Yanks In Streak - Win Two In Row

Boston	9	10	.474	4 1/2
New York	9	12	.429	5 1/2
Detroit	5	16	.238	9 1/2

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
For the first time in two weeks, the New York Yankees have won two games in a row. For the first time in 13 games, they've managed to score more than two runs in any one inning. And for the first time in a week, they've gained ground in their fight to get out of the American League's second division.
That's how dreary things have been of late for the World Champions.

They flashed some of their long missing power last night at Kansas City for a 7-4 victory that left them seventh, but edged them within two games of fourth place and within 3 1/2 of first.
They did it in a quick explosion, scoring all their runs in the first three innings and then getting only a pair of singles in six innings of superb, shutout relief by the A's Bud Daley.
Baltimore spilled first place Cleveland 6-5 in the only other AL night game, after Washington had rapped the Chicago White Sox 6-4 and Boston hammered out a 17-6 victory over the Detroit Tigers, who had won three straight.
The Yankees got five hits and three runs before loser Bob Grim (3-2) and reliever Ralph Terry could get a man out. Tony Kubek opened with a homer, catcher John Blanchard, an outfield fill-in for the flu-struck Yanks, doubled and came home on Gil McDougald's double. Then Siebern capped the frame with an RBI double.
They scored another three in the second inning on Norm Siebern's homer, then closed their scoring in the third on a bunt—their 10th hit—an error, wild pitch and a sacrifice fly by winner Art Ditmar (1-1).
Bobby Shantz relieved Ditmar in the eighth after a solo home run by Bob Cerv.
Baltimore's young Milt Pappas, still a week shy of his 20th birthday, stayed unbeaten (2-0) as the second place Orioles broke loose for four runs in the seventh inning at Cleveland against Gary Bell (2-2).
The Indians, who lead by 2 1/2 games, made it close on Ray Webster's first major league homer in the ninth. It came with two on against Billy Loes.
Rookie Bob Allison's first grand slam homer wrapped up Washington's most successful (7-2) western trip in a decade, hauling the Nats from behind in the seventh inning against Early Wynn (3-2). Camilo Pascual (2-2) was the winner with relief help.

Ray Robinson Listens To Variety Of Bids

NEW YORK (AP)—Ray Robinson, boxing's angry man, isn't too angry to listen to bids of various promoters for a middleweight championship rematch between Robinson and Carmen Basilio.
Robinson has been stripped of the crown by the National Boxing Assn.
He is angry at California because that state wouldn't let him bring in his own occasional promoter, Johnny Attell of New York. He's angry at the NBA for taking away his title.
He's angry at Jim Norris, former International Boxing Club chief, and Norris' successor, Truman Gibson, for booking a light heavyweight championship match between Archie Moore and Yvon Durelle at Montreal July 13.

First Stan Musial Homer Triggers Cardinal Victory

Ever wonder just how important one-run defeats can be in a pennant race? Ask Solly Hemus. Without 'em, his St. Louis Cardinals could be first in the National League. With 'em they're last.
Don't shrug it off. Sure, Los Angeles, Philadelphia and Pittsburgh could be leading the league, too, by reversing their one-run losses. But the weight of those lone-run defeats hangs heaviest on the Cardinals.
St. Louis has played 22 games. Half of them have been decided by one run. They've been handed half of their 16 defeats by that margin, and have gained half of their six victories the same way.
The Cards gave Hemus, their rookie manager, a tough time again Wednesday night, coming from behind with four runs in the eighth that proved just enough for an 8-7 victory at Philadelphia. They had lost by the same score to the Phillies Tuesday night.

For the record, while the Cards are 3-8 in one-run decisions, Milwaukee is 4-3, Cincinnati 3-4, San Francisco 4-2, Los Angeles 4-3, Chicago 4-5, Philadelphia 5-4 and Pittsburgh 5-3.
Milwaukee's first-place Braves stayed that way with a one-run victory Wednesday, beating Los Angeles 5-4. The Chicago Cubs beat Pittsburgh 3-0 on Dave Hillman's two-hitter. Cincinnati and San Francisco, tied for second, a game back of the Braves, were idle.
Stan Musial's first home run of the season—the 399th of his career—triggered the Cardinals' winning eighth. Joe Cunningham also ripped a two-run pinch double in the rally against losing reliever Jack Meyer (3-2).
The Braves, held to an unearned run for six innings by Gene Snyder and reliever Johnny Klippstein, came from behind on Johnny Logan's two-run single in the seventh and RBI singles by Ed Mathews and pinchhitter Wes Covington in a two-run eighth. Art Fowler (2-2) was the loser. Bob Giggie gained his first major league victory in his first decision with two-innings of hitless, shutout relief.

Robinson figures the Moore match belonged to him.
However, Robinson has a $900,000 offer, plus a percentage, from Madison Square Garden to defend his now rather nebulous title against Basilio, with the match to be promoted in Los Angeles or elsewhere, but not in New York.
He also has an offer from Willie Gilzenberg and his partner, Babe Cullen, to meet Basilio in Jersey City's Roosevelt Stadium, and another from Gilzenberg to stage the match at the Miami, Fla. Stadium.

Iraq Takes U. S. Offer
BAGHDAD, Iraq (AP)—Iraqi students are going to study in the United States and the Soviet Union.
The Ministry of Education accepted to scholarships offered by the American Point Four program for Iraqis to attend U.S. colleges. Under a cultural agreement with the Soviet Union, 100 Iraqi scholarship students will study at Soviet institutes. The pact also provides for the Soviet Union to send scientists to Iraq.
