

Don Drysdale Pitches Shutout For LA Dodgers

Five-Hit Blank Chalked Up By Veteran Spahn

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Don Drysdale's "tired elbow" is wide awake.
It never took a rest Tuesday as the 22-year-old Los Angeles right-hander pitched nine shutout innings and the Dodgers upped their exhibition record to 10-3, best in the majors.

The Philadelphia Phils were the victims of Drysdale's 1-0 performance, a five-hitter at Saratoga. The Phils got only two runners past first base after the fourth inning, and although the Dodgers got only three hits, a double by Jim Gentile in the fourth inning were enough. It was the first complete spring game by a Dodger pitcher in three years.

When Drysdale flopped at the start of the 1958 season some said it was nervousness before "home-town" fans. Don was born in Van Nuys, Calif., played high school ball there and was a hero in the Los Angeles area before making it with the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1956. He was 5-5 in his rookie year and 17-9 in 1957 before the Dodgers went West.

Others said it was the absence of Roy Campanella that caused Don to have a 2-8 record on May 27 last year and only 4-9 at the All-Star Game break in July. Don finally got going and ended the season 12-13.

Strong in Spring
Recently he brushed aside any detailed explanations of his slow '58 start with this statement: "My arm just wasn't in shape. I used to get tired in the elbow. That's where I feel it when my arm isn't strong. This spring I feel I passed that tired elbow stage early."

His record backs up that speech. He has allowed only two runs in 24 innings, has 17 strikeouts and has walked only five batters.
Up until Tuesday only Bob Anderson of the Chicago Cubs had gone nine innings, but Milwaukee's Warren Spahn and Pittsburgh's Vern Law made the step along with Drysdale. No American Leaguer has gone the route.

Spahn Sharp
Spahn was as sharp as Drysdale, allowing only five hits in a 3-0 victory over St. Louis at St. Petersburg. The 38-year-old left-hander is the highest paid ($60,000) pitcher in baseball because he can come up with the big ones. The Braves, only 4-14 in Florida games, needed a shot in the arm and Spahn provided it with the help of a first inning lead off homer by Ed Haas. The Braves broke a five-game losing streak.

Law stopped the much-improved Detroit Tigers 2-1 at Lakeland, as Rocky Nelson, the perennial minor leaguer chipped in with three hits, including a home run. One of four hits off Law was a homer by Gail Harris.

Baltimore shelled Kansas City 11-3 at West Palm Beach. The Orioles, atop the AL spring standings with a 3-4 record, had 14 hits, including homers by Gus Triandis and Willie Tasby.

Washington hung the seventh straight defeat on Cincinnati, 7-6 at Tampa. Frank Robinson hit a grand slam homer in the Reds' sixth run eighth after the Senators had finished scoring.

Poor Red Sox
The Boston Red Sox' nosedive continued at Phoenix where the San Francisco Giants won 10-4. It was Boston's fourth straight loss after winning 10 of their first 11. The pitching staff was hit by their customary robust hitting, but more important was seven innings of five-hit work by former Phil Eddie Sanford.

Jack Nance doubled home two runs in an eighth inning pinch hitting role as the Chicago Cubs broke a tie and defeated Cleveland 4-2 at Mesa. Rookie Joe Schaffernoth shut out the Indians on four hits for seven innings.

In a night game at Miami, the New York Yankees landed on rookie Rodolph Arias of the Chicago White Sox for five runs on seven hits in the fifth inning, the last five in a row. The Yanks won it 6-4 and ended a string of 10 scoreless innings by Arias.

Players Fire Major League Barrister

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — J. Norman Lewis became the legal representative for the major league baseball players six years ago despite the belligerent opposition of the club owners. Today, the New York attorney has lost the job because of his own belligerence toward the owners.

Lewis was given the ax here Tuesday at a meeting of the 16 player representatives. They announced they now have more need for a public relations representative—an agency man to handle endorsements and similar matters—than an attorney.

The representatives, after a day long meeting, took back to their respective clubs a proposal to set up a central office in New York with Frank Scott to act as their representative. Scott already has served as an agent for numerous players.

Made $20,000 Yearly
Lewis himself made the announcement that his contract, which calls for $20,000 a year and expires March 31, had not been renewed.

He told newsmen: "The players believe that by reason of the achievements they already have accomplished, they no longer need a permanent attorney under contract."
"But we felt," said one representative, who declined use of his name "that he had become too belligerent toward the owners."

Moves Backfire
Two recent moves by Lewis led to his dismissal.
One was an attempt to gain a pension fund for international league players. That plan died aborting when players in the Tri-State league called off a protesting strike in the face of owner insistence that no money was available for such a fund.

The other was Lewis' threatened court action against baseball as an outgrowth of the International League pension plan. Such action would attack the reserve clause which binds a player to one club and a contract requirement repeatedly approved by the players.

