

Jehovah's Witnesses Slate Assembly In Cottage Grove

Cottage Grove will host the next three-day circuit assembly for Oregon circuit 2 of Jehovah's Witnesses, according to an announcement made by C. V. Stefanich, presiding minister of the Roseburg congregation.

The high school auditorium will be used for all meetings, slated to start Friday, April 17 and continue through Saturday and Sunday. About 900 of Jehovah's Witnesses are expected to attend.

Purpose of the assembly is primarily to advance the Witnesses in their knowledge of the Bible and to increase the effectiveness of their door-to-door Christian ministry, which will be a feature of their assembly in Cottage Grove. This is accomplished by means of lectures, demonstrations, discussions and other means during the three-day sessions.

Theme Told

"Be a Teacher of the Good News" will be theme for the assembly. The theme also will be the title of the address of welcome Friday night by Eugene D. Rosam Jr. of Brooklyn, N.Y., Watchtower headquarters. Rosam will be the presiding minister during the entire assembly, and will deliver the public address, "A Paradise Earth Through God's Kingdom," at 3 p.m., Sunday, April 19. Bible answers to some of today's perplexing questions will be featured in the lecture.

Baptismal services are a feature of all assemblies of Jehovah's Witnesses, and will be conducted at 1:30 p.m. Saturday, April 18, following a discussion of the meaning of dedication and baptism.

There will be no admission fees or collections. The meetings are open to the public.

Sutherland Church Sets Holy Week Services

Church of the Holy Spirit in Sutherland has announced Palm Crosses will be distributed during its regular service hour on Palm Sunday. Holy Communion will be observed Maunday Thursday at 8 p.m. and the Three Hours on Good Friday, from noon to 3 p.m. Those attending may come or leave at 20-minute intervals.

Baptisms will be given Easter Eve, Saturday, at 3 p.m. Easter Day Holy Communion will be celebrated at 6 a.m., 11 a.m., and at the latter service, the choir and sermon, with presentation of Sunday School mite boxes as well as the flowering of the cross will be included in the program. During the 11 a.m. service the choir will wear its new robes for the first time.

Curtin Students Tour Salem Area

By RUBY MEACHAM

Curtin Grade School seventh and eighth graders recently attended the legislature in Salem.

They toured the capitol, climbed to the top of the pioneer statue, visited Fair View Home, Hillcrest School for Girls, the tuberculosis hospital and state penitentiary.

The girls toured the museum of fine arts at the University of Oregon in Eugene while the boys watched the college men practice baseball. Robert Green, principal, and Mrs. Roy Hehn accompanied the group.

Club Meets

The Eager Beaver Cooking Club met recently, and Linda Becker demonstrated how to prepare a relish dish. Jacquelyn Deeds gave a demonstration on making cocoa. Eight members, junior leader Janice Deeds and leader Mrs. Roy Hehn were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Goins are parents of a girl, Vannie Dell, born March 5.

Scout pack 134 of Curtin participated in the Scout Skill Show at the Eugene Fairgrounds and won a blue ribbon on its cone craft. Boys taking part in den 1 were Dennis Sands, Darrell Snyder, George McFadden and Billy McFadden. Tommy Thompson was den chief. Den II participants were Billy Black, Clinton Black, Walter Lackey, Robert Gillman, and Alton Brier. Den mothers of den 1 are Dorothy Sands and Dolores Snyder, and den II, Clara Black and Barbara Gillman.

The Scouts will be on television in Roseburg Tuesday at 6:30 p.m.
