

Melrose Man Home After Log Accident

By NETTIE WOODRUFF
Robert (Pudge) Vierra returned Sunday to his home following treatment in a local hospital since Friday, when he was injured in a logging accident in the Reston area. He was struck in the face by a swinging end hook while loading logs and suffered several broken bones in the cheek.

Mrs. R. A. Eisenbark is confined to Mercy Hospital for treatment of a broken hip suffered Thursday in a fall at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Gilbert and nine children have moved from Myrtle Point to the Stinner rental in the Cleveland district.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Abel left Monday for Diamond Lake where they will operate the grocery stores at the lake during the summer tourist season.

Joseph Lane Junior High School hand entertained at Melrose School on Wednesday.

Ann Eisenbark, student at Oregon State College, spent the weekend at the family home in Melrose.

Mr. and Mrs. Taft Warner of Chico, Calif., spent the weekend in Melrose attending to business. They have sold their home on Callahan Road to Francis Knoblock of Little River.

Mrs. Scott Stidham returned Saturday from a two-week visit in Portland and Ellensburg, Wash., with relatives.

Mrs. Wallace Matthews of Jone, Ore., is spending several days with the Otto Matthews family and attending the state Rebekah Lodge convention.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Young are back from a visit in California. Mrs. Young spent the weekend with her son, Jim Young, and family at Sacramento while Young attended to business in the Los Angeles area.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Smith have been attending to property interests in Melrose and will return to Los Angeles in a few days.

Arthur and Dale Herrman and Buckley Bell enjoyed a fishing trip to Loom Lake during the weekend.

Officers Elected By Women Voters

EUGENE (AP) — Mrs. K. E. Montgomery, Eugene, was elected president of the League of Women Voters of Oregon Wednesday in closing sessions of the state convention here.

A total of 103 delegates representing 15 leagues and one provisional league attended the three-day convocation.

Elected to serve with Mrs. Montgomery are Mrs. John Wolfe, Corvallis, first vice president; Mrs. R. W. Swanson, Portland, second vice president; Mrs. Ione Pierson, Eugene, secretary; Mrs. William Wylie, Coos Bay, treasurer.

Named as directors are Mrs. B. H. Arnold, Corvallis; Mrs. George L. Beard, Oswego; Beatrice Burr, Beaverton; Mrs. Don Kizer, McMinnville; Mrs. Clayton C. Morse, Astoria; and Mrs. John E. Quarterout, Medford.

The delegates adopted as the current agenda item for a state-wide level a revision of the state constitution, reappraisal of the methods of revision, and a study of the judicial branch.

Coburg Voters Reject Eugene Consolidation

EUGENE (AP) — A proposed reorganization of the Coburg school district to bring it into the Eugene school system, failed at the polls there.

In Eugene the vote was 161-238 against.

Under provisions of the school reorganization law all the votes in the two districts are counted and the overall majority decides the election.

Last January, Coburg voters turned down a proposed consolidation of the two districts while Eugene voters approved it. Under a consolidation election, both districts have to give approval.

Eugene Selects Educator

EUGENE (AP) — Millard Z. Pond, superintendent of public schools at Burlington, Ia., was named Wednesday as new superintendent of Eugene public schools.

Pond, who is 51, will assume his new duties Aug. 1. He will fill the vacancy left by Clarence Hines, who resigned in February to accept a position as professor of education at the University of Oregon.