The players' major achievements with Lewis' aid were a hike in minimum salaries from $3,000 to the present $7,000, and a more expanded and rewarding pension and insurance plan which collects 60 per cent of television fees from the All Star game and World Series.

Ducks Even Baseball Series With California

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP)—The University of Oregon baseball team has evened its series with the California Bears.
The Ducks won Tuesday's game here 12-6 as Glen Reid and Jim Hollister banded out a total of five hits. The Ducks lost their season opener 6-5 to the Bears on Monday.

Reid and Hollister each hit doubles in the first inning and drove in a series of four runs. Reid singled and Hollister doubled in Oregon's five-run third inning.

NAMED TO TILT

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Lee Harman, who scored 364 points for Oregon State this season, will play in the Shrine East-West All-Star basketball game here March 28.
He was named to the team Tuesday along with John Green of Michigan State.

SALMON CATCHES

WITH SALMON SEASON open five days now, here are a pair of early examples of the angler's art. In the top picture is the largest salmon caught so far, weighing in at 38 pounds. The angler is Stew Taylor of Riddle. Below is a 35-pound 4-ouncer caught in the Umpqua River by Carl Wassom of Roseburg, the first salmon reeled in this season. It is entered in the Umpqua Gun Store and the Food Mart Salmon Derby. (Dick Gilman)

Salmon fishing has been slow on both the Upper and Lower Umpqua Rivers since getaway date last Saturday, according to Jerry Bauer, fisheries biologist for the State Game Commission.

A few fish have been caught at Winchester, The Forks, and Tyee, he added. The outlook for the weekend remains the same—the prospect of a few fish caught.
Water conditions for fishing are good on the Lower Umpqua, Bauer added. With fishing legal from an hour before sunrise to an hour after sunset, the season extends until June 7. The limit is two the first day and four in seven consecutive days.

Meanwhile, in the year-round warm-water fishing, perch angling has been reported good on Tenmile Lake, and the first bass of the season has been taken at Loon Bay according to the fisheries agent at Reedsport.

$11,000 In Proceeds Earned In A-2 Tourney
COOS BAY (AP)—The Oregon School Activities Assn. received about $11,000 of proceeds from the state class A-2 basketball tournament held here last week.

It wasn't all profit. Guy Sheltonberger, Marshfield High School principal, said it cost the association more than $8,000 to put on the meet. Most of the remainder goes into the OSAA treasury.
The tournament was the first of its kind ever held here.

Dark Horse Cincinnati Requires Help For Harried Hurling Staff

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — The Cincinnati Reds are being tabbed as the dark horse of the National League but that is bringing little solace to Manager Mayo Smith and General Manager Gabe Paul. They realize that if something isn't done soon about the plight of their pitching staff, the Reds will be fortunate to finish in the first division.

Ask Smith to evaluate his club and he gives you several stock replies. He leaves it up to you to interpret them.
"It's hard to say whether the club is good, mediocre or bad at this point because we don't know about the pitching..."

"Our pitching is the key. How far we go depends upon that."
The truth of the matter is that Mayo is worried about his pitching, or lack of it. He has four veteran starters in Bob Purkey (17-11), Don Newcombe (7-13), Brooks Lawrence (8-13) and southpaw Joe Nuxhall (12-11). He has a couple of good looking youngsters in lefty Jimmy O'Toole and righty Orlando Pena.
O'Toole, a 20-game winner at Nashville, is the big hope. But Smith is afraid of the pressure.
The way the staff shapes up, Pena and Hal Jeffcoat will be the end relief men, Tom Acker and Willard Schmidt will be the middle men and Bob Mabe may win the No. 5 starting role.

Cincinnati has a balance of power, achieved mainly by the acquisition of right-handed hitting slugger Frank Thomas from Pittsburgh. The Reds' batting order lists left-handers Gus Bell, Vada Pinson, Jerry Lynch in the outfield and Ed Bailey behind the plate; with right-handers Frank Robinson at first, Johnny Temple at second, Roy McMillan at short and Tomas at third.

The suspension is that Thomas, a mediocre third baseman but a good outfielder, will be switched to left field with Bell either peddled to another club or cast out.

Giants Get Sad Sam Jones In Major Deal With Cards

8 The News-Review, Roseburg, Ore. — Wed. Mar. 25, 1959

Former Giant Pitcher Sees Phillie Wins

CLEARWATER, Fla. (AP) — Ruben Gomez, the Puerto Rican right-hander who puts up a fuss about pitching in cool weather and occasionally pops a batter, with a pitch, admits he's a little temperamental.
"Everybody has things they like to do or don't like," said Ruben, who does a pretty good job with English. "I don't like to pitch in cold weather."
"No pitcher does, unless he has a fast ball, and I don't throw so hard. When it is cold you don't break a sweat. I like to have moisture on my hands so I can control the ball better."

