangements typical of their respective eras. Also shown was a proposal scene and wedding picture of the 1910 era. The style show ended with a group of girls showing the modern styles and fashions, including ballroom dresses and trapeze and chemise styles. Speaking parts were given by
