Mr. and Mrs. Tony Gruba and baby, Brett, came to Roseburg over the weekend to take home their two older children, Jean Marie and Brian, who have been here being cared for by their maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Desbiers.

Mr. and Mrs. George Conkey of Sauk Centre, Minn., have left for Portland to visit the former's sister, Mrs. Jeppeson, after visiting here with his mother, Mrs. G. Conkey, and his aunt, Miss Ethel Webb.

Mrs. Marsha Essary of Ellensburg, Wash., visited here recently at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Essary. The former was en route home following a visit in Missouri with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Morgan returned to their home here yesterday, following a stay in Portland since Sunday attending to business.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Grader of Albany visited in Roseburg with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Woodworth. They were here for the Rotary convention. Mrs. Grader and Frank Woodworth are cousins.

Dennis Sutton, 7, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Sutton, has been confined to his home for the past few days suffering from effects of facial injuries sustained while playing near home.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bennett of Eugene stopped by Monday to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Beamer. They were en route home following a trip to California to see their son, Jack, who is playing freshman baseball for Stanford University. Bennett is manager of the Connie Mack baseball team in Eugene.

Steve Agabba of Fairbanks, Alaska, arrived here last Saturday en route from Las Vegas, Nev., back to his home in Alaska. While here he visited his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. George Weseman on Diamond Lake Boulevard. He left for Portland yesterday. He is a sports announcer for the Fairbanks Radio and TV station.

Mrs. Lola Brooke and daughter, Mrs. Bill Cole, and sons, Billy, Ricky and Ronnie, all of Fremont, Calif., and the former's sister, Mrs. Elwood Bolser of Salem, stopped by briefly Tuesday to visit at the home of Mrs. Brooke's brother-in-law and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Brooke. The travelers were en route to Salem to take Mrs. Bolser home following a visit in California.

Herbert W. Lombard, attorney from Cottage Grove, was a business visitor here Wednesday.

Lynn Butler, Wallie Beamer and C. M. Beamer spent the weekend fishing at Diamond Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bash of Medford were here for the Rotary convention. Mrs. Bash is the former Kathleen Ness of this city. Her mother, Mrs. T. H. Ness, who has made her home for a number of years in Eugene with her daughter, Mrs. A. L. Hawn, and family, is now residing at the Bash home in Medford.

Mrs. Alfred S. Tyson, Mrs. Frank B. Woodworth, Mrs. Ralph Ohman, Mrs. Dan Hill, Mrs. George French, and Mrs. Ivan Brosi will act as chaperones for 50 girls from St. George's Episcopal Church going to the Black Oaks on the Rogue River, which was turned over to the Episcopal Church by its owners. The group will leave here Friday and return Sunday evening.

T. Sgt. Bruce F. Hamilton, of the Air Force stationed at Colorado Springs, Colo., has been screened and cleared for Security Service in Istanbul, Turkey, for an 18-month tour of duty, according to word received here by his mother, Mrs. Byron McFarland, and sister, Miss Alice Hamilton. He will remain longer in Turkey if conditions are favorable for his family to live there. He is taking his family and leaving for Turkey this month.

Mrs. Thomas (Inez G.) Brittain Foster died in Portland April 26 according to word received here. She was born Oct. 19, 1865, in Roseburg, the daughter of A. B. and Mary Trueheart Willis Gilliland, pioneer residents. She was married in 1888 and left Roseburg. Survivors include a daughter, Margaret Foster, Portland; niece, Myrtle Hanan, Tucson, Ariz., formerly of Roseburg, and a grandniece, Mrs. Paul A. Grant, Portland. Services were held at Finley's Rose Chapel Wednesday with interment at Riverview. Margaret Foster makes her home at 1307 SW Broadway in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Singleton and son, Ford, are back at their home on SE Douglas Avenue, following a month's vacation trip to California. They visited their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Singleton, in San Diego, and their granddaughter, Mrs. Howard Mitchell, and family in Whittier, and with another granddaughter, Mrs. Duane Wells, and family, in El Cajon. While in San Diego, they enjoyed a visit at the home of the former Frances Black of Roseburg, who with her husband and three children reside there. Also visiting her at that time was her mother, Mrs. P. H. Black, of 29 Palms, Calif., formerly of Roseburg, so the Singletons enjoyed a visit with her also. While in San Diego, they especially enjoyed going through the zoo.

WHAT DO SHOEMAKER'S MEAN when they say "GENUINE GOODYEAR WELTS"?

HERE IS THE CLINIC SHOE SHOEMAKER'S ANSWER TO THIS VITAL QUESTION:

Genuine Goodyear welt construction is looked upon as the most perfect since the days of hand made shoes... by all shoe trade people... and is associated with footwear of the finest type.

Introduced by Charles Goodyear two hundred years ago, this machine-method with all its recognized advantages of long wear and durable stitching helps make CLINIC shoes more comfortable, last longer, take punishment in their stride.