Two Surprises
Gomez, a thin guy who stands 6-0 and is listed at 170, admits the December trade that sent him from the San Francisco Giants to the Philadelphia Phillies came as a surprise. Two surprises in fact.

"First I was surprised that they traded me," he said, "and then I am surprised that they traded me to Philadelphia. I think they traded me to Cincinnati."

"I like this team. I get a chance to learn from that fellow" Ruben added, pointing to Robin Roberts. "I watch to see how he moves the ball around. And if there is some hitter he gets out all the time I watch and maybe I will too."

Best In 1954
Ruben, 31, had a 10-12 record last season, his sixth in the majors. He thinks he can win 15 with the Phillies, "if they pitch me regularly so I can get into the groove."

"My best year was 1951. I won 17. But I pitched better the next year and didn't win so many (9-10). There were more errors behind me and I lost 2-1, 3-2. I would rather lose 1-0 than win 7-5, because you know you pitch better."

About those dunder oracles Gomez gets into, does he make a practice of pitching tight — high, inside?
"I don't throw inside. I throw low and down there, outside. Sometimes I throw close, up here," Ruben said, making a swipe at his chest.
"I hit some," he admitted, "but sometimes I don't see how they get hit."

Eddie Hogan Wins Region Golf Tourney

MEDFORD (AP)—Eddie Hogan of Portland shot a two-under-par 70 at the Rogue Valley Country Club Tuesday to win the three-day pro-amateur sweepstakes tournament of the Oregon Professional Golfers Assn.
His round here gave him a three-day total of 212. Earlier rounds were played at Roseburg and Ashland.
Bob Duden of Portland was runner-up at 213. A one-over-par 73 Tuesday cost him the title.

Next came Eddie Oldfield, Astoria, 214, and Boots Porterfield, Grants Pass, 215.
The low amateur was DeRoss Kinkade, Cottage Grove, with a 235. Tied for second were Frank Maize, Astoria, and Lee Flink, Medford.

Frank Langley, Grants Pass, took low net amateur laurels with 242-20-212.
Other pro scores included: Bob Gasper, Cottage Grove, 229; Harvey Hixson, Eugene, 231.

Other amateur scores: Charles Sparks, Eugene, 241-21—220; Don Deveraux, Eugene, 265-42—223.

Jumper Hurt In Elevator

BOSTON (AP) — Boston University freshman John Thomas, the world high jump record holder, will be sidelined eight to 12 weeks with a foot injury suffered in an elevator mishap.
The track career of the 18-year-old sensation was nearly ended Tuesday when his left foot got caught between an elevator and the shaft in a BU building where he is employed part time.

Dr. Chester W. Howe operated on Thomas at Massachusetts Memorial Hospital and said the young Negro star will be confined for several days.

RACING
BOWIE, Md. — Satan Helper ($13,200) came off the pace to win the Bowie Feature by three lengths. Howard Grant, bagging three more winners, broke Willie Hartack's record for a single meeting. Hartack had 41 winners in 33 days in 1955. Grant now has 42 in only 16 days.

Beavers Win From Seattle

BRAWLEY, Calif. (AP)—Three Portland pitchers limited Seattle to four hits as Portland scored a 5-0 victory in a baseball exhibition game between the two Pacific Coast League teams here Tuesday.
Wally Burnette from the Kansas City Athletics, pitcher-coach Larry Jansen and Mike Kume combined for the shutout.

Portland scored once in the second inning off starting pitcher Dave Stenhouse on a walk and singles by Wilmer Schantz and Chico Valentini.

The Beavers picked up four more in the fourth off Jerry Cade, a former Drain, Ore., high school and semi-pro lefthander. The big blow that inning was Jim Aldredge's three-run triple.
Case was wild. He walked four men in two innings.

High Scoring Likely In East-West Battle

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) — A pair of coaches who advocate ball control offense match wits tonight in an East-West college basketball game.
But don't look for a low-scoring contest.
The 10-man squads coached by Hank Iba of Oklahoma State and Bud Millikan of Maryland include some of the nation's top point-makers, including All American Bailey Howell of Mississippi State (27.5) and Bob Boozer of Kansas State (25.7).

Eugene Cager Awarded Laurels At Marquette

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Mike Moran of Eugene, Ore., is the most valuable player on the Marquette University basketball team.
The title was awarded to him Tuesday night.
He established an all-time school scoring record of 1,355 points in three seasons.

Sam Snead's Lead Slim

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Only four strokes separated Sam Snead from the worst-off of 20 leaders playing their final 18-hole round today for $1,000 top money in the Seminole Medal Golf Tournament.
Snead, of Boca Raton, was operating from a first-day 34-36—70, two strokes below par on the windy, 6,850-yard Seashore course.

A stroke behind were Arnold Palmer of Ligonier, Pa., Cary Midlockoff and Dick Mayer of St. Petersburg.
Dow Finsterwald of Tequesta, Fla., was among those carding 73s. Ben Hogan was out of the top 20 at 75.
