MILDRED WHITE (Mrs. Levi E. White) of 1124 W. Military Avenue, has been employed by the Veterans Administration since Oct. 5, 1936 and was retired Oct. 31 of this year. The VA, at that time, was under the management of Col. E. F. Tandy, with Annie Marie McDermott as chief nurse. A very lovely reception was given at the nurse's quarters for Mrs. White at the time of her retirement. (Picture by Orville Deal.)

During those 22 years she has seen many changes take place at the V. A. Six different chief nurses have come and gone.

Mrs. White laughs and says "I have seen many managers, and many supervisors but only one vacuum cleaner." It happens to be a good old upright. For the first 18 years of Mrs. White's employment she was rated under the Medical Division and later the Housekeeping Division. So from that time on she was under this new division.

A very lovely reception was given at the nurses quarters for Mrs. White by the Housekeeping Division and she received a suitable gift at this time. Among those enjoying this occasion were Dr. J. A. Doering, manager of the V. A.; J. R. Donachie, assistant manager; Hilda Petersen of the finance department; Dora Chism, secretary of the nursing section, and the complete housekeeping group. Dr. Doering and J. R. Donachie gave fine talks. At this time Dr. Doering presented her with a "Service Award" given by the Veterans Administration in recognition of 22 years of faithful service.

The cake served at the party was baked by Lucy Rigby, a seamstress at the V. A. Mrs. White received many other beautiful gifts from residents of the nurses quarters.

Mrs. White isn't in favor of mother's small children working unless they have good reasons for so doing, for example she had a disabled husband and four minor children. The youngest of these four was only 4 years old when she entered her working career.
